SALE OF PLASTICVILLE HOUSES BENEFITS LIBRARY

The Back Mountain Memorial Library recently received a unique donation of antique Plasticville houses, circa 1950. The houses are in unassembled condition in their original boxes. Many collectors will remember placing these houses near train sets under their trees as a very important part of their holiday decorations. These houses will be part of a special holiday sale at the library beginning Monday, Nov. 19. Also on sale will be many vintage hand-blown glass ornaments from Germany and Austria. There are also several Shiny Bright ornaments from Bloomingdales for sale. All proceeds will benefit the library.
