DHS students take part in Career Day

Forty-two Dallas Senior High School students recently participated in an Accounting Career Day sponsored by the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants and held at King's College.

The King's program, one of 13 held in Pennsylvania, included a total of 222 students from 10 high schools.

The purpose of the free program was to expose students to diverse career opportunities in the accounting profession. They joined in group discussions that covered various career paths such as public accounting, forensic accounting, FBI, IRS, education, tax and financial planning and information technology and consulting.

TLC families aid BMT food pantry

Children, parents, grandparents and teachers at the Trinity Learning Center in Dallas held their annual "Season of Thanksgiving Food Drive" to help the Back Mountain Food Pantry meet the holiday needs of their many clients. More than 300 pounds of food were collected and delivered to the pantry to help with the estimated 200 Thanksgiving baskets which were provided for families in the Back Mountain this year. From left, first row, are Braden Vallach, Mackenzie

TRINITY LEARNING CENTER STUDENTS AID MAKE-A-WISH

The Trinity Learning Center in Dallas recently sponsored its fifth annual Make-A-Wish fundraising event and raised more than $1,500 through a basket raffle to help make wishes come true for critically ill children. The parents and staff members at the school donated the baskets. Throughout the years, the children have participated in many ways to help others such as collecting food at Thanksgiving time for the Back Mountain Food Pantry, collecting Toys For Tots at Christmas time and much more. At the end of the event, teachers and students gathered for this group photo with their check to mark the proceeds of their fundraiser.

TEC kindergarten celebrates Thanksgiving

The inaugural kindergarten class at Trucksville Early Childhood Education Center recently held its first Thanksgiving program. The children, who are taught by teacher Tina Kravits, recited a program depicting the story of the Pilgrims and Native Americans. They also sang songs and shared what they are personally thankful for. The program was attended by parents, relatives and friends of the children and concluded with a traditional Thanksgiving feast. From left, first row, are Liam Brady, Tommy Favata, Giada Ward, Lauren Murray, Ellie Paley, Brianna Baltruchitis, Ashley Eggleston, Jacob Zelenak, Kyla O'Brien, Matthew Preiman.
