Luzerne County Head Start offers a range of comprehensive programs for children from birth to age 5 and pregnant women, funded by a variety of sources, including federal and state, school district, United Way, community groups, organizations and individuals.

Families must meet specific criteria, including age and income eligibility, to qualify. Parents/guardians are encouraged to apply early as selection for the 2013-2014 school year begins in the spring of 2013.
