

This turn-of-the-century house on North Main Street in Shavertown is pretty in pastels.

Homes in the Elmcrest development in Dallas are decorated merry and bright for Christmas.

SIGNS of the SEASON

From deer wearing Santa hats to smiling Grinches and blow-up snowmen, houses all around the Back Mountain are decorated in their holiday best, continuing to show their spirit as the holidays wind down.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Roushey Street in Shavertown shows its holiday spirit.

These deer, spotted on the corner of Krispen Road and Mount Olivet Road in Shavertown, are ready for the holiday.

Mike Dzanko puts finishing touches on the Christmas decorations at his house.

This barn in Lehman is decorated for Christmas.

At this house on Monroe Avenue in Dallas, even the Grinch is happy.