"BMYL is proud to offer this opportunity to the players of the Back Mountain. The Bandits organization is on target to be one of the area's biggest competitors."

"The BMYL Girls program is growing rapidly with all of our teams from grades three, four, five, six and seven/eight having great success this year," said John Delamater, girls coordinator and founder of the organization. "As our schedule keeps evolving to playing teams more locally like Mountain Top, Danville, Delaware Valley, Tunkhannock and Pleasant Valley, we are hopeful this trend will continue and the opportunities for our girls to excel at the sport will grow with it for many years to come."

The tournament is a fun-filled day with vendors such as Dick's Sporting Goods, Hockey Stop Sports, Philadelphia Hawks professional team, Mad-dog Lacrosse and more displaying their wares.

In addition to vendors, there will be a shot clock for players and spectators to test and time their throwing skills. There will be a concession stand offering homemade and grilled items, sno cones, funnel cakes, popcorn and much more.

tribal warfare version except the long-handled racket or crosse that gives the sport its name. It's true that the object in both the men's and women's lacrosse is to send a ball through a goal by means of the racket, but whereas men resort to brute strength, the women depend solely on skill."

Today, Sinclair, is remembered as the "Grand Dame of Lacrosse" and was the first woman to be inducted into the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

In a tribute to the origins of girls lacrosse, the "old stick" that the Lake-Lehman and Dallas girls will play for is an authentic Hattersley's "Viktor" hickory crosse crafted in Manchester, England nearly 100 years ago. The name "J.L. Cray" is carved in the handle - presumably by the girl who first owned the crosse and used it to play with her classmates on the lawn of her school long ago.
