OLD STICK GAME

Adams, Wilson provide one-two punch in LL lacrosse win

By TOM ROBINSON
For The Dallas Post

Whether the measurement is volume or timing, sophomore attacker Alyssa Adams has shown the ability to be a big-time goal producer for the Lake-Lehman girls' lacrosse team.

Adams scored a season-high eight goals Tuesday to lead a 16-4 romp over rival Dallas.

She came back the next night to score the game-winning goal with 48 seconds left for an 8-7 victory over second-place Delaware Valley, which entered the game with an 8-2 record and losses only against Wyoming Valley Conference champion Wyoming Seminary.

"Three girls crashed on me and I just took a shot," Adams said of the game-winner.

Adams has taken many shots for the Lady Knights, while forming a 1-2 scoring punch with Mallory Wilson.

The two sophomores made a connection from the time they started playing together with the Back Mountain Bandits in seventh grade.

Wilson, the daughter of Lake-Lehman coach Alex Wilson, had been the youngest player in the program when she joined in fourth grade and played with girls as many as seven years older. Adams joined in three years later and, ac-ording to her current coach, immediately showed the dedication to learning the sport's stick work and combining it with the speed that also helps make her a starter in field hockey season.

"We've been playing together since I started," Adams said. "She's been playing longer than me, but we instantly clicked on the field. From that, we were able to pass more and help each other out."

Both have racked up impressive scoring totals with Adams providing more of the goals and Wilson more of the assists. They are 1-2 on the team in scoring for the second straight season, helping Lake-Lehman to a 6-5 record in the first season of WVC play.

After each provided three goals and an assist to the win over Delaware Valley, Adams has 76 goals and seven assists. Wilson has 40 goals and 29 assists. They are both over 100 goals for their career with two-plus years to add to those totals.

"Mallory is more the quarterback," coach Wilson said. "She scores a lot, but it is also her job to distribute."

When Adams went out with a kneecap injury last season, Wilson proved she could score more goals as well.

The two Lake-Lehman teammates finished first and second in the state in scoring by freshmen among teams that reported their statistics to maxpreps.com.

Wilson had 81 goals and 24 assists. Adams, who had a pair of nine-goal efforts, had 61 goals and three assists in just 11 games.

The two high-scoring sophomores had help in the win over Dallas. Aleah Blazick matched Wilson in providing three goals and two assists.

Cara Pritcher and Katie Snedeker had two goals each for Dallas.

Amelia Jenkins added the other two Lake-Lehman goals against Delaware Valley.

Mountaineer netmen better last year's record

By TOM ROBINSON
For The Dallas Post

Dallas entered the boys tennis season with the uncertainty of an inexperienced lineup.

Despite that inexperience, the Mountaineers wrapped up the team portion of their schedule by advancing one round further in the District 2 Class AA tournament and matching last season's 8-5 record.

"My goal every year is to make the district playoffs," coach Joe Pugliese said. "We did that again this year and came into districts as the No. 4 seed, which was a good accomplishment for our team."

"It's a little better than expected coming in with an inexperienced team."

The Mountaineers defeated Berwick, 4-1, in the team semifinals Monday. They advanced to Tuesday's semifinals where they fell to then-undefeated Wyoming Seminary, 3-0.

Dallas swept the singles matches in its home playoff against Berwick.

Francois Ross downed Luke Whitenight, 6-1, 6-0, at No. 1; Tyler Tuck defeated Dom Scicchitano, 6-1, 6-3, at No. 2; and Aleksey Gitelson topped Blake Whitmire, 6-2, 6-0, at No. 3.

Ross earned a seventh seed in the individual district tournament, which began Thursday, based on his singles play throughout the season.

Gitelson had the team's best singles record, going 9-2.

Steve Wempa and Colton Powell gave Dallas a point at No. 1 doubles by beating Berwick's Nick Oliver and Cole Gardner, 6-0, 6-3.

James Garringer and Arlinton Reyes of Berwick defeated Frank Hullihen and Nick Mouldoon, 6-2, 6-4, at No. 2.

"A few of the guys that had very little experience from last year that got to play most of the matches this year did very well," Pugliese said. "Colton Powell did very well playing doubles for us."

"Frank Hullihen is a junior who had never played on a team before. This is his first year but he did very well."

Hullihen was in the lineup for every match, splitting time between first and second doubles.

The doubles teams did their best to extend matches against Wyoming Seminary in the district semifinals before the competition was halted when the Blue Knights clinched the victory with three singles points.

Wempa and Powell were tied, 4-4, in the second set after dropping the first set to Matt Cartwright and Grant Klingler. Hullihen and Mouldoon took the first set to a tiebreaker against Peter Valentiner and Matt Obeid.

The Blue Knights, who fell to Scranton Prep, 3-2, in the championship match, won by taking all but five games in the six sets of singles play.
