Scouts enjoy overnight visit to Philadelphia Zoo

Cub Scouts of Pack 155 Trucksville recently enjoyed an overnight camping trip to the Philadelphia Zoo.

The Scouts arrived at the zoo early in the evening and were treated to live animal demonstrations, games, snacks and an evening hike through the zoo to see animals that are more active after the sun goes down.

The Scouts, their parents and leaders then stayed overnight in the tree house at the zoo and spent the next day touring the zoo on their own.

Pack 155 is chartered by the Trucksville United Methodist Church and meets all year. Any boy entering the first through fifth grade this fall is eligible to join. Contact Cubmaster Russ Banta at 696-2833 for more details.

Scouts visit KT Police Department
