Clothing shed benefits Scouts, Dallas Baptist church

Cub Scout Pack 241, Lehman, and Dallas Baptist Church, Dallas, is sponsoring a clothing drop off shed as a fundraiser and service to the community.

Recently, St. Pauly Textile installed one of its clothing collection sheds at the Dallas Baptist Church for the community to use as a drop off for clothing. The clothing will be distributed all over the United States and world to those who can use it.

Cub Scout Pack 241 will maintain the shed and manage the clothing donations. The pack will receive funds based on every 1,000 pounds of clothing donated.

Do your spring cleaning and drop your unwanted clothing into the shed at 3 Briarcrest, Dallas (Route 415 near Harveys Lake). St. Pauly is a family-owned company based in Upstate N.Y. and an A-plus rated member of the Better Business Bureau. St. Pauly collects useable clothing, shoes, sneakers, belts, purses, linens, blankets and drapes. In 2011, more than 55 million garments were distributed to an estimated 6.875 million people all over the world through the St. Pauly program.

PEOPLE BRIEFS

DANKO ON DEAN'S LIST

Lindsay Danko, daughter of Ron and Deb Canko, of Dallas, was named to the dean's list at Ohio State University for the spring semester 2013. She is a nursing major.

Requirements for the deans list are a GPA of 3.5 or higher as a full time student.

DANKO GRADUATES FROM WILKES

Eric Danko, son of Ron and Den Danko, of Dallas, received a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering from Wilkes University. He was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force and will be stationed at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia.

An Air Force ROTC cadet at Wilkes, Danko was named to the dean's list. Requirements for the dean's list are a GPA of 3.4 or higher as a full time student.

Danko also recently completed a project for the Gush Kande Primary School as part of his degree requirements. All Wilkes University senior engineering students are required to complete a project with real-world application.

The project focused on the installation of a solar power system in the remote Bangladesh village of Gush Kande. The system will enable the village school to charge batteries on iPads and access the Internet, thus connecting the village with the rest of the world and allow the village students to take classes in partnership with other schools, including Wilkes University.

CRAWFORD NAMED TO KING'S COUNCIL

Dr. Carol Crawford, of Dallas, professor emeriti of mathematics at the United States Naval Academy, was recently appointed to a three-year term on the King's College President's Council.

Crawford recently attended her first meeting of the King's President's Council, a 42-member group that acts as advisors to the college's administration and helps promote King's mission in the Wyoming Valley.

The Wilkes-Barre native received her doctorate from Georgetown University. Her areas of research included robotics, artificial intelligence and computer vision. She was one of 20 scientists in the country chosen as a NASA Research Fellow at the Johnson Space Center.

Among many honors, Dr. Crawford received two Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Medals. She is also the author of the book "Math Without Fear."

HARVEY RECEIVES AWARD

Wyoming Seminary graduate Tyler Harvey, of Trucksville, received the Charles B. Kanarr Award in recognition of his exceptional growth and development in music during the school's 169th commencement.

He was also recognized for his participation in the PMEA All-State Concert Band and the All-Eastern Jazz Ensemble and was named to the dean's list with High Honors for the spring term.

HARVEY IS THE SON OF MR. AND MRS. JAY HARVEY. CANNON NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST

Erik Cannon, a 2010 graduate of Dallas High School, has been named to the silver category of the Student-Athlete Academic Honor Roll at Lafayette College for the spring 2013 semester. The silver category recognizes students with a grade point average of 3.50 to 3.79.

A biology major, Cannon has earned the honor for the last three years. He plays defense for the 2012 Patriot League championship soccer team and earned PA All-State honors.

TWO WORK ON ENGINEERING PROJECT

John Sweeney, of Shavertown, and Andrew Razawick, of Tunkhannock, were members of a group of seniors in Wilkes University's engineering program who completed a project for Galaxy Brushes as part of their degree requirements. All Wilkes University senior engineering students are required to complete a project with real-world application.

The project focused on measuring the effectiveness of the current systems in place at Galaxy Brushes, a privately-owned business founded in 2002. The company produces steel and brush based cleaning equipment for the oil/gas industry. A secondary goal of the project was to improve the production design through marketing research, trend analysis and product development.

NORRIS RECEIVES SEMINARY AWARD

Wyoming Seminary graduate Spencer Norris, of Dallas, received the Mabel and Sterling Wandell Scholarship Award during the school's 169th commencement. The award is given in recognition of the student's academic achievements and school leadership.

NORRIS WAS NAMED A NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP COMMENDED STUDENT AND WAS NAMED TO THE DEAN'S LIST WITH HIGH HONORS FOR THE SPRING TERM.

MARQUART ON DEAN'S LIST

Olivia Marquart, of Dallas, has been named to the spring semester dean's list at Salve Regina University.
