

DHS Lock-In another huge success

The 14th Annual Dallas High School Lock-In was held on Friday, June 7 through Saturday, June 8.

Event co-chairpersons Trudy McAndrew and Donna Kon wish to thank the business and community for monetary, food and gift donations, free services and deep discounts to provide everything for the Class of 2013. The seniors enjoyed the food, fun, games, entertainment and gifts. Eighty percent attendance is reflective of community and student involvement.

Special thanks are extended to Superintendent Frank Galicki and the Dallas School Board, district faculty, office and maintenance staff.

Many parents and friends worked all year fundraising and organizing and then stayed awake all night to help at the event. They include Liza DeGraba, decorations; MaryLou Gilhooley, communications; Anne Manganello, security/nurse; Liz Martin, publicity; Eric Menzel, photographer/videographer; Darlene Payne, games; Lisa Stull, food; Diane Tompson, registration; Michelle Tomaselli, gifts/silent auction; Debbie Zimmerman, treasurer); Drs. John Kish and Mike Olinginski, in-house, on-call physicians.

A great big thank you also goes to faculty members who sponsored the seniors and local Boy Scouts who were immensely helpful with set-up.

With this year's big night behind it, the committee is already planning for the Class of 2014. Anyone interested in helping may contact Trudy McAndrew at trudy@playitagainwb.com or Donna Kon at donakon@gmail.com.

The Dallas High School Class of 2013 enjoyed games and activities at the 14th Annual DHS Lock-In. Enjoying tricycle races are Barry Stubeda, left, and Kyle Williams.

Thanks to the generosity of area businesses and members of the community, a multitude of prizes were awarded through raffles and games to the newly-graduated seniors during the 2013 Dallas High School Lock-In.

UPPER & LOWER SCHOOLS PREPARE Wyoming Seminary begins 170th year

Wyoming Seminary, with campuses in Kingston and Forty Fort, will begin its 170th year of classes at the end of August.

The Upper School in Kingston will register boarding and day students on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 24 and 25 for grades nine through 12 and postgraduate. New students will participate in orientation activities on Saturday and Sunday and will attend a special New Student Retreat on Sunday.

A special opening-of-school convocation service will be held on Monday, Aug. 26 at the Upper School.

Sem government president Andrew Levandoski, of Dallas, will offer words of welcome and will ring the historic Cokesbury Bell 17 times, one for each decade of Wyoming Seminary's existence, to usher in the new academic year.

Lisa Mozeleski, a member of the science faculty and dean of the freshman and sophomore classes, will address the student body.

The Lower School, located in Forty Fort, will open for its first day of classes for toddler to eighth grade students on Wednesday, Aug. 8 with a convocation for students in fifth through eighth grades. The convocation for primary students will be held on Thursday, Aug. 29.

A Parents' Back to School Night will be held at 6 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 26. A similar Back to School Night for parents of children in first and second grades will be held at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 29, for third and fourth grades at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 3 and for parents of fifth, sixth- and seventh-grade students at 7 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 9. Parents of eighth-grade students will get together for a special "Grade 8 Back to School Afternoon" at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 25.

For more information about Wyoming Seminary, call the Upper School at 270-2160 or the Lower School at 718-6610.

Misericordia plans Open House Aug. 17

Misericordia University will hold an open house program from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 17 on the Back Mountain campus for high school students and their parents on Saturday, Aug. 17.

The program offers an informative tour of the more than 123-acre campus, meetings with Misericordia students, faculty and coaches, as well as information sessions with admissions and financial aid counselors.

Registration will be held at 9 a.m. in the Anderson Sports and Health Center at the North Gate of the upper campus. A special "Meet the Coaches" session will be held from 9 to 10 a.m. The schedule includes refreshments, campus tours, a faculty session and lunch, and meetings with representatives of student services, athletics and financial aid. A session will also be held on the university's Alternative Learner's Project for students with learning disabilities.

All prospective students will have the opportunity to tour numerous buildings on the upper and lower campuses, including the 40,000-square-foot John J. Passan Hall, located at 100 Lake St., Dallas.

The tours will also offer a look at the new athletic facilities, including Tambur Field, the new home to Cougar Baseball, and the university's new John and Mary Metz Field House, adjacent to Manglesdorf Field.

For more information Misericordia University about the open house or Admissions Office at 675-4449, register, contact the 4449.
