Lauren DeRemer receives her gift card from Children's and YA Librarian Janet Bauman for being selected winner of the Back Mountain Memorial Library's summer reading program, "Relax & Read."

Lauren DeRemer is 'Relax & Read' winner

Lauren DeRemer, a sixth-grade student at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School in the Lake-Lehman School District and an avid patron of the Back Mountain Memorial Library, was selected the winner of the teen summer reading program, "Relax & Read."

DeRemer lives in Harveys Lake with her parents, Tracy and Richard.

Also receiving a gift card from Barnes and Noble was second place winner, Sarah Traver, of Monroe Township, a freshman at Tunkhannock Area School District.

DeRemer read numerous books over the summer and wrote reviews of the books for other teens to read. Her name was drawn from all of the participants of the program and she was awarded a $20 gift certificate from Barnes and Noble.

Maria Ansilio, a 10th grade student at Dallas High School, will exhibit her artworks at the Forty Fort branch of Citizens Bank through the end of September.

Student Ansilio displays artwork

The Forty Fort branch of the Citizens Bank is hosting an exhibition of artworks by Dallas artist Maria Ansilio through the end of September.

Ansilio's favorite subject is animals and one of the pieces on display is an exquisite colored pencil of a cat as well as several avian portraits. Her favorite medium is watercolor and a depiction of a Maine harbor at night is the centerpiece of the exhibit.

Ansilio works in pastel, graphite, ink, and acrylic as well as colored pencil and watercolor.

She is a 10th grade student at Dallas High School and has studied art with Sue Hand since age 5. She is a consistent exhibitor in the annual Suzanne Rossetti Memorial Juried Art Exhibit, Emerging Artists Invitational exhibit at King's College and various other competitions. She is the daughter of Tim and Karen Ansilio.

The exhibit continues through Sept. 26 in the lobby of the Citizens Bank on the corner of Welles Street and Wyoming Avenue, Forty Fort.

For more information, call 675-5094.

Scouts and families enjoy outdoor movie

Cub Scout Pack 281 held its annual Outdoor Movie Night on Aug. 17 on the lawn at Trinity Presbyterian Church with a screening of the animated film "Wreck It Ralph." The event was attended by over 50 Scouts, siblings, parents and guests who enjoyed fresh popcorn and hot dogs and drinks provided with the help of the Trinity Men's Club. Food was complimentary but donations were accepted and will benefit the ministries of the church. Before the movie, the crowd was warmed up by Boy Scouts from Troop 281 performing skits and camp songs. Pack 281 is sponsored by the Dallas United Methodist Church and provides programs for boys in first through fifth grades.
