PRESENTATION SLATED

"Lake Malawi, Where Fishes Behave Like Birds" will be presented at 7 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 21 at Trinity Presbyterian Church, Irem Road, Dallas.

Dr. Bill Loftus will present a travelogue about the African country of Malawi. Lake Malawi is the third largest and second deepest lake in Africa and is reportedly the habitat of more species of fish than any other body of fresh water. Learn about this amazing lake, the people who depend on it, and the incredible colors and behaviors of the fishes that live there.

For information, call Craig Yarrish at 479-0400.

Bernard Walter to be honored by Bestsellers Academy

Bernard Walter, Esq. recently joined best-selling author Jack Canfield, named by Time magazine as the "Publishing Phenomenon of the Decade" and a select group of America's leading exports, to co-author the book titled "Dare to Succeed: The World's Leading Experts Reveal their Secrets to Success in Business and in Life - and Dare You to Succeed." The book was released on Aug. 29 by Celebrity Press.

"Dare to Succeed" showcases Walter and a group of experts who share their secret strategies to deal effectively with competition in any field and bring ongoing abundance into life. Walter contributed the chapter titled "Doing the Right Thing for Success."

Walter is a best-selling author, a former monk and a former assistant district attorney in San Francisco where he specialized in vice crimes. He is now a resident of Harveys Lake and an attorney in private practice in Pennsylvania, California and Nevada.

He is a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum for attorneys who have won jury verdicts in excess of $1,000,000. He founded the legal side of the Free Back Mountain Medical/Legal Clinic in 1996 and the Elder Law Committee of the local bar association. He serves on the Elder Abuse Task Force and recently worked with two members of the Dallas School District to establish the Career Awareness/Mentoring Program to focus high school students on optical career choices.

Walter will be recognized in Hollywood in the last week in September by Bestsellers Academy, an organization that honors authors from many of the leading independent best-seller lists.

Royalties from this publication will be donated to Entrepreneur's International Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to creating unique launch campaigns to raise money and awareness for charitable causes.
