

The return of high school football

The high school football season started two weeks ago but it wasn't until Sept. 14 that it made its way to the Back Mountain. The Mountaineers of Dallas hosted the Berwick Bulldogs and, although the Dawgs took home a 37-7 victory in the Wyoming Valley Conference Division 3A football game, there was electricity in the air at Mountaineer Stadium.

Katelyn DeAnthony and the rest of the Dallas cheerleaders get the fans into the game.

The Dallas Mountaineers take the field in their home opener against the Berwick Bulldogs on Sept. 14.

Bill Tarutis | For The Dallas Post

Dallas running back Logan Brace pounds out yardage as Berwick's Alex Klinger makes the tackle.

Dallas quarterback Justin Mucha escapes the grasp of Berwick linebacker A.J. Vandermark.

The Dallas student section cheers on the Mountaineers gridders.

The Dallas Mountaineers football team get psyched for its home opener against Berwick.

The Dallas Marching Band performs its pre-game show for the home crowd.