

HL Line Dancers perform at county fair

The Harveys Lake American Legion Line Dancers recently performed at the Luzerne County Fair. Fair-goers enjoyed a variety of boot stomping precision on the main stage. The Fair Queen and other audience members were invited on the stage to learn a dance. American flags were distributed to the crowd who all participated in the final patriotic song, singing and waving their flags. The Harveys Lake American Legion Line Dancers meet at 7 p.m. every Thursday on the second floor of the Harveys Lake American Legion building.

Bloomers donate $15,000 to ASTA

The Back Mountain Bloomers Garden Club recently donated $15,000 to the Anthracite Scenic Trails Association (ASTA).

The Bloomers raised the money during the recent Tour of Back Mountain Gardens held June 29. The 2013 tour attracted close to 500 visitors and was made possible by 100 dedicated Bloomer and ASTA volunteers, who helped arrange the event and staff the garden tour locations.

The funding will be used by ASTA to continue its mission of developing the Back Mountain Trail.

The total amount donated to ASTA by the Back Mountain Bloomers through the six biannual garden tours to date has reached $53,526.

Back Mountain Bloomers Garden Tour Committee members are Jean Kolojchick, Kingston Twp., Sponsor chair; Joanne Bittner, Dallas, Garden Tour chair; and Bobbie Shurnicki, Swoyersville, made the presentation to Rimple.

Grandchildren of local woman catch monster fish

Giovanni Falcone, grandson of Barbara Brandt.

While vacationing in Gloucester Pool on Union Jack Island in Ontario, Canada this August, these trophy fish were caught by Katelyn Vols, 12, daughter of Michael and Lori Vols, of Mountain Top, and Giovanni Falcone, also 12 years old, son of Len Falcone, of Oakville, Ontario, Canada.

The Channel Catfish caught by Katelyn was 28" long and was caught using her "Princess Pole" from Walmart.

The Northern Pike caught by Giovanni was 29" long and was caught using his "Spiderman Pole." Katelyn and Giovanni are the grandchildren of Barbara Brandt, of Dallas.
