Sem Scholarship Exam set for Nov. 16

Current fourth-through seventh-graders not currently enrolled at Wyoming Seminary Lower School are invited to register for Sem's Scholarship Exam to be administered on Saturday, Nov. 16 at the school's Forty Fort campus. One full-tuition and two half-tuition merit-based scholarships will be awarded to students who display outstanding performance on the competitive exam. Lower School scholarship recipients who maintain at least a "B" average and who remain in good standing will receive the same tuition percentage throughout their time at Lower School and at Upper School as well. To qualify for an award, all students must complete a visit to the Lower School, shadowing a current Lower School student for a full day of classes, on or before Friday, Dec. 13. Exam registration opens at 8 a.m. and the exam will be given promptly at 8:30 a.m. Parents are invited to stay for a presentation on the Middle School curriculum and affordability. Tours of the Lower School will be offered and refreshments will be served.

Celebrating fall at Hillside Farms

Mother Nature was in all her glory, providing summer-like weather for the Fall Festival at The Lands at Hillside Farms. The two-day events offered hayrides, children's games, a bouncy house, barn tours, woodworking demonstrations, vendors, live entertainment and plenty of food. "The Bag Monster" lurked around the grounds, scaring up environmental awareness. Covered from head to toe with 500 plastic shopping bags (the amount each shopper typically uses in only one year), the "monster" posed for snapshots with visitors while encouraging the use of cloth shopping bags.

Crowds of people visit The Lands at Hillside Farms Fall Festival on opening day.
