

Dr. Nate Klein joins staff at Klein Chiropractic Clinic

Dr. Nate Klein has joined the staff of Klein Chiropractic Clinic in Dallas.

Raised in the Back Mountain, Dr. Klein attended Luzerne County Community College for three years to complete pre-chiropractic undergraduate requirements. Afterwards, he and his wife Elizabeth moved to the Atlanta metro area where he completed four years of doctoral education at Life Chiropractic University.

Dr. Klein graduated in September 2013 and has moved back to begin work with his family's practice. He is National Board certified and also holds a physiotherapy certification, which allows him to use modalities such as therapeutic ultrasound and electrical muscle stimulation to supplement chiropractic care by allowing for faster healing and patient recovery.

Dr. Klein also has a special interest in conditions of the knees, ankles and feet, having suffered a serious injury himself three years ago.

Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary kicks off annual membership drive

The Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary, Dallas, recently kicked off its annual membership drive that asks the community to help by either donating $10 as a sustainer member or to actively volunteer to help residents at the center. Since the inception of The Meadows in 1984, volunteers have donated over 339,000 hours of service and more than $331,000 to various departments in the center for essential equipment. For more information about becoming a member and volun-

Girl Scouts visit Dallas fire station

Scouts from Girl Scout Junior Troop #32647 visited the Dallas Fire & Ambulance station. Joshua Sawyer, assistant fire chief, instructed the girls on emergency procedures and basic first aid. The girls were able to go through one of the ambulances and see the different equipment that the EMTs use. The girls are working on their First Aid badge. From left, first row, are Emma Brown, Marigrace Huntington, Madison Carlsson, Alyssa Pritchard, Shelby Pocono, Morgan Sakulich. Second row, Chloe Zondlo, Jordan Banks, Emily Williams, Jessica Allen, Morgan Williams, Lauren Butwin, Cara Pocono and Ryan Costello.
