Four-year-old entertains veterans

Four-year-old Isaac Olmsted may not yet be in grade school, but he already knows the importance of the men and women who serve in our Armed Forces. Olmsted and his classmates at Cookie Corner Child Care Center in West Wyoming marked Veterans Day by creating thank you posters that honored the work of the United States Armed Forces.

Olmsted recently visited a small group of residents at Allied Services Skilled Nursing and Rehab Center to present them with the patriotic posters and homemade cupcakes. The residents, all veterans of the Air Force, Army, Navy and Marines, were entertained by Olmsted and his siblings, Lucy and Jacob, as they showed off their military figurines and trucks.
