Scouts attend Neuroscience Fair

Girls from Junior Troop #32647, of Dallas, attended Kids Judge! Neuroscience Fair on Saturday, Nov. 2 at The University of Scranton. Dr. J. Timothy Cannon, a professor in the Psychology Dept./Neuroscience program, has hosted this event for the Girl Scouts in Northeast PA for many years. Groups of students in the Psychology and Neuroscience programs presented their projects to the Junior Scouts who were able to take part in most of the projects which all focused on functions of the brain. After seeing the projects, the Scouts voted on their favorite presentations. From left, kneeling are Morgan Williams, Cara Pocono, Ryan Costello. Second row, Dr. J. Timothy Cannon, Jessica Allen, Lauren Butwin and Morgan Sakulich.

Kiwanis donates to students

The Dallas Kiwanis recently sponsored Dallas School District students in need by donating funds to purchase school lunches for four students for the entire 2013-2014 school year. Students were selected using criteria related to the free and reduced lunch program. This is the third year the Kiwanis has made this donation. From left, are Dr. Thomas Duffy, middle school principal; Beverly Atherholt, Kiwanis past president; Lynn Wilson, middle school secretary; Maria DeLuca, administrative assistant, Metz Culinary Management.
