Bullying program unveiled in Dallas schools

The Olweus Bullying Prevention Committee held a kick-off celebration at the Dallas High School on Oct. 19. The Bully Program, introduced at both Dallas elementary schools, was developed to include teachers, administrators, parents, students and members of the community.

Elementary students were greeted at the program by high school athletic captains, band members and cheerleaders.

Dallas Superintendent Frank Galicki served as host with advice by High School Principal Jeff Shaffer, Dallas Elementary Principal Tom Traver; Senator Lisa Baker and PA State Representative Karen Reinert, accompanied by Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins mascot, Tux, sang the Bully Rap Song.
