STAR AND NEWS CHANGES HANDS

LANDSVILLE VIGIL AND THE FLORIN NEWS HAVE BOTH BEEN DISCONTINUED BY THE NEW OWNER

On Thursday Jno. E. Schroll purchased from Mr. H. R. Missemmer, administrator of the estate of J. R. Missemmer, the entire plant, good will, fixtures, machinery, presses, type, subscription lists, etc., of the Mount Joy Star and News, the Florin News and the Landville Vigil. After careful consideration of the patronage of two of these papers, we found that the receipts do not warrant their continuance if they are to be a success, therefore we have decided to promptly discontinue the Florin News and the Landville Vigil, and having combined the subscription lists of the three papers, will continue the Star and News on a much better basis. This paper will be issued every Friday afternoon, thereby giving Mount Joy and the surrounding community two papers a week.

Every former subscriber of the Landville Vigil and the Florin News, will hereafter receive the Mt. Joy Star and News instead. We will, from time to time, add various features, give a good list of correspondence from nearby towns and make a great effort to get this paper back to the high standard it maintained in this community twenty years ago.

It will be neatly printed, will retain its present size of eight pages and with the combined subscription list of three papers, will have a good circulation, thereby making it a valuable advertising medium.

The Star and News, as its name implies, is the product of a consolidation of two newspapers. These were the Mount Joy Star and the Milton Grove News. The former paper was originally published in Manheimville on the 8th of Nov. 1872 by D. D. Courtney and Joseph Stigler and was a five column folio. Mr. Courtney retired and Mr. Stigler removed the paper to this place in April 1873 and soon transferred it to the late L. M. and Henry Gallagher whose name first appeared in its column head on May 24. One year later Henry Gallagher retired, L. M. Gallagher remaining as editor and L. D. Gallagher becoming proprietor. The paper at this time was enlarged to a seven column folio and during the year L. M. Gallagher became proprietor. In January 1878 the late Capt. L. D. Gallagher again became the proprietor and M. M. Leib the editor. The Milton Grove News was started March 20th 1875 by J. R. Missemmer and S. L. Brandt with J. J. Sprenger as publisher. After one year's life it was suspended but was revived Nov. 23, 1876 by J. R. Missemmer, editor and proprietor. The two papers were merged Sept. 5, 1878 under the title of the Mt. Joy Star and News. Mr. Missemmer conducted the paper until 27 years ago when he disposed of it to the Stofers', formerly of Middletown and removed to Steelton; but after a few years he repurchased it and continued it until his demise. The future of the paper will depend entirely upon the patronage accorded it and as to appearance, make-up, etc. we herewith present you with our initial issue.

The new boiler was reported installed and working very satisfactory. All salaries were made same as last year. Other routine matters were transacted and the Association adjourned.

A NUISANCE ALLEGED; CASE TRIED IN COURT

The first case attached before Judge Hassler Wednesday morning was that against Abraham Cooper, returned by Constable H. K. Kauffman, of Rapho township, for maintaining a nuisance. It was alleged that five or six years ago Cooper erected a fence along the Colebrook road, near Sporting Hill, which encroached six or seven feet on the road, which had been kept in repair by the township supervisors and which had been used by the public for at least seventy-five years. Cooper, who is suffering with an extreme nervous affliction, was unable to testify in his own behalf. A number of witnesses testified that no survey of the road existed; that no definite fence line had ever been made; the owners of the abutting land for years allowed their land to remain unfenced. It was claimed that the fence erected by the defendant was no obstruction, and did not interfere with the public travel.

AN AGED MAN MEETS HIS DEATH

SAMUEL MILLER, OF RAPHO TOWNSHIP, THROWN FROM BUGGY AT ELSTON- VILLE—SKULL FRAC- TURED

Samuel Miller, aged 73 years, residing north of Manheim, in Rapho township, was fatally injured Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when he was thrown from a trotting buggy in which he was driving. He landed on his head, sustaining a fracture of the skull. He was picked up and taken to the residence of his stepson, where he died without regaining consciousness.

The horse frightened at a sleigh standing near the barn at the home of his stepson, Edward Ober, of Elstonsville. Mr. Miller was hurled to the hard surface of the frozen snow, the impact splitting his skull. He was removed to the house and placed under the care of Dr. Seiling, of Penryn. Death ensued a few moments later.

Mr. Miller is survived by his stepson, Mr. Ober, and following children: David Miller, of East Petersburg; Mrs. Elizabeth Kurtz, at home and Samuel of Manheim. The following brothers also survive: Aaron, of Ohio; Hosea, residing near Union Square and Isaac, of Mount Joy. The body was removed to his late home, where funeral service will be held Friday noon, and at 1:30 o'clock in the Brethren church, at Fairview. Interment will be made in the adjoining cemetery.

THE N. C. A. WILL HOLD A CONVENTION HERE

Rev. W. B. Stoddard, eastern secretary of the National Christian Association, was a visitor in our town last week. He was here to arrange for the holding of a convention the second week in February, to discuss the influence of secret societies on the church, family and state. He claims in this age, when there is a general investigation, the lodges can not hope to escape. A fair, candid investigation in a Christian spirit, can hurt nothing good. If claims made by lodges and lodge men are correct, they need have no fear of a candid investigation. The N. C. A. does not approve of Christians belonging to secret societies and Rev. Stoddard will give some of its reasons at this convention. The Mount Joy Hall has been rented out for a meeting for this purpose and what is hoped will be a very interesting program is prepared. All who are interested are invited.
