

The Star and News

MOUNT JOY, PA.

Jno. E. Schroll, Editor and Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1 A YEAR
6 Mos., 50c. 3 Mos., 25c.

Entered at the post office at Mount Joy, Pa., as second-class mail matter.

The consolidation of the entire subscription lists of the Florin "News," the "Landville" "Vigil" and the Mt. Joy "Star and News" make this paper an excellent advertising medium. Rates on Request.

BAINBRIDGE

Mrs. I. Kuntzelman visited at Harrisburg.

Clarence Bryans and sister, Edna, visited at Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kell announce the birth of a son, Harry Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe O'Conner, announce the birth of a son, Glen LeRoy.

Mrs. Harry Brandt and niece, Miss Susan Forrey, spent some time at Lancaster.

Raymond Leiby moved his household goods from Lobata to one of the new houses owned by B. F. Hoffman at Locust Grove.

Earnest E. Sheaffer, sergeant of the U. S. A., stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, accompanied by his mother, from Dauphin, visited Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Zimmerman.

Miller Grove has accepted a position as clerk in the P. B. R. depot in this place. He fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lawrence Smith, who is now a private at Camp Meade.

A spelling bee will be held by the students of the Bainbridge High school, in the high school room, under the direction of the teachers Prof. I. J. Kreider and Miss Eugenia Sheaffer, on Saturday evening, Jan. 26.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank, organization was effected and these officers elected: President, B. F. Hoffman; first vice president, C. S. Manning; second vice president, I. Scott Smith; cashier, I. Oliver Fry.

The following is a report given by Mrs. P. G. Engle, chairman of the Red Cross here, which is a branch of the Columbia Chapter: January 11: 2 sweaters, 4 packages of triangular bandages, 33 pillow cases, 1 knit hot water bottle cover, 2 knit wash cloths, 2 linen wash cloths, and 6 comfort kits equipped.

The following are the new officers of St. Luke's Lutheran Christian Endeavor: President, Ruth Zimmerman; vice president, Ruth Cover; recording secretary, Ruth Cover; corresponding secretary, P. R. Keenard; treasurer, Charles Fahs; pianist, Ruth Zimmerman; assistant pianist, Grace Smith; librarians, Helen Engle, Kathryn Keenard and Marion Smith.

The following officers have been elected by the Sunday School of St. Luke's Lutheran church: Superintendent, H. F. Hershey; assistant superintendent, B. Smith; secretary, Asa Ideus Groff; treasurer, Charles Costes; pianist, Ruth Zimmerman; assistant pianist, Grace Smith; librarians, Joseph Scharam and Alloys Naisley; assistant librarians, Grace Smith and Helen Engle.

Since the Red Cross Auxiliary has been formed here, the following agricultural ladies have been among the busiest workers. Those who have contributed are as follows: Mrs. Mary Engle, aged 73, 2 sweaters, 2 pairs of wristlets, one helmet, and a number of wash clothes; Mrs. Frank Groff, Sr., about 70 years old, 3 sweaters; Mrs. C. Shank, aged 83 years, 2 sweaters.

EAST PETERSBURG

Revival services are being held in the Evangelical church every night.

The pastor, Rev. C. M. Layton, has charge of the services.

H. F. Hershey, wife and daughter, Mary, of Gettysburg, were home with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hershey, on Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church held their regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Biemesderfer on Wednesday evening.

Ernest Forney, butcher, slaughtered two hogs for Samuel Shaub, of Neffsville, which weighed 422 and 5 pounds, respectively. They were eight months old.

Mrs. Clayton Shimp and daughter, Mrs. Seamore Beagle, of Ephrata, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Tawzer and daughter, Teresa, of York, were visitors with Mrs. Lavina Dombach and Miss Mary Bassler a few days.

The oyster supper given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the East Petersburg Fire Company, No. 1, last Saturday evening in the fire house proved a success in every particular. The total receipts amounted to about $69.

On Saturday evening, January 19, the fifth and sixth grades of the East Petersburg school, taught by Miss Clara Charles, will give an entertainment in the fire house. Dialogues, recitations, drills and music by the school.

Two knit blankets are on exhibition at L. H. Gochnauer's store, the patches being knitted by the school children of the third and fourth grades (from eight to ten years), taught by Miss Esther Hershey. They will be for Belgian or French babies.

Last Saturday evening a piano recital was given by the pupils of Miss Miriam Gochnauer, music teacher, at her home. Those who participated were as follows: Sylvia Pierce, Kathryn Swarr, Mary Koch, Hannah and Naomi Kaufman, Mary Miller, Herbert Pool, Arthur and Ira Wagner, Charles Miller. They rendered piano solos, duets and trios.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Lancaster General Hospital held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. D. Cake. It was well attended by the members. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. E. Miller; vice president, Miss Amelia Gross; secretary, Mrs. Albert Groff; assistant secretary, Mrs. H. W. Hottenstein; treasurer, Miss Anna Hershey. The barrel fund, which amounted to

ELIZABETHTOWN

Hershey Car Service Was Tied Up—A. L. Garrett's Operation Successful

Subscribe for the Mt. Joy Bulletin Prof. H. K. Ober has returned from a business trip to Goshen, Ind. Roy Heisey has resigned his position as engineer at the Rheems rotary.

L. C. Fisher is attending the Furniture Dealers' Convention in New York City.

Mrs. Fannie Blecher of Falmouth, spent a few days with C. B. Peters and family.

Mrs. Clayton Peters is ill with pneumonia at her home on South Poplar street.

Robert Becker of Harrisburg, was the guest of his parents, Reuben Becker and wife.

Mrs. David Witmer and daughter were the guests of relatives at Hillsdale for several days.

An adjourned meeting of borough council was held in the council chamber on Tuesday evening.

Rev. H. B. Pulsifer, rector of St. John's P. E. church of Marietta, was among friends in the borough.

George C. Boggs, the burgess, has been appointed local agent for issuing licenses for the handling of explosives in this borough.

Mrs. Mary Brandt, who is in her 81st year, can be seen daily with her knitting needle as of yore. She also assists at light house work.

A fox chase was held at Hotel Garrett on South Market street on Tuesday afternoon. A large number of sportsmen were present.

The Lutheran Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Frank Swiebert, on Summit street, which proved a very profitable and enjoyable meeting.

Mrs. C. P. Eshleman had the misfortune while milking a cow to be kicked by the animal in the stomach and side, sustaining very painful injuries.

During the year 1917 there were 73 births in the borough and 45 deaths, four of them of citizens over 80 years and nine between 70 and 80 years.

Noah H. Gebhart and Joseph M. McLaughlin, of this place, have been discharged from Camp Meade on account of physical disability and have returned home.

A largely attended euchre was held at the Masonic Home on West High street on Friday evening when a number of valuable prizes were awarded to the lucky ones.

J. E. Beiser has received a letter from his son, Edward, who was stationed at Camp Dix, that by the time he receives it he will be on board ship for somewhere in France.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ebersole entertained the pupils of the Cedar Hill School at a dinner on Friday evening which was highly appreciated and to which ample justice was done to satisfy the inner men.

The annual election for eleven directors for the Exchange Bank for the ensuing year will be held at the banking house on South Market street, on Monday, January 21st, between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m.

The first trolley car on the Hershey line since Monday evening arrived on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. The trouble was caused by the big cuts being filled with snow. There were many belated passengers.

A. L. Garrett, proprietor of Hotel Garrett, on South Market street, was taken to the General Hospital at Lancaster where he was operated on for the removal of gall stones. He has been ill for some time and the operation was deemed necessary as a last resort. The operation was successful, and he is getting along as well as can be expected, considering his age.

Mr. William Morris called on Dr. B. E. Kendig, Monday.

Mr. John Spangler is now staying at the Mennonite Home at Oreville.

Rev. Downes visited Mr. J. Z. Kline, who is ill, on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Warner, mother of our neighbor Latimer W., died at York, on Sunday morning.

P. S. Strickler and family spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Strickler.

Mrs. Derstler of Central Manor, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Strickler.

Samuel Eby visited his sister at the St. Joseph Hospital on Monday afternoon and found her improving.

Mr. Samuel Heisey and family were the week-end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Deitrich.

Miss Gramm, teacher of the Musser school, treated her school to a sleigh ride on Thursday afternoon, visiting the school taught by Miss Martha Eby.

Our weather men hereabouts pronounced Monday a zero morning. Our boys at the front are still in good spirits and we are hopeful that all will end well.

Miss Nicely, teacher of Airy Vale school visited the Neffsville school, taught by Miss Mary Weaver, Thursday. That all had a good time is needless to say.

Misses Mary and Elizabeth Peifer and Miriam Kendig took advantage of the fine sleighing and visited the school of Alberta Peifer on the Fruitville pike on Monday afternoon.

In order to conserve coal, the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church was held at the home of Dr. B. E. Kendig. It was well attended and the District Superintendent who is ever popular at Salunga ingratiated himself more than ever to the people by giving a very interesting talk after the business session.

You Are Invited. As hostess of prohibition prayer meeting on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 24th, at 2 o'clock, I earnestly request every member of our local W. C. T. U., as well as every one interested in the prohibition movement, to attend this meeting. Mrs. I. D. Stehman.

All the dealers at Lancaster are selling coal in very small quantities this week.

RHEEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Souders announce the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emenheiser announce the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rhen of Royalton, Pa., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Diebler last Sunday.

Mr. Paul B. Heisey, a P. R. R. employee in the clerical department visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Heisey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shank, Post master, spent last Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Risser of Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bless, prominent agriculturists of East Donegal, spent last Sunday with Mr. H. H. Bard and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Weaver, daughter Gladys and son, Henry spent last Sunday as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boll at Maytown.

Mrs. S. J. King returned from Elmira, N. Y., after spending several weeks with her husband being called home owing to the illness of her mother.

One hundred empty coal and coke cars were placed on the west bound siding at this place, Monday morning owing to the congestion of cars in the west.

Be Patriotic is what prevails everywhere, so much so that even the Rheems water works shut down for several days until necessary repairs were made.

Church of the Brethren opened a series of evening meetings on Jan. 19 with Rev. Patrick of Dauphin county in charge which will continue for an indefinite period.

The scarcity of fuel has aroused the citizens of this place to such an extent that wood saws and bucks prevail. A number of men are busily engaged in cutting down the locust grove adjacent to the Church of the Brethren. This grove was started by the Ream family more than 75 years ago.

MARIETTA

The members of the alumni association of the Marietta High School will hold a very important meeting February 4, in the evening at 7:30 o'clock at the public school building.

John Haines, of East Marietta, who drives one of the dump carts at the Marietta furnace, is off duty because of an injury received while driving the cart. He slipped and fell, and the animal accidentally trampled upon his right foot, badly lacerating it.

Miss Emma Libhart, of this place, while on her way to work, being employed as a weaver in the Dery silk mill, made a misstep on the icy sidewalk, and fell upon her right side. In falling she threw out her right arm, causing her to suffer a fractured arm.

Four Marietta lads are now known to be in France. They are Lieutenant Frank McCloskey, Paul Stoner, William Kiehl and George Stahl. In latest reports to their parents, they are all well and happy, and like the service. Lieutenant McCloskey was the last to arrive on the French soil.

The following are the newly chosen directors of the Donegal and Conoy Mutual Fire Insurance Company, with headquarters at Marietta: President, Abram Groff, Maytown; vice president, J. Frank Johnston, Maytown; secretary, Henry S. Rich, Marietta; treasurer, First National Bank of Marietta. The directors are: Barr Spangler, Amos M. Hiestand, Simon Ackerman, J. Frank Johnston, Abram Groff, R. E. Glenn, John W. Russel, John A. Mook, Henry S. Rich and Thaddeus Groff. This company has one of the largest corps of agents in the state, and works within a radius of 100 miles from Marietta. They have chosen a slogan, "Adjustments Made and Losses Paid Before the Sun Sets," and follow it to the mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Seitz spent Sunday at Back Run in the home of Frank Felker.

Edward Miller, of Ohio, is spending a few weeks among relatives and friends here.

Miss Grace A. Holland, of Bareville, spent Sunday in the home of A. B. Frankhouser.

Henry Koser and Mrs. Harry Miller, of Landisville, spent Sunday in the home of F. Y. Koser.

Mrs. D. S. Miller, of Lancaster, spent from Saturday until Wednesday in the homes of D. M. Nissley and Harrison Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Fissel spent Sunday in the home of William Braham at Central Rapho.

Mrs. Levi Fissel left on Wednesday evening for Philadelphia, where she expects to spend a few days.

Miss Estella Nissley and Master Harold Degler, of Lancaster, spent Sunday in the same homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brandt, of Bamford, spent last Wednesday in the home of Daniel Nissley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kulp and three children, of Old Line, spent Sunday in the home of Henry Gible and wife.

John Sheaffer and son Emanuel, spent Sunday at Penryn in the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Sheaffer.

Lawn Mutual Co. Elects. The Lightning Insurance Company elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, R. H. Newgard; vice president, C. H. Reed; treasurer, H. G. Gible; secretary, J. B. Bradley; auditors, J. H. Brandt, Fredericksburg; E. E. Risser, Lawn; N. E. Root, Elizabethtown; Directors, M. R. Ebersole, Marietta; C. H. Reed, Lawn; J. S. Bradley, Manheim; T. H. Geiss, Mount Joy; J. S. Reist, Elizabethtown; H. B. Gible, Manheim; J. H. Reist, Lebanon; S. B. Horst, Sheafferstown; H. P. Newgard, Palmyra.

Pennsylvania made an average yield of 19.1 bushels of wheat to the acre while the average for the country is 16.2 bushels.

A new P. & R. freight depot is being erected at Palmyra to cost about $10,000.

MAYTOWN

Red Cross Meets—Band and Fire Company's New Officers—Big Sleighting Party, Etc.

Miss Mary Heisey visited in Columbia.

Hiram Risser spent the day in Lancaster.

J. A. DeHoff made a business trip to Lancaster.

Charles Mayer of Middletown, spent the day in town.

Mrs. Melvin Fry underwent an operation at the Columbia hospital.

Dr. G. A. Harter and Albert Risser made a business trip to Florin.

Jacob B. Minnich of Philadelphia, spent a few days here with his family.

Mrs. Howard Stauffer and daughter, of Landisville, spent the day in town.

Paul Sload of Elizabethtown, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Abram Sload.

Mrs. Rebecca Saylor, of Lancaster, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flick.

Captain and Mrs. William C. Heisey, of New York City, spent a few days here with Mrs. Barbara Heisey.

Abram Sload is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy, he being confined to his bed in an unconscious condition.

Misses Marian and Laura Shireman, of Lancaster, spent the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Shireman.

B. T. Sherbohn and sister, Anna C. Weiser, have returned to their home in Iowa after spending the past four weeks with their parents Mr. and Mrs. William Roath.

The following articles were made at the work rooms on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week: 1 sweater, 500 4x8-inch compresses, 11 T bandages, 30 triangular bandages, 7 shirts, 10 pajama suits and 24 handkerchiefs.

The Junior class of the Maytown High School held a sleighing party to Elizabethtown, which proved to be a very enjoyable affair. Refreshments were enjoyed at Elizabethtown. Those composing the party were: Misses Margaret O'Brien, Alberta Boll, Miriam Keller, Helen Rhoads, Bertha Kuhn, Edith Witmer, Rebecca Sload, Anna Myers, Nellie Simon and Messrs. Edward Buller, Simon Nissley, Clarence Smith, Richard Zook, Ralph Good.

At the annual meeting of the Citizen's Band of Maytown, reports were heard for the year 1917 and the following officers elected for the year 1918: President, North Loucks; vice president, Frederick Peck; secretary, William Glattacker; treasurer, Dr. G. A. Harter; trustees, Charles A. Straley, A. R. Houseal, Ray F. Markley; Advisory Board, Frederick Peck; North Loucks, George Glattacker; leader of band, Irvin Masterson; assistant leader, Harry P. Frank.

A surprise party was held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Fletcher in honor of her birthday. After an evening spent in playing many interesting games, a delicious luncheon was served. After extending their best wishes to Miss Fletcher for many more happy birthdays, the guests returned to their homes at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Fletcher, Alberta Boll, Miriam Keller, Bertha Kuhn, Helen Rhoads, Jennie Stultz, Nellie Smith, Anna Myers, Sarah Hinkle, Mildred Engle, Maria Hoover, Messrs. John Fletcher, Simon Nissley, Edward Buller, Ray Peck, Harry Drace, Harold Rife, Ray Sload, Clarence Smith.

At the annual meeting of the Maytown Fire Company, reports were heard and the annual election of officers held, which resulted in the following choice: President, George M. Huntzinger; vice president, Lewis Hartman; secretary, Charles J. Barnhart; trustees, John Henderson, A. R. Houseal, Isaac Carpenter; foreman, Christian Forrey; assistant foreman, Charles Houseal; hose director, Geo. Drace; assistant hose director, John Henderson; hook and ladder director, James Keller; assistant ladder director, George Sload. The trustees were directed to audit the treasurer's accounts and a committee consisting of Charles J. Barnhart, John Henderson and George Drace was appointed to collect the dues of the members for the year. A committee consisting of Christian Forrey and James Keller was appointed to arrange for certain improvements at the fire house.

An interesting feature of the Sunday school session of the Maytown Reformed church last Sunday was the awarding of rewards for perfect attendance during the year 1917. In recognition of the first year's perfect attendance Miss Nancy Rife and Master Abram Sload received hand-some new Testament. Walter Houseal, David Lowe, Carl Houseal, Charles Hicks, Joseph Henderson and Misses Kathryn Eshleman, Ethel Sload and Anna Sload received books as awards for some; it being their second or for others their fourth, fifth or sixth year of perfect attendance. Each one of the above also received a Robert Raikes' diploma or a second year seal for placing on the diploma awarded them last year. The following adults also received either diplomas or seals for perfect attendance: Mrs. Sue Wolf, Miss M. Ethel Culp, Miss Anna M. Hoover, Miss Sallie Shireman, Mrs. William J. Lowe and Rev. William J. Lowe.

The monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Maytown branch of the American Red Cross was held in the directors' room of the Peoples' Bank. The meeting was well attended, seventeen officers and committee chairman being present. Mrs. Charles C. Hicks presided and Miss Ethel Culp recorded the minutes. Mrs. John R. Roath gave her report as treasurer which showed a nice balance on hand. Mrs. H. B. Haines gave a report for the Service and Supply Committee. Mrs. Grove reported for the purchasing committee. Mrs. C. Manning gave a report of the number of pieces of work distributed among the homes of the members. N. F. Arntz reported for the finance committee. Rev. William J. Lowe, chairman of the membership committee reported that thus far 428 new members had been secured and that the total membership now was 453.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

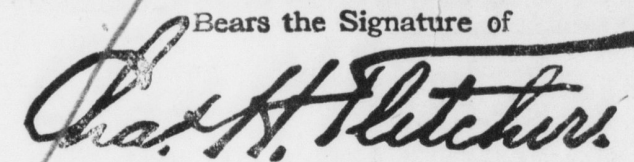

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

In Use For Over 30 Years

The Kind You Have Always Bought

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

The Singer

Simple, Strong, Silent and Speedy

ASK TO SEE THE 66. THE ONLY MACHINE WITH ALL THE ABOVE QUALITIES COMBINED.

REPAIRS FOR ALL MAKES OF MACHINES. CALL OR ADDRESS.

Singer Sewing Machine Co.

14 E. Orange Street, Lancaster

or

410 Locust Street, Columbia

HOTEL MARKERT

D. D. O'DONNELL, PROPR.

118-115 South Eighth St., Philadelphia

Especially recommended to the traveling public throughout the state. Commodious rooms. Steam heat. Fine cuisine. Low rates. Good German kitchen. Meals at all hours.

H. C. BRUNNER

Good Furniture

Is the only kind I sell—Furniture that is Furniture

ROCKERS, MIRRORS, HALL RACKS, EXTENSION TABLES, CHINA CLOSETS, KITCHEN CABINETS

In fact anything and everything in the Furniture Line

Undertaking and Embalming