

REAL ESTATE

The Albert Brill farm, situated 3 miles from West Elizabethtown; 1/2 mile from state road, 132 acres, 80 acres meadow, double 14-room house, suitable for two families, new barn, new corn barn, creamery house. Sickness in family reason for selling. A very good proposition.

John Grady's desirable nursery—52 acre farm on the Manheim road, about 2 1/2 miles from Mount Joy. Large brick 2 1/2 story house, 8 rooms, large hall, winding stairway, Summer house, 2 rooms attached with balcony, porches, good well of water, 3 cisterns, large barn, 45x60 ft. room for tobacco. $5,000 can remain in at 4 per cent. The only reason for selling is that Mr. Grady wants to retire.

A stone flour mill and two brick houses, 13 acres of land, on the pike, 1 1/2 miles east of Marietta. Retirement of owner reason for selling.

Thirteen lots on the pike of the Abraham Long property between Mount Joy and Florin. Nine lots of this very desirable property have already been sold. Better come quick if you want to get one of them. They are near the Chocolate Factory.

Seventeen lots fronting on the pike and railroad siding for David Stoner.

The Abram Shelley farm at Union Square, of 143 acres. Produces $4,000 yearly, not including butter, eggs and produce.
