Prayer for Glory of God

By REV. L. W. GOSNELL, Assistant Dean, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.—Matthew 6:9, 10.

This prayer consists of an invocation, seven petitions and a doxology. The seven petitions may be divided into three, dealing with the glory of God, and four, dealing with the needs of man. This is significant, for three is the number of the Creator and four the number of the creature, while seven is the number of perfection.

It is a great thing to know God as Father. The heathen do not so know him and even the Old Testament reveals him only as Father of Israel as a nation. Christ has shown us the Father, as Creator, God is the Father of all men; yet Jesus said to those who were children of God in this sense, "Ye are of your father the devil." To pray the Lord's prayer aright we must be born again and thus enabled to cry, "Abba, Father."

Our Father is "in heaven" or, literally, "in the heavens." In the Bible three heavens are recognized. First, there are the atmospheric heavens where the birds fly and the clouds float; our Father is there and holds the dying sparrow. Then, there are the planetary heavens, where the stars burn; our Father governs all this host. Finally, there is the "third heaven," the heaven of heavens, where God dwells in a special sense. If we pray to such a Father, we should be reverent, for he is in heaven and we are on earth; we should be confident, for he is of unlimited power; we should be spiritual in our worship, not confining it to forms or places.

When we say "our" Father, we join in prayer with the whole family of God. The first petition is, "Hallowed be thy name." The name of God is his revealed character. This is made known in nature, in the Bible and, above all, in Jesus Christ, who said, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." The meaning of the petition is given thus by Samuel Rutherford: "We pray that God would make all men know and glorify him in his holy nature, word and works; and that we may glorify him by a holy life, and that his enemies that dishonor him were confounded."

A Story of John Fletcher of Madeley. An example of truly hallowing God's name is found in John Fletcher of Madeley, a leader in early Methodism. He carried with him the very air of heaven. Once, when some friends rode up to his door, he called for refreshment and, after the custom of the day, cake and wine were brought. As he passed the cake he said reverently, "The body of our Lord Jesus Christ," and as he passed the wine, "The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ." It would be sacrilege for most Christians to do that, but it seemed fitting for him, for he did all things to the glory of God.

The second petition is, "Thy kingdom come." The very "come" in the Greek is in a tense which implies a sudden catastrophe, and not a gradual coming. Indeed, as the commentator, H. A. W. Meyer, points out, the petition refers primarily to that kingdom of the Messiah which will be ushered in when the Messiah appears. We usually speak of it as the millennium, when Christ with his glorified church will rule over the redeemed earth. For the Christian this petition is synonymous with, "Come, Lord Jesus," for the kingdom will come with the king. An American scientist once said to Doctor Kelman of Scotland, "America needs an emperor." Doctor Kelman expressed surprise at such a statement and remarked that America would need an infallible emperor. "Precisely," replied the scientist, "but we know the man and are waiting for him; his name is Jesus." "The thrill of that reply," says Doctor Kelman, "will never leave me."

The Joy of Doing God's Will. The final petition is, "Thy will be done." We usually associate this with the thought of trial and our minds revert to Christ's agony and prayer in Gethsemane. But we should not forget his words at the well of Sychar after talking with the sinful woman of Samaria. "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me." Indeed we find the secret of joy only in the will of God, for our hearts were made for him and are restless until they rest in him. In Mr. Moody's room in the Moody Bible Institute hangs a motto, wonderfully illustrated in his own life, "He that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

The phrase, "On earth, as it is in heaven," seems to belong to all three of the petitions. We pray that his name may be hallowed, his kingdom come and his will be done—on earth as in heaven. Happy day when this prayer is fulfilled!

SCRAPS of HUMOR

ANOTHER NAVAL SECRET.

Farmer Wurzel and his wife, Martha, were paying a visit to their nephew, a gallant member of the navy. It was their first visit to the great seaport, where the ship of which their nephew formed one of the crew happened opportunely to lie in dock. They were both vastly impressed with the novel sights they saw round and about the docks, and when their nephew, with pardonable pride, led them round to where the great auxiliary cruiser lay they gazed with awe upon the gigantic vessel.

The old man took a few steps nearer to the quayside, and, perceiving an open porthole on a level with his eyes, peered into the interior of the hull. "Martha! Martha!" he whispered, excitedly, to the old lady, "look here, lass, what dost thou think? The blamed thing's holler!"

A Parallel. "I cannot imagine women fighting like men. Try as I may, I cannot picture to myself the Russian women they tell about, on the field, fighting like demons and working havoc right and left."

"Well, I'll call you over some night when our cook is fighting mad."

Qualifying. "This man says his character is spottles. Is that so?" "In a measure. It is so black you couldn't see a spot on it if it were there."

AN APT DESCRIPTION

"Ever see a mermaid, Pete?" "Yess." "What did she look like?" "Oh! I d'no—rather like a lady cut deccoly, with a hobble shirt around her propeller."

As a Rule. A "little friendly advice" is very seldom nice. It is a phrase that men employ when saying something to annoy.

A Gentle Hint. Mabel—I do admire the little waves; they're so affectionate. George—Affectionate? Mabel—Yes; they're always kissing the sand.

The Reason. "The man you see yonder is an expert at picking locks, and the police never interfere with him." "How's that?" "He's a ladies' hairdresser."

The Practical Side. "My dear girl, don't lay so much stress on beauty. Modest worth is better far than millions." "Yes, but it doesn't get anywhere near beauty in catching a millionaire."

Natural Humor. "I was in time to hear only the tall end of the joke." "But that was the waggish part of it."

Dodging Time's Flight. Edith (with magazine)—What is meant by the dark ages? Marie—The ages that we keep dark, I suppose, my dear.

It Has Its Risks. "What is the quickest way you know of for making money?" "I don't know any way quicker than counterfeiting."

A Philosopher's Wisdom. "Sir Isaac Newton was a prudent man." "Why do you think so?" "In experimenting with the law of gravity he sat under a tree and let an apple fall on his head. It was so much better than sitting under a ladder waiting for a hodcarrier to drop a brick."

Like Producing Like. "How did Smith's wife manage to hang up lace curtains?" "I think it was by making Smith first hang up his watch."

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 3

JESUS LORD OF THE SABBATH.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 2:13-18. GOLDEN TEXT—The son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.—Mark 2:28. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Ex. 20:8-11; Isa. 58:13, 14; Lev. 23:15-22; Matt. 23:1-8; Luke 4:16; Acts 13:14, 15, 16; 17; Col. 2:16, 17. PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus and the Sabbath day. MEMORY VERSE—Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.—Ex. 20:8. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus and the Sabbath. MEMORY VERSE—Ex. 20:8-11. INTERMEDIATE, SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Our day of rest and worship.

I. The Sabbath a Boon, Not a Burden (vv. 23-28). It has been suggested that this passage, particularly verse 23, indicates something of the poverty and simplicity of the lives of the disciples, that they lived not only a day at a time but literally from hand to mouth. America is the most prodigal nation on the globe, but it is today facing the necessity of conservation and retrenchment, not because it is desired but of necessity in winning this great world war struggle. Perhaps this will prove to be a boon growing out of the darkness of the days through which we are passing.

Notice that the disciplines were not particularly criticized because they plucked and appropriated the grain that belonged to another even though it was for their bodily needs, but because they did it on the Sabbath day. The Jewish law permitted them to take that which did not belong to them because of their necessity, but would not permit them to do it on the first day of the week. The criticism of the Pharisees, based upon Deut. 5:14; Ex. 31:15, though apparently scriptural, was, however, based upon an incomplete knowledge and application of those scriptures. Jesus shows them first that ceremonial prescriptions and laws must give way before the needs of man and he cites the case of David as an illustration. Again he shows them that the demands of the temple service were superior to the prescriptions of the common law (See Matt. 12:5, 6), that he, himself, is greater than the temple for he is the one in whom God tabernacled (John 1:14 R. V. Margin). The Sabbath law therefore must give way before the necessity of Christian service. Again he shows that mercy is more than sacrifice, and so ceremonial demands must give way before the needs of mercy and compassion. He also shows them that the Sabbath was made for man (vv. 27, 28) rather than man for the Sabbath. He, the "Son of Man," is the consummation and head of the race, Lord even of the Sabbath, and as Lord of the Sabbath he has set aside the seventh day Sabbath, which was the shadow of things to come (Col. 2:17) and belongs to the old order and dispensation. It is true that we have no right to judge any man regarding the Sabbath (Col. 2:16, 17), but as Christians who are "risen with Christ" (Col. 3:1) we are to keep the Lord's Day, (Rev. 1:10), the first day of the week, (Acts 20:7) the resurrection day, and are under no law whatever to keep the seventh day.

II. A Proper Use of the Lord's Day (Ch. 3:1-5). It is somewhat unfortunate, our divisions of the Scripture into chapters and verses. This next passage is really a practical application and illustration of the principle with which Jesus has just been dealing. It was the custom of Jesus to frequent the synagogue on the Sabbath Day (Luke 4:16), the day upon which the Jews still gathered in large numbers. We need to note (v. 2) that the question which was asked of him was not a fair question, not so much honest seeking for information, but rather they "watched him" for they wanted to find something with which to trap him. Jesus taught that it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath Day, that it is lawful to heal on the Sabbath Day (Matt. 12:10) that it is lawful to restore a lost ass or ox on the Sabbath Day (Luke 14:5; Matt. 12:11) that a man is of more value than a sheep (Matt. 12:13), and that the new methods and new times demanded new applications (Mark 2:21, 22). In these teachings Jesus does not necessarily abolish or abrogate the ancient fourth commandment, but rather the misinterpretation, misuse and misapplication of the Sabbath law. For a correct interpretation of the Old Testament Sabbath see Isa. 58:13, 14. The difference between the Jewish Sabbath and Christian Lord's Day is a matter of counting; we begin to count at the point of the resurrection of Jesus. The Sabbath Day is a means to an end; it is not the end itself.

America's Great Heritage. The man was really and organically sick; he had a withered hand which all could see—no "moral error" about it at all, and he was really healed. The Lord's Day is America's great heritage. Are we going to throw it away? It is of economic value as well as a spiritual heritage. The observance of a day of rest has actually increased the amount of output in the munition factories of England. In this land of haste and bustle the brain needs the rest, the soul the feeding, and the body the relaxation which Sunday observance alone can furnish.

The Most Valuable Book.

The Medico Laurentian museum of Florence, Italy, has in its possession what is said to be the most valuable book in the world. This book is called the "Codex Amiatinus" and is pronounced by some scholars to be perhaps the oldest and by all odds the best ancient Latin manuscript of the Bible. The work is believed to have been copied from the translation by St. Jerome, which he made direct from early Greek and Hebrew scripts. Its origin is placed in the ninth century, and is thought to have been the handwriting of English priests.

Dr. Peery's "Dead Shot" is powerful but safe. One dose is enough to expel Worms or Tapeworm. No castor oil necessary. Adv.

Pathetic.

"What is more pathetic," asked the sentimental young woman, "than a man who has loved and lost?" "Well," replied the man of experience, "a fellow who has bet about $20 on a sure thing and found out that he was wrong is entitled to a nook at the walling place."

Proving It.

"Jubbe is a man of great promise." "Him? So, he's been borrowing from you, too."

Canada made me Prosperous

—that's what thousands of farmers say, who have gone from the U. S. to settle on homesteads or buy land in Western Canada. Canada's invitation to every industrious worker to settle in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta is especially attractive. She wants farmers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops to feed the world. You Can Get a Homestead of 160 Acres Free or other lands at very low prices. Where you can buy good farm land at $15 to $30 per acre that will raise 20 to 45 bushels of $2 wheat to the acre—it's easy to become prosperous. Canadian farmers also grow wonderful crops of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Farming is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the only food required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools and churches; markets convenient; climate excellent.
