Warren Sload of Maytown. During the year 1862 he enlisted in Company K, 135th regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was honorably discharged after serving a nine months enlistment, and again enlisted as a corporal during March, 1865, in Company B, 214th regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. During July, 1880, he was married a second time, his bride being Miss Helen Markley, one son was born, who is Paul Sload, of Elizabethtown. His wife, two sons, and a brother, Samuel Sload, of Maytown, survive. Ten grandchildren and three great grandchildren also survive. He was a member of the Maytown Reformed church since 1898, where he was a member of the consistory, serving as a deacon and later as an elder. He was also assistant superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years, and for a period of two years was its head. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from his late home.

Abram Sload Abram Sload, a prominent contractor of Maytown, died Friday afternoon at his home. Death was caused by a stroke of apoplexy sustained last Tuesday. He was a son of the late John and Lydia Sload of Akron, where he was born August 28, 1842. His father was a miller, and when the deceased was yet a boy moved to Maytown to take charge of Wolgemuth's mill in Donegal township. About the year 1860, Mr. Sload was married to Miss Charlotte Welscham. Three children were born of this union, one survives, Warren Sload, of Maytown.

Elizabethtown Check Forger Is Arrested Lester Williams, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams of Elizabethtown, who forged three checks on his father from F. H. Keller, J. D. Heagy and H. K. Dorschheim, the latter part of December, and then disappeared, was arrested at his boarding place at Hagerstown, Md., under the assumed names of Frederick Wilson and Frank Brungaber. Sheriff Stallger notified the authorities at Elizabethtown and Officer W. D. Plummer went to Hagerstown and brought him to the borough and put him in the lock-up. He was given a hearing before Squire Bringer on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and in default of bail was taken to the county jail to await his trial at court.

NOW ITS FIRST LIEUTENANT SCHOCK

MR. ARTHUR P. SCHOCK, OF THIS PLACE, WAS PROMOTED TO THAT OFFICE AT CAMP MEADE LAST SATURDAY.

The many friends of Mr. Arthur P. Schock, son of Burgess H. C. Schock,

First Lieut. A. P. Schock

of this place, will be pleased to learn of his success at Camp Meade.

Announcement of his promotion was made on Saturday and the bulletin discloses that two other Lancaster county men have advanced in the ranks, they being John C. Swank and John P. Feagley, both of Lancaster City.

Mr. Schock was assigned as a First Lieutenant in the National Army and was immediately assigned to the 304 Ammunition Train. He was a Second Lieutenant and his promotion comes as a recognition of his worth as a soldier. He is a graduate of the officers training school and his adaptability has given him almost immediate preferment.

The Birth of a Nation D. W. Griffith's magnificent historical spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," which has broken all theatrical records everywhere in the United States, has been booked by Wilmer and Vincent to be presented in their Colonial Theatre at Harrisburg Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 4, 6 and 7 at bargain prices of 25c and 35c. This is the first time in the history of this epoch-making play that the price scale has been under $2.00, and in order to accommodate the crowds that are sure to be attracted by these remarkably low prices, Wilmer and Vincent have arranged for six performances per day starting at 10 o'clock in the morning and running continuously until 11 o'clock at night. In this way the Colonial Theatre can take care of more than 25,000 people in the three days.

A Contrast in Prices An old Lancaster county resident says he got a quarter of beef and a 50-lb. can of lard from a farmer recently, for which he paid $33. He went to housekeeping just after the Civil War, when a similar purchase cost him $12. At that time he paid six cents a pound for beef and seven cents for lard. Afterwards he bought beef for as low as five cents and lard for six cents.

Have Ordered the Signs The Street Committee has placed an order for 116 street signs for use throughout our borough. They will have a blue back-ground and white letters and will be erected at the street corners immediately upon their arrival.

The average price of wool in the State jumped from thirty-four cents in 1916 to sixty-two cents for the 1917 clip which was valued at $2,528,236.
