LARGE FLY-WHEEL BURSTS; LUCKILY NO ONE WAS NEAR

Mr. Ezra Engle conducts a large stone quarry a short distance south of here and there was quite an accident there last Friday but very fortunately no one was injured.

the monotony of day in and day out of the terrible war. There are quite a lot of "Amex" out in France now, we have a company of New York Engineers close to us.

Mrs. Gantz also sent us newspaper clippings which speak very well of the two evacuation hospital units at Camp Crane, Allentown, of which her son, "Chubby" is a member.

Mount Joy, Pa., Dear sir, Your word received, John should have written before this but believe me I have been a busy man since I last saw you.

As this is a busy town and knows no Sunday or night, in so far as work goes. Have myself worked nine Sundays out of the twelve since I came here, as we work day and night, Sundays and week days.

With regards and kind words to all. Yours truly, A. S. Flowers.
