HAMLET NEWS.

QUICKTOWNS, Dec. 17.—John Quick shot a young deer just before the law was up on deer shooting.

Some thief stole turkeys of Maurice Quinn.

J. M. Cummings is cutting white pine logs on his place.

The Bogart farm has been sold again to Matamoras parties.

Miss Fannie Aldrich has returned from a visit at Johnsons, N. Y.

Jack Frost is doing some fine work up this way.

GREENTOWN NOTES.

GREENTOWN, Dec. 18.—On Sunday Dec. 8, Evenger Hazelton, of this place, was suddenly taken ill and rapidly grew worse until Monday last when Dr. F. Gilpin was called and found the young man suffering with great pain in the bowels. On examination he found that nothing could pass the bowels, and supposed they must be knotted or telescoped to cause such severe pain, and symptoms. Drs. Reed Burns and Bullock of Scranton, assisted by Drs. Gilpin and Simons, of Newfoundland, performed an operation. They found about seven feet of the small intestines were contracted. They report that is the first case of the kind occurring in their practice and have very little hopes that the patient will recover. The young man is about 30 years old and is a brother of S. B. Hazelton, of the firm of Hazelton and Kipp.

LEDGEDALE NEWS.

LEDGEDALE, Dec. 18.—I received a copy of the Press not long since from a friend, and in it I saw items from a great many places in Pike county. We are just across the line on Wayne county side of the stream, but I thought perhaps you would like to hear from this once prosperous, but now decaying village. A fire two years ago destroyed the large tannery here and in the spring of 1894 J. H. Becker bought the property of the Union Tanning Co., and in Nov. 1894 sold it to Thos. B. Gillett and Alfred Swingle. Mr. Swingle soon after sold his interest to Friend B. Simons. We have a large grist mill, one of the best in the county, and a good miller, Vincent Runyon. There are only a few families left here. Those remaining are J. H. Becker, former superintendent of the tannery, Vincent Runyon, Robert Lackhart, Mrs. Cook Mrs. Bisbing, Leonard Watson, Ira Kellam and Alexander Gilpin. We have one store kept by Ira Kellam, better known to Pike county folks as "Ida" who is also postmaster. We have a school numbering about 25 scholars taught by Miss Ethel Frey, of Freytown, Lackawanna Co., and a church where there is preaching once in two weeks by Rev. J. G. Haywood.

There will be a supper at the residence of Ira Kellam, Friday Dec. 20, proceeds for the benefit of the pastor to which a cordial invitation to all is extended. WAYNE COUNTY.

DINGMAN'S FERRY BITS.

DINGMAN'S FERRY, Dec. 19.—Our hotel keepers, merchants, and others are filling their ice houses.

Jacob Jagger is the happiest man in town, in 21 years if nothing happens he will have a boy to vote.

Herman Lange met with a serious accident in Dr. Fulmer's ice house. A large cake of ice fell on his foot.

Our young folks almost every night visit Whitesell's pond in crowds to enjoy the skating and have a good time. Nightly too large crowds of young men and ladies visit Buckley's pond for the fine skating it affords. Truly the lads and their lassies are enjoying this sport.

The ice in the eddy here is thick enough to carry a team. No use for a bridge while this weather lasts.

MAST HOPE PICKUPS.

MAST HOPE, Dec. 18.—We are pleased to hear that C. A. Dahron, who has been very ill for several weeks is able to be about again.

Mrs. W. J. Hughes will spend the Holidays with her mother and friends at Coaldale, Pa.

A party consisting of Messrs Laidley, Peters Whinger, Wickham and Case, of Port Jervis, arrived on the Mountain Express last evening en route for Lake Westcolang where they expect to spend several days fishing.

It is rumored that hereafter all parties wishing to fish on Lake Westcolang will be charged the small fee of one dollar per day.

Mr. Samuel Hankins and son, of Scranton, who have been hunting in this vicinity for several days past have returned home.

The recent drouth and cold weather have nearly exhausted the springs in this vicinity, and some of the residents have been obliged to carry their supply of water from the Delaware river.

Miss Dove Selden of the Manor house, who formerly spent the winter season in New York, is staying this winter at the Manor.

H. S. Whitmore, proprietor of the Manor house here, will give a dance on Christmas night. All kinds of refreshments will be served, good music will be in attendance. A good time anticipated. Every body come.

New York special train No. 10, on the Erie was derailed at Pages Monday morning. There were about 100 passengers aboard, but fortunately only three were slightly injured.

ANON.

OBITUARY.

E. C. DIMMICK.

Edward C. Dimmick, a politician and lawyer, of Scranton, and well-known in Monroe, Carbon and Pike counties, died, on Saturday Dec. 7, in Scranton, after a weeks' illness from pneumonia.

In 1873 Mr. Dimmick was the Democratic candidate for the legislature in the Monroe-Carbon district, but was defeated.

Mr. Dimmick was 51 years of age, having been born in Milford, Pike county, Feb. 2, 1844. He was the son of Milton Dimmick, a lawyer of that place, and a direct descendant of Elder Thomas Dimmick, the progenitor of that famous New England family. He was educated in Honesdale, under the tutelage of his grandfather, Rev. Edward Allen.

In 1862 he went to Mauch Chunk and entered the law office of his uncle, M. M. Dimmick. He was admitted to the Carbon county bar in 1865, and three years later was elected district attorney. He was re-elected in 1871.

In 1874 he went to Scranton and in 1882 was elected city controller, securing a re-election in 1885. Mr. Dimmick was married on Dec. 1, 1868, to Irene Sophia, daughter of Alexis I. and Joanna du Pont de Nemours, of Wilmington, Delaware. She died April 1, 1877, and on March 8, 1880, he married Joanna M., a sister of his first wife. Three children survive him, Lavinia Elizabeth Dimmick, Dorothy Dimmick and Milton Dimmick.—Stroudsburg Times.

HERMAN HARTUNG.

Herman Hartung, aged about 35 years, who formerly resided in Dingman township this county, died in New York, Nov. 30, 1895 of consumption. Deceased was well known in this community. He was a painter by trade and the school houses in that township and others attest his skill in his business. Surviving him is a father, mother, three brothers and two sisters.

JOHN BARNES.

John Barnes, aged about 80 years, and living in New York state just across from Lackawaxen, died Monday Dec. 16. For many years he has been a trusted employee of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Co. His widow and two sons survive him.

REUBEN SPENCER.

Reuben Spencer, a former resident of Delaware township, but for some years an inmate of the Danville Hospital, died at that institution Nov. 28. His age was 64 years. One brother, George, survives.

A man always respect a woman if he sees that she respects herself.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, of New York spent Sunday here. They report the family and friends there well.

F. R. Salmon of the Union staff at Port Jervis is confined to his house with a severe attack of la grippe. Messrs. C. B. Staples, W. A. Erdman and A. Mitchell Palmer of the Monroe County bar were here on business this week. They were accompanied by Prothonotary Dutot of the same county.

Esquire Philip B. Clark, of Porter, was in attendance at Court. He reports game plenty in that section but says it is all copped by pot hunters. Jeremiah Walters, of Lehman, is in town on court business.

County Superintendent George Sawyer was here this week engaged in visiting schools.

Esquire John W. Frazer, of Dingmans Ferry, paid a visit here this week.

Mr. A. Griswold, of Rowlands attended Court Tuesday.

Mr. A. D. Brown has moved in his remodeled house on Broad street, which is now in every respect, modern and comfortable.

John V. Quick moved in the old Sherman house vacated by Mr. Brown.

Mrs. Walter H. Warner is quite seriously ill at her home near Milford. Some signs of improvement however are observed.

James M. Bensley, of Lehman, was in Milford on Tuesday.

Emil Bergot arrived home this week from Baltimore where he is attending a Dental College.

Mr. Alonzo L. W. Kline, left town this morning for the metropolis on the Atlantic seaboard, to try his ability for a good business. The Press wishes him success.

Mr. J. F. Keyes, of Matamoras, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Keyes is about 80 years old and he travels on his silent steed, the bicycle.

Dr. Ross Broadhead of Washington D. C., is stopping in town for a few days.

Miss Helen Biddis of Washington D. C., will spend the Holidays in Milford, the guest of the Misses Lila and Bessie Van Etten. They will come Saturday.

Mr. Al. Marvin and W. A. H. Mitchell of the New York law school are home for vacation.

John Smith of Greene township was in town transacting legal business yesterday.

Edgar J. Barrett, of Port Jervis who is traveling for the Gazette distributing advertisements was in town yesterday.

Ernest Baker, of Steven's Institute will spend his vacation here.

Sheriff-elect Courtwright was at Court taking notes, as to the duties which he will soon assume.

The C. L. Society met at the home of Miss Huldah Bull last evening.

John Doerr, of the New York Hotel at Lackawaxen will give a large ball and supper Dec. 28. A good time is in store for those attending.

Messrs. Weaver of Easton, and Delong of Stroudsburg, registered at the Crissman house this week.

Judge Barnett, Mansfield stopped at the Center Square Hotel Thursday.

Julius Mulford, who is undermining a part of Delaware township in hopes of unearthing a mine, was here sanguine as ever that he will find it.

Hon. H. Wilson, a prominent member of the Wayne county bar and editor of the Citizen was here on court matters.

Among those who took in the Erie excursion from here were, Wm. Findlay, John C. Warner, George Gregory, Wm. Angle, Alonzo Kline, John Walneright, Dr. H. E. Emerson, James Cummings, Arthur Wolf, Mrs. V. Allen, and J. H. Van Etten.

Irvin Elmer, an employee of Remy Van Etten, our tailor left for the winter. He will spend the time until his return in the spring in Lancaster Co.

Alex. H. Hover, who has been confined in the county jail since October term of court, for non payment of costs in the Commonwealth and Gilpin case was discharged yesterday, and to-day left town rejoicing.

Geo. N. Bull, Miss Bonnie Cross and Linda Klaer, students at Blair Hall are home, as is Fred Klaer from Goshen Institute for the Christmas vacation.

Thomas Bradford, of Woodtown, made us a pleasant and profitable call Friday morning.

WEDDINGS.

Miss Carrie Van Etten, of this place and Mr. John Hicks, of New York were married recently in New York.

Miss Sylvia Shay of Sandyston N. J. was married this week to Mr. Clarence Cole of Montague. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Shay, and the groom a son of George Cole.

The Press staff did not enjoy any of the cake, but the Press congratulates both couples just as heartily.

HE IS VERY MODEST.

What Congressman Hart, of This District, Wanted of Speaker Reed.

There are several in these two boroughs who have, no doubt, seen Hoyt's satirical comedy "A Texas Steer," which in its portrayal shows how one, "Maverick Brander," a Texan, is elected to Congress and although a greenhorn of the worst type is in a few days turned into a man who knows what's what and doesn't forget to ask for it.

Joseph J. Hart, the member of Congress from this district has turned into a Maverick Brander and if he shows as much assurance in his future life at the Capital as he has already shown since Congress convened he will get there a la Trilby, with both feet.

He is not at all backward in asking for things in Washington. One of them is that he buttonholed Speaker Reed, and in a confident manner asked that autocrat of the House to place him on the Committee on Naval Affairs, one of the most important committees in the House and one that requires an intimate knowledge of the navy.

It is said that the speaker smiled at the request of Mr. Hart, but what he said is not reported. If our present Congressman keeps up at the same rate he will introduce a bill for the removal of the Capital to Milford so as to be near his editorial sanctum.—Stroudsburg Times.

The Cochran House in Newton Sold.

At a sale of the real estate belonging to the late Dr. R. A. Sheppard, of Newton, N. J., the old established hotel known as the Cochran House, was sold to Robert A. Snook, for $21,500. The remainder of the property sold at a sacrifice, some of it being bid in by the sons themselves to avoid too great a loss.

Congressman Hart Doesn't Want Much.

Congressman Hart, the new member from this district, one of the two Democrats elected from this state last year, is not at all backward in asking for things in Washington. He asked Speaker Reed to put him on the Committee on Naval Affairs, one of the most important committees in the House, and one that requires a knowledge of the navy, and Reed is said to have smiled. This prompts the Harrisburg Telegraph to remark: "Mr. Hart's knowledge of naval affairs was gained while navigating the trout streams of Pike county, or handling the car on a raft in Pike county lumber streams," or sailing around with his friends over Salt river.

Died While Waiting.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has affirmed a judgement of the Mercer county court against the Erie road, awarding the heirs of Patrick Gallagher, of Sharon, $4,650 for damages, by reason of an accident causing Gallagher's death. The man and his wife have died since the action was begun, leaving a 16 year-old daughter as the only heiress.

Woman's Ways.

A domestic wife is a blessing, but not if she is too domestic. A wife is willing to be obedient, but she hates to be considered a slave.

When a woman says no she wants you to insist upon her saying yes. When a woman, her soul should always be at least as well clad as her body.

If a married woman commences as a slave she will never regain her freedom. Very few married women sin even in thought when they have good husbands.

A great many women transfer to their baby the love they once had for their husband.

Even when a woman is in love she never forgets to see that her hat is on straight.

The woman who is a good cook can always retain the respect of her husband, if not his love. A woman should be chary with her kisses and carresses even to her husband. We got tired even of canvas back duck, if we have it every day.
