UNCLE SAM'S GENERGSITY.

Senator Hill recently introduced a bill in the senate to refleve ex-Confederates of the disability which barred them out from official positions in the army and may. It was unanimously passed by that body, and probably will be also in the Republican house. This is the nation's Christmas gift to ber sons who thirty years ago were in arms against her, and displays the gonumine Americanism, patriotism and magnanimity of the north. The Atlanta Constitution says nothing more significant has ever happened in the history of our country. It is the voice of the nation solemnly declaring that the ex-Confederates are brave and loyal Americans, whose valor is a part of our national heritage. It means that the last vestige of the old war issues are wiped out forced and constitution is to be understant of green stellars, and the condition of the currency, and should be aftered to the transfer of the difficulty the government has had is keeping the pledge of Congress to adopt some romedy. VENGEANCE OF A MOB

A WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH AND A MAN MURDERED.

The Terrible Ending of a Kentucky Scandal-A Furious Mob Set Fire to a House, and a Woman Perishes In the Flames, The Man Enddled With Bullets.

Lanasov, Kr., Dec. 30 .- Within two not burned to death a woman and rid-died with bullers her gray haired para-mour. The binckened and disfigured corpaes of the victims. Mrs. Thomas West and William Deveces, were found in the ruins of the woman's home by the 14-year-old daughter of the murdered man. The tragedy was one of the most brutal over enacted under the growsome sway of drund Judge Lynch. Despite the pleadings for her father's life of a half clad, frightened child and the prayers and tears of the ill and helpless woman, the mob went through with its work with cold blooded, cruel deliberation, and only left when certain that both man and woman were dead.

The affair was the outgrowth of the old story of faithless wife and vengeful husband. Several months ago Devoera a middle aged widower, was accused by Thomas West, a prosperous farmer, of in-timacy with Mrs. West. Quarrel followed quarrel throughout the fall until West instituted divorce proceedings and de-clared that Deveers must die. The man met in Lebanon. West snapped his revolvmet in Lebanon. West sampped his revolver, which missed fire, and Deveers killed him on the spot. On the plea of self defense the murderer secured ball and scandalized the heighborhood by immediately taking his two daughters and moving into West's house. The relatives of the murdered haviand swore venezance, which dered husband swore vengeance, which came in a terrible and brutal form

A band of men rode up to the W homestead and demanded admittance. The House Riddled With Bullets.

"Tom West is dead. Now it's your ened window and began a wild, hysterical plea for mercy. A dozen builets answered her cries, and the demand for immediate

The little girl led her negro protector to the scene, and there the bodies, scorched beyond recognition, were found, untouch-ed by the lynchers. There is but little doubt that the members of the mob will be captured, as they were without masks and made no attempt at secrecy. Another Tragedy May Follow.

It is not improbable that the scenes of the inhuman affair will be re-enacted in the vicinity shortly, as the outrage has aroused the most intense indignation among the people of the county. Because of the fact that West's relatives had threatened venguance there is a strong be-lief that they are responsible for the crime. The uncertainty, however, as to soon as the child is able to appear in court.

Mrs. West's corpse was charred almost beyond human semblance. Overcome by the flames, she had fallen into the large old fashioned fireplace of the living room, and the head was almost burned from the body. Deveers' body was plerced by at least 25 bullets. Before his desperate dash for liberty he had been frightfully burned and would probably have died without the gunshot wounds. His hair and beard were burned off, his clothes were in charred shreds and his face blis-tered and blackened.

No arrests have so far been made, but evelopments are expected.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Without Apparent Notice Edward Rallenbach Tries to Kill William Robinson. New York, Dec. 81.—An attempt at New York, Dec. 31.—An attempt at murder, as evidently determined and de-liberate as it was mysterious created great excitement in the flathouse 314. West Fifty-ninth street. Edward Hallen-bach of Branklyn went to the house and inquired for young William T. Robinson, a dry goods clork, who lived with his parents and three brothers on the top floor. The janitor followed him up stairs and saw him knock at the door of Robinson's room. When the young man appeared at the door, Nailenhach drew a revolver and fired, shooting Robinson in the head. Robinson fell, as if he had been killed, and Hailenbach, who had dropped his bat, can out of the house bareheaded. He did not appear very anxious to get away, but walked at a quick gait. Policeman Sinter of the West Forty-seventh street station noticing the group following the harless man, arrested him and took him back to the flathouse. On the way to the house the prisoner said he was Edward Hallen-bach. The policeman pushed his way through the crowd with the prisoner, mounted the stairs to the Robinson fiat mointed the stairs to the Roulisson list and was shown to a hall bedroom, where young Robinson lay on a bed, surrounded by his family. The policeman led his prisoner forward to be identified by the wounded man. One of the family raised Robinson on the pillow so that he could look at the prisoner. look at the prisoner.

Without a word Hallenbach pulled a revolver from his pocket and quickly fied three times at Robinson. Two of the bul-lets struck him, and he fell back on the pillow with a groan, while his brothers sprang at the assassin, who had already been seized by the policeman.

Slater was so much astonished at the man's desperate act that the third shot was fired before he realized what was happening. He then selzed Hallenbach, and, with the assistance of the Robinson brothers, quickly overpowered him.

The ambulance from Roosevelt hespital had arrived while Hallenbach was directturn," the spokesman called, and Deveers ing his second fusillade at his victim.
