KIMBLES.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) KIMBLE, Jan. 15.—The last few days of cold weather and snow remind us that winter didn't forget us, although it was sometime getting here. We are not satisfied now, for there has been but little snow and only once or twice have we heard the merry tinkle of sleigh bells. The Excelsior mill has shut down for an indefinite time, the men all going to Lackawaxen to gather ice for the Delaware house at that place. They will then go to Westcolang and fill the ice house there. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ekboek was brightened by the arrival of a little daughter Jan. 5. Mrs. E. Kimble and son returned Friday after spending a week with friends in Scranton and Wilkesbarre. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kimble and son went to Philadelphia Tuesday to spend a week or two. Mrs. McKown and Cora Kimble spent Friday at the latter's home in Paupac.

Mr. Edward Malone was in Scranton on business a few days last week. The young people of this place spent a very enjoyable evening at the Ragbee and Molasses candy party given by Mrs. Donlon Thursday evening. OCCASIONAL.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) DINGMAN'S FERRY, Jan. 16.—The Rev. Stephen Morris pastor of the M. E. church here preached an excellent sermon last Sunday evening. His theme was the second coming of Christ.

Mrs. John Whittaker, who has been sick for sometime is slowly improving. W. H. Layton, is still unable to teach his school.

John March county auditor from Greene spent Sunday with Martin Hatton and returned home Tuesday. Moses Shafer is still sick but under the care of Dr. Fulmer is improving.

Mr. Jacob DeWitt was in town this week calling on old friends. Uncle Joe Latimore, who has nearly reached four score years, looks hale, hoary and jolly. He has been in the poultry and fur business this winter, but at present he is hoping that his goose will return to her roost, and that Grover will get back to the White House next fall. DELAWARE.

LEGGEDALE. (Special Correspondence to the Press.) LEGGEDALE, Jan. 13.—Messrs A. J. Kimble, I. K. Bennett, of Paupac, and Sanford Williams, of Salem, were guests of Friend Simons and Ira Kellam on Friday. Alice Sheridan spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Becker.

Mr. Jabez Simons and Mrs. Albert Simons were calling on Ledgedale friends last Saturday. Messrs Simons and Gillett are remodeling a part of the large horse barn and putting in stanchions so as to shelter some 23 head of cattle.

Messrs F. B. Simons, Charles Kellam, Joe Bisbing, Miss Mattie Becker, Mable Walker, Alice Sheridan, Mrs. Kellen and Master Fred Kellam, attended the supper at H. E. Kipp's in Paupac on Wednesday evening Jan. 8th for the benefit of their pastor, Rev. J. G. Raymond.

Mr. Sheeloy is still very sick with little hopes of being any better. Miss Frey, our teacher, returned this morning after a three week vacation, taken on account of sickness. WAYNE COUNTY.

ROWLAND.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) ROWLAND, Jan. 13.—A nice fall of snow here January 7th, but not enough for sleighing.

Mr. F. R. Brink, has sold his fast trotter to W. J. Carhuff. Sila Carhuff, returned home to Glen Eyre Friday evening, she has been visiting friends and relatives in this place since Tuesday. Senator Lafayette Rowland is filling his ice house.

The Oyster supper at Mr. John Adams house last Wednesday evening was a success in every respect, about 70 present. $18.25 to be applied to minister's salary. A good time was had by all. J. Hogan, of Stairway, spent Sunday with his father. Mr. Geo. Ammerman, made a flying business trip in town, Saturday. There will be a supper and entertainment in the new house at H. P. James, Jan. 23rd, for the benefit of our minister, Rev. G. M. Bell. A cordial invitation is extended to all. "TRASH"

MATAMORAS.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) MATAMORAS, Jan. 14.—Miss Bertie Mulley is lying dangerously ill at her home on Washington street.

Isaac Decker, son of Coe Decker, was unfortunate in having his hand so badly crushed that it was amputated at the hospital Sunday morning. It is hard to lose a hand most especially so if a young man has but little of this world's goods.

I saw the second issue of the "Epworth Tidings." They are writing up a history of the Epworth Church. I wonder if the half will be told.

Mr. Jacob Beyer, is very sick at his home, with little prospect of a recovery very soon as it seems he is suffering from a complication of diseases.

The river is frozen over at this place, and the young people are skating merrily. TULY.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) MATAMORAS, Jan. 15.—We are taking advantage of the ice-bridge in every way possible, and, as a result Mr. Miller has time between "tickets" to watch the skaters on the river enjoy themselves.

Mr. Chas. Wehinger of Port Jervis, is rapidly filling his ice house with an excellent quality of ice from the Delaware river. The building is situated on the bank of the Delaware on the Pennsylvania side.

Sol Van Aken and Tom Sheen, two of our leading fishermen started out last Monday with lines and hooks, and, on their return exhibited 20 pickerel that tipped the scales to 30 pounds. They were taken from the cove on the Jersey side opposite Ben Vannoy's farm.

Mr. Chas. Davenport, an employee of the Deepark Coal and Lumber Association, is seriously ill at his home with pleuro-pneumonia.

Mr. Chester Frey, of Hartford, Conn., is paying his mother a brief visit at this place. Chester is employed as a brakeman on the New England and Hartford railroad.

The missionary committee of the C. E. Society connected with the Hope church will hold a social Thursday evening, Jan. 16, at the residence of W. C. Van Sickle, for the benefit of the needy. An entertainment will be given and refreshments served all for the small sum of 10 cents. All interested are requested to bring food, clothing, fuel or anything that would be of service for the above purpose.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the M. E. church will hold a social at the residence of Mr. George Langton on Friday evening of this week. A novel feature of this social will be the sale of "scripture cake" during the evening. Come out and get a piece. ALPHA.

GLENEYRE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) GLENEYRE, Jan. 13.—The Lackawaxen river is frozen over for the second time this winter. It is something unusual in so short a time. The pound party held at Mr. Bisbop's last week was a success. It was for the benefit of his son Charles who has been confined to his bed for a long time with rheumatism.

Mr. Frank Bishop and family, who have been visiting his parents the last week returned to-day. Joseph Schmale, is shipping some very fine lumber from this place at present and has several large orders to fill yet. The want of a little more snow is putting the lumberman back some with their business.

Candidates for the township officers are all the talk now. The Republicans are in the minority, but expect to put a ticket in the field and elect some of their candidates. Constable Frank Kelly, is going to try for another term. Frank makes a very good officer.

Superintendent of the Blooming Grove Park, W. J. Coon and wife have gone to New York for a short time.

Elmer Westfall, who has been sick a long time with typhoid fever is able to be around again, but now his mother is sick with LaGrippe. The old saying is that troubles never come singly.

There is some prospect that the Erie Railroad Company will build a new station here. Some of the officers were here to-day looking over the grounds. CITIZEN.

PAUPAC.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) As stated last week we had our chicken supper on Tuesday evening, some of the invitations sent out, said if it was stormy, it would be the next evening. As there was a bounteous supply of provisions left we took none of them away, and many of us went again Wednesday evening, and felt well paid for going. From Ledgedale came Mrs. Ira Killam and the Misses Becker, Walker and Sheridan, Messrs Simons Bisbing and Charles and Fred Killam, Hawley Misses Schartt and Ames. The net result twelve dollars and seventy five cents the two nights netted thirty seven dollars and seventy five cents clearing this place from debt, to the Rev. J. G. Raymond. On Friday evening a jolly load of our young people called on the minister and replenished his purse, much to his pleasure and theirs.

Mrs. Conrad Gumble, is still in failing health. Her married daughter, Mrs. Fred Hochstern from Florida, is expected home next month. Some of the neighbors are busy replenishing their coal bins and wood-houses. The wheeling is so good, it is almost better than sleighing.

Mr. Asher Kirkendall, is very busy with his forces of men getting lumber off the Ainsley lot. A READER

IN NEARBY COUNTIES.

East Stroudsburg has a distressing case of poverty and sickness. The family of James Howey consisting of six children have been sick, and three have died while the others are critically ill. Howey has no work and the charitably inclined are rendering aid.

The Times says H. E. Kingsley of Brookfield N. Y., has taken the contract to carry the mail between Saylorsburg and Wind Gap in Monroe county for $236.00 two trips per day. These must be good times indeed, if a man can be found to furnish a horse and wagon, and throw in his whole time, for 75 cents per day.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The effect of the appointment of Hon. William A. Stiles, as Park Commissioner, in New York city, is gaining considerable local interest. It is believed that it was at the suggestion of Mr. Stiles, that one of the new small parks has been named Kilpatrick Square, in honor of his old friend, neighbor and schoolmate. The various Kilpatrick G. A. R. Posts will now place a bronze statue of the General in Kilpatrick Square and a movement to this effect has already been set in motion. This is as it should be. All credit to Mr. Stiles and the soldier friends of the General.—Independent.

January 4, 1896, a number of rafts passed here. Old residents say this is the first time in over twenty years that this has been done. Some of them were quite surrounded with slush ice, and the men had a cold disagreeable time. One large log raft stuck in Punkies, and was broken up, part of it landed in Milford eddy and the men came on with the remainder of it expecting to stop here, and pick it up, but the slush crowded them out, and they could not land until they reached Death eddy where the raft now lies frozen in the ice. It will be a great expense to take it out, and unless they do it will be a total loss. Truly the poor lumbermen have hard times and plenty of them.

The vile literature spread broadcast over the country should warn us that it is the sacred duty of every father and mother to see that their children are supplied with the very best class of reading matter. Many a child has grown up in ignorance and sin because the parents did not watch the class of literature their child was reading. If you give your children only good literature to read they will seldom ever change.—Exchange

A Kansas man has discovered the brandy can be made out of wet elm saw-dust. Now a discouraged Prohibitionist asks what chance can a good cause have when a man can go forth with a rip saw and get drunk on a rail fence.—Exchange

Arrangements are being made to have the different young peoples religious societies of Monroe and Pike counties, hold a joint convention, at some suitable place. The clergymen of both towns have the matter in hand.

Whiskey may be made from beets an exchange says, but it don't begin to compare in quantity, with the beets that are made from whiskey.

What is claimed to be the largest single pane of glass in the country was received at Hartford, Conn., from Belgium, a few days ago. It is 18 1/2 feet high, 15 1/2 feet wide half an inch thick, and weighs 1,800 pounds.

Do You Wear This Size?

51-2, 6, 61-2 or 7 C width only. If so you can get a pair of Woman's Dongola Square Toe Laced Shoe. Real value $3.00—now $1.75.

We bought them of a speculator in New York and we are satisfied to give you the benefit of the bargain.

Orders sent by mail or by either stage line will receive our careful and immediate attention.
