Odd Trial, Out of Which Londoners Ars Getting Lots of Fun.

All London is laughing over the trial 2 25 of the managers of the World's Great Marriags association, which cleared $25,000 profit in ten months in its al 1 99 leged efforts to get husbands and wives for its subscribers. 5 63

The witnesses thus far have been men of some means, including a tobacconist, 94 67 7 36 a hairdresser and a law student.

The fourth one was a man who de-clared himself to be the champion back-15 53 gammon player of England. He sub-scribed for a wife of good, sound judg-ment, able to swim, play backgammon, of a philosophical turn of mind and able to see without spectacles. 1019 83 4 45

Sir Frank Lockwood asked him if ever in the whole course of his life he saw a woman with all these qualifications.

The witness admitted that while in correspondence with a certain Alice May he was also writing to 51 other ladies. The presention charges that the association kept what is called a "Bartha" book, full of names of fictitious ladies, most of the letters to wife hunters being in one handwriting, and 1 70 the book was necessary as the business 1 21 graw so as to keep track of what women each man had been corresponding with. Notable lawyers are engaged on the case, and are making much more fun out of it than would herstofore have 15 50 been believed possible in an English court.-Julian Raiph in New York 4 64 Journal.

A Bicycle Tournament.

The fashionable people of Washing-ton are going to give a novel entertain-3 18 ment for the benefit of a local charity. It will be a bloyole tournament, and the hadies and gestlemen of the swagger set will participate in races and other feats of skill and valor on the grounds of the old Vanness mansion.—Chicago Record. 1 95

Seven New Women In Oklahoma, Robert Smartwood of Beaver City, O. T., formerly No Man's Land, arrived in Topska the other day and reports the organization there of a cattle com-17 49 pany by seven young women teachers in the district schools. Each has filed a claim on a quarter section of bottom hand, and they now propose to consoli-72 date their interests and engage in the eastle raising business.
