DINGMAN'S FERRY.

(Special Correspondence to the PRESS.) DINGMAN'S FERRY, Aug. 3,-The pulpit of the M. E. Church was filled by one of Rev. Morris' older sons on Sunday

Joseph Crump, formerly of Lehman township, but latterly of Weatherly, Pa., died during the week ending June 18. Mrs. Custard, over 30 years of age, died at the home of Palmer Depue, in Lehman during the week ending July 10. She was a much respected old lady.

Mr. Anson Courtright, of Colo's has been very sick during the month of July, but is now able to be around again, we are happy to say.

The epidemic of measles hereabout has evidently disappeared. Since the two cases in the family of Mr. Daniel Brodhead in Lehman, several days ago, we hear of no further developments of the disease.

John B. Van Auken, the genial collector of Delaware township, has had a new roof placed on his barn on the "Old Honostead" this summer. The Middaugh family are preparing to place a new roof on their large barn in Lehman township.

Messys Thomas McMurray and William Gilmore, of Dingmans, have recently purchased a new Heebner thresher and power, of the latest improved style, and are doing much sustom work in this locality.

Several members of the Edgemere Club have been spending a season of recreation at their scenic and inviting resort at Silver Lake, but most of them have now returned to their city homes

The Winans family, who, a few years since purchased the Fuhnerville property. near Child's Park, have not visited their summer home in two summers past, and it now transpires that many things have n stolen therefrom during their abs The most flagrant and audacious thieving seems to have occured at sometime during the past three or four weeks, when an ex cellent pleasnre-wagon, straw colored running gears, was taken from the building used as a wagon-house, and a harness from the dwelling house. No trace of the stolen property, nor clue to the dishonest mis creants who took the same has yet been found, so far as learned. We carnestly hope the parties who are guilty will be apprehended and a proper punishment meted out to them, not only on the account of the owners, but for the vindica tion of the neighborhood. 'Two or three bad characters in a community through their misdeeds often give the entire locality a bad name, and it can be said that nearly all this neighborhood is composed of honest, law-abiding people. Ex-Judge Hornbeck, connected with the Philadelphia Mint, was home for a few days, visiting friends and relatives last week. Judge is in excellent spirits, and cheerful, and his many friends hereabout wish him the best of success. He returned to his duties, we believe on Saturday Iast. Fish Commissioner, Henry D.
