LAYTON.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
LAYTON, Aug. 28th.—Numerous candidates for county offices are showing up in Sandyston this fall. Lester T. Smith, James B. Fuller, J. J. Van Sickle, and even Edwin B. Kintner are named as aspirants for legislative honors, although some of them perhaps without authority. The candidacy of Kintner is possibly a joke, though he is said to be electorizing. However that is kept up all the year, so should not be regarded as a sure indication. His running reminds one of the boy who stoned the frogs for pasture, it was fun for the boy but death to the frogs; so E. B.'s running may be fun for him, but it is a tough joke on the people, and Democracy of Sandyston. Sandyston has taken some bitter pills in the way of candidates in the past, but the repetition of a like dose now in such a candidate should be avoided, for it would be like to stick in her gullet as no other ever has.

It is to be devoutly hoped that our good old township will remember, even if he does not, that the representation of our people should mean something. Will they say that such a man truly represents their needs and aspirations? No, No, it is not necessary to put so low a value on themselves yet awhile.

The annual refurbishing of the school rooms preparatory to commencing school is now in progress. The room at Layton would be much more comfortable, and a great economy of fuel would result from the purchase of a different stove. The one in present use cost enough, but is not at all suitable. Would it not be wise to also make an effort to procure a larger play ground, private subscriptions would aid in acquiring more room.

John Youngs is one of our live and progressive citizens, and any town that contains enough such men will be up-to-date, and no discount on it. John has for some time owned a ten horse power engine that he has used for drilling wells, sawing wood, grinding grain, or anything else to which the power could be applied. He has now added to his outfit a Rock Crusher of about 75 tons capacity of crushed stone in ten hours. Last week he crushed stone for Montague township. Now for some weeks to come he will be engaged in crushing stone for the big dam near Colville. This dam is for the Deckertown water supply, and a great amount of concrete is to be used in it. Mr. Youngs will crush the stone that enters into this concrete. His next job is to crush stone for the town of Port Jervis. This solves the problem of how to get crushed stone in the township, and it will not be long before they will tumble over each other to get the plant set in their territory, and build some of the "good" roads for which our country should be famous. We have an unlimited abundance of the best material, and only need a little courage to begin the good work. Would that Sandyston had a little surplus road money to put into crushed stone, if only enough for an object lesson. Stone roads are their own best advertisement.

Rev. Frank Ellett will preach the morning sermon at Bevens next Sunday. Frank is one of our Sandyston products, and is rising in his profession. Go and hear him!

I extend thanks to your Montague correspondent for setting us straight on the salary of the fish and game warden, $600 salary, and expenses not to exceed $300. That is a pretty good compensation considering the times; don't you think so?

The Brick House school will be in charge of Chester Smith, of Flatbrookville, for the coming year.

Lester T. Smith, and Frank McKeeby have had a fine job of lettering done on the glass in their store fronts. It adds to the general good appearance of their stores, and is an attractive method of advertising.

John Bevans won the bicycle that was put up in the raffle by Ed Smith. The wheel was high grade, and netted about $84.00.

The picnic of the farmers, mechanics, and tradesmen at Farmstead Lake on Saturday was well attended considering the threatening skies throughout the whole day. The children missed the merry-go-round as did some of the grown people also, but the attractions of various other kinds were as numerous as usual. The speechifying was rather tame, and the band with the Devore brothers were the principal agencies in keeping the crowd in good humor. The candidates for county offices made some progress for themselves, and carefully felt the popular pulse. The band either stand over the fence, while condemned by almost every body, seemed to do a thriving business, while the majority of the stands inside felt that the cry of hard times rattled their receipts seriously.

The wagon house of J. W. Johnson at Hainesville was struck by lightning last week. A sleigh in the building was damaged some, and the building also, but slightly.

Mrs. Snider, one of our oldest residents, and mother of John Snider, lies seriously ill at the latter's home.

Wanted to know whether "Sand Durr" still writes his ponderously witty communications to the Gazette under inspiration, and if so how much it costs a pint. The pints in his inspirations may be very numerous but the pints in his writings are woefully lacking. Is one the result of the other? Don't all speak at once for it might frighten our candidate for member of Assembly. hey!

MONTAGUE.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
MONTAGUE, Aug. 27.—Paul Brewster, wife and family, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Rundle.

The Board of Education of this town will meet in School House No. 2, at Tapawton on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 2 at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. McGreer and Mrs. Flynn, of New York, are visiting at Leo Schubiger's. Messrs. de Lacy, Servatius and E. L. Newman guests at the Springdale House, captured 30 very fine bass last Friday.

Sandyston has a Democratic candidate for assembly, Brutus James B. Fuller is the man, and he is for free silver.

So far there are seven Democrats and four Republicans who like to be sheriff and more to hear from.

A two-year-old colt of James McKeeby was severely injured by a cow last Wednesday. Dr. Carlow took eight stitches to close up the wound.

This town has 245 scholars of school age, employs four teachers and receives from the State $1,294.50. Sandyston has 274 scholars, employs eight teachers and receives $2,985.96.

If the fool killer can spare the time and visit Montague he will find employment. Squible, squable, talk and talk, truth and untruth all the same. Keep on and the courts likely will decide which is right. See?

Miss Grace Bonner gave an entertainment at the Brick House, Saturday evening. The audience was largely made up of Milfordites.

John Kyles' headle bound so far holds the records for killing groundhogs. He has 42 to his credit this season.

Well, the line fence dispute is settled. Every one must keep up his share of it.

Robert Youngs and wife, of East Orange, are visiting Robert Armstrong and wife.

The weekly hop at the Riverside House took place last Saturday evening. Fifteen guests of the Cuddeback Farm, being chaperoned by Mrs. Stephen Cuddeback attended.

Dr. Everett Emerson, of Milford, seems to be building up a large practice over here. At present he has five patients near the Brick House. The telephone comes very handy in cases of emergency.

Don't foot around a horse which is left tied out. Don't loosen the lines. Don't remove cushions. Because you may cause trouble. DICK.

PAUPAC.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
PAUPAC, Aug. 27.—The party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kimble at their home on Tuesday evening, August 18th was well attended and proved to be a very enjoyable affair. Dancing commenced at 8.30 o'clock and continued until the early hours of Wednesday morning. Mr. Thomas Duffy was the caller and to him much credit and thanks is due for the very able way in which he performed his duty. Among the different calls was, "Chase your honey," meet your partner with a railroad swing and many others. The music was furnished by Messrs. Fred Gumble, Michael Duffy and John Duffy. Refreshments were served and were freely partaken of and highly appreciated by all. Among those present were the Misses Louise H. and Eugenia A. Koutal and Philippine Breunich and Messrs. Edward Bold and J. J. Meizer, of New York; the Misses Kimble, Misses Pellett, Misses Smith, Misses Isabel Ainsley, Nina Down, and Miss Williams of Paupac, Miss Yolande Killiam, of Scranton and Messrs. Michael Thomas and John Duffy and Mark Ainsley and Messrs. Ed. and Geo. Scharit and Otto Lieberow, of Hawley, Pa.

The number of boarders at the Kimble House has been increased by the arrival of the distinguished New York surgeon, Dr. A. Von Dering, Mrs. Von Dering, Mrs. L. Kruse and the well-known New York druggist, Mr. A. Hitzel. These with the previous arrivals constitute a very gay party.

Miss Virginia Ammermann, of Hawley, spent Thursday and Friday in Paupac.

But very few from this place attended "Camp" meeting on Sunday because of the inclemency of the weather.

A jolly party of campers has pitched their tents beside the Wallenpanpa just below the Kimble House. They are Dr. E. M. Greene and Messrs. Theo. and Fern Connell, Arja Powell, Edwin Hittenberger, Marc Edgar, Fred Edwards, Guy Stevens and Art. Monies, all of Scranton.

Edith Klipp, of Paupac, has been spending a week at Waymart.

Florence Killam returned to Troy on Saturday. MCKINLEY.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
DINGMAN'S FERRY, Aug. 24.—The store of J. B. Westbrook, in Dingmans was covered some time during the night of Thursday last, and about $55 taken from the safe. The safe door had been blown open, and the explosion must have caused a considerable report. The shop of Brown and Van Auker had been visited and a brace taken therefrom during the same night.

The members of the M. E. Church at this place are preparing to have a Harvest Home festival in a very short time, somewhere in or near Dingmans.

last and was preached by Rev. W. G. Myles. The interment was in the Delaware cemetery.

The Schuyler Sabbath school, in Lehman, expects to hold its annual picnic in Bergstrom's Grove, on the 2nd of September. KITO.

MATAMORAS.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
MATAMORAS, Aug. 17.—Miss Julia Balch who has been spending the last two weeks visiting friends in Deposit returned to her home the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Ennis returned from making a delightful visit to friends and relatives at Otisville, Howells and Mount Hope. They attended the annual picnic of the Maple family during their stay.

Rev. Mr. Tries returned Tuesday noon from his two weeks visit at Danville, N. J. He looks very brown and much improved in health.

Mr. Geo. Martin is spending his vacation in Sullivan county.

Mr. Frank Heath has gone to Monticello He hopes to get much good physically from the change of air. We hope he shall have gotten strong and well when he returns.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Merritt and daughter of New York are spending the week at the Frick's Grove, Matamoros.

Mrs. G. M. Keyes and daughter, Grace are also visiting at the residence of Mr. J. F. Keyes.

The Joker's Club which has been camping at Twin Lakes, returned Tuesday evening, having had a most delightful time. They report fishing an extra good there.

The dance at Frick's Grove, Thursday evening, of the Legion of Danville was a fine affair. The attendance was large. Delegates from Milford, Sparrowbush, Germantown, Fort Jervis, and Matamoros were there. Dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by all as the platform was in fine condition and the evening perfect. As the first dance was a grand success, they hope to keep it up making it an annual thing.

Tuesday night Horace Dunn gave a dance at the Frick's Grove. The orchestra furnished the music. The platform was filled during the whole evening. Over 100 were in attendance and report a delight full time.

The ladies of the Hope Evangelical church held an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. Theo. Fletcher Tuesday evening. A fine time and over $10.00 was the result.

At the Republican caucus Monday night held in Millott's hall, there was a first-rate attendance. Eighty-three votes were cast for delegates, of these Aaron Courtwright received 50 and Frank Marvin, Jr. 31. Mr. Courtwright's delegates are: Adam Diller, G. K. Laubach, Peter Garretant, David Abers; alternates, Louis Davey, Emanuel Coykendall. The delegates who were to support Mr. Marvin were: F. A. Rose, Matt Van Aken, Alfred Billman, Edwin M. Kimball; alternates, A. W. Balch, Jr., Theo. Durant.

QUICKTOWN.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
QUICKTOWN, Aug. 26.—Matamoros has evidently come to the front with a new and wide-awake correspondent. We hope that he or she will continue. "I Cicles" was good but his stay was very short. But probably he is after the 16 to 1.

Early Autumn has been coming on with some force, but a little rain would not go bad just at present.

It was a sad accident that occurred to the young man from New York in the Delaware near J. M. Aldrick's on the 24th inst.

The M. E. Sunday school held their annual picnic in the grove at Mr. Aldrick's yesterday. The day was fine and nothing occurred to mar a pleasant time. A very exciting game of base ball was played in the afternoon, in which the young gentlemen were pitted against the married men. The Junior parties did their opponents up "brown." The main feature of the game being the good field playing and rapid base running of Wm. Angle, the assistant superintendent, which, of course, puts his partners in a worse light than ever.

The green cabbage worm is very troublesome as present.

Such weeds as Mullein, Pennyroyal and ragweed are very troublesome to farmers this year.

J. M. Aldrick is getting his silo ready to be filled with fodder corn.

At the picnic yesterday, one of the Milford lads killed a blacksnake six feet long, more or less.

J. M. Cumming is improving his farm by rebuilding the day.

Her. Dr. Wm. E. Palmer has been over from South Orange for a few days.

Walter Hurst has traded his mules for a team of horses. F.

GREELEY.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
GREELEY, Aug. 25.—We are having fine weather at present, rather cool nights. Although they are very acceptable after such warm weather.

The city boarders are getting rather scarce here now. Eighteen left the Sylvania House last Sunday leaving none but one there. It makes a very short season in this place hardly paying to open this year.

E. F. Bagshaw from Ward's Island, N. Y., is spending his two weeks' vacation at the home of Geo. Hartwell and family.

Mrs. Henry D. Clark spent last week in Honesdale, returning on Friday.

W. V. Burchers' team is hauling lumber to Glen Eyre for Charles Chlester.

Mr. Burcher has his mill dam completed is doing some sawing and planing this week.

Charles Burcher is on the sick list, although he is gaining under the care of Dr. Howard of Lackawanna.

Miss Sarah Vashinder is attending camp meeting at Ararat Summit, Wayne Co., Pa.

George Felton, of Rowlands, makes weekly trips through this place supplying the people with fancy soft drinks. All right George they are not bad to take especially on some of these hot days.

The Grand Union Tea Company's agent made his monthly call here on Monday of this week. XX

DINGMANS FERRY.
DINGMANS FERRY, AUG. 24, 1896.
EDITOR PRESS.—It is rumored around here that Hon. J. A. Kipp hopes to be placed on the Republican ticket as candidate for treasurer of the county. A canvass among some of the voters resulted in the expression that he would stand a better chance if he became a straight Republican and voted the ticket for a few years.

The same canvass showed that William Angle, Esq. would be very acceptable to the greatest number of voters in the township for Representative.

The caucus for electing delegates to the Republican County Convention will be held at the Town Hall in Dingmans.

The silver excitement is blowing over, not a whisper about it has been heard for days. E. P. V.

"Where Do You Come In?"
(From the New York World.)
Simplicity and common sense were the sources of power in Mr. Bourke Cockran's speech of Tuesday night, Aug. 18. It owed nothing of its effectiveness to rhetoric and not much to laborer logic. Mr. Cockran simply stated truths so obvious as to need no demonstration, and illustrated them in a homely fashion which impressed them strongly upon the least instructed minds.

There was hardly a point made which ought not to have occurred to every ordinary intelligence, and not one which was not perfectly apparent when the orator had done with it.

The silverites propose to "raise prices" by reducing the value and purchasing power of the dollar. Mr. Cockran asks working men, wages-earners, salaried clerks, teachers and the like the homely question, "Where do you come in?" in a programme of this character.

If all prices are raised in equal proportion—those of labor as well as those of commodities—nobody is benefited because nobody's status is changed. But if the prices of commodities are raised while the wages of labor remain stationary, or nearly so, the wage-earner of every class is robbed to enrich the farmer and the manufacturer.

The Government cannot create wealth. No act of Government can increase by one penny's worth the aggregate of property in existence. If, therefore, any act of Government enriches any man it must do so by robbing some other man. When free coinage is proposed as a means of raising the price of commodities it is proposed to take from the wage-earners of the country a certain part of their earnings and give it to another class. That is the simple, obvious fact, and Mr. Cockran makes a powerful appeal when he asks the wage and salary earning people of New York what they think of the proposal.

This is the marrow of the whole matter. The proposal of free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1, without the concurrence of other nations, is a proposal to rob every wage-earner, every salaried person, every pensioner, every savings bank depositor or other small investor, of one-half his income, and to give the proceeds of the robbery to a favored class in return for votes.

This is an assertion, but it is simply, obvious truth.

There are the added elements of national dishonor and certain financial collapse, with all the prostrating consequences of panic, but the simple fact that free coinage must rob all the wage-earners in the country to enable the farmers to cheat their mortgage creditors ought to be enough to condemn the cause to utter and irretrievable defeat.

Prices and Wages in Mexico.
(From the New York World.)
Ex-Governor St. John in his speech Monday night, Aug. 17, when asked if commodities in Mexico did not cost twice as much as the same articles in the United States, emphatically denied such to be the case and declared Mexico to be one of the most prosperous nations on the face of the earth. Mr. St. John makes that assertion in the face of the figures in the following table, compiled from bona fide advertisements in the newspapers of each country. Let us see what ground he has for denying that the prices of commodities in Mexico are almost twice as much as in the United States and that wages are from two to five times less than wages in the United States:

	In Mexican Dollars.	In American Dollars.
Coffee, per pound	$0.60	$0.25
Butter, average, per lb.	0.60	0.17
Ham and bacon, per lb.	0.26	0.12 to 0.14
Lard, per pound	1.24	0.06
Bread, per pound	0.13	0.03
Rolls, per dozen	0.24	0.06
Milk, per quart	0.13	0.05
Kerosene, per gallon	0.48	0.12
Beef and mutton, per lb.	0.18	0.10
Soup meat, per lb.	0.10 to 0.12	0.04
Unbleached muslin, per yard	0.15	0.07
Cheapest galico, per yard	0.13	0.09
Wages
Pay for housemaid per month	$4.00	$14.00
Average pay for laborer, per month	8.00	40.00
Street car driver, per day	0.75	2.00 to 2.50
Street car conductor, per day	1.00	2.00 to 2.50
Mechanics, per day	0.75	2.00 to 2.50

Mexico has had free coinage of silver for many years, while the United States has had a gold standard. Mexico's bonds sell for 25 cents on the dollar in gold, the bonds of the United States for 113. If Mexico is as prosperous as Mr. St. John says, why is it her bonds are worth less than one-fourth as much as those of the United States? Why is it that wages are so low and the price of all the necessities of life so high? Do working men think, in the light of this table, that it would be a good thing for the United States to be put on a free silver basis and brought to a par with Mexico?
