Fusion In Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 98 .- Major P. P. Johnston, chairman of the silver Demo of this city, has been filed in the Middle-eax probate court here. To the town of Hardwich he presents his library and $10,-000, to be invested and maintained purpet-ually as a fund, the income of which shall be applied to the purchase, binding, re-pair and suitable care of maps, charts and manuscripts and shall be known as the Paige library. To Tuft's college be be-questia $2,000 to found a Paige scholar-ship. Johnston, chairman of the silver Demo-oratic state control committee, and Joe A. Parker, chairman of the Populist state ex-ecutive committee, met and signed an agreement whereby fusion on presidential electors is to be effected, the Populists withdrawing their sicket in return for two places on the Democratic sicket. The Democratic candidates for congress will be supported by the Populists wherever such an arrangement can be made, the object as expressed in the agreement be-ing to secure the election of W. J. Ergan for president and a congress in harmony with his views on the financial question. Who is the kapp who values the merits of others, and in their pleasure takes joys, even as though it were his own.
