LAYTON.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)

LAYTON, Sept. 21.—It seems a pity that some one does not put in machinery to make cider, chop and evaporate windfall, and cull apples; or make into jelly, or otherwise utilize the immense quantity of apples that are going to waste in this valley. There is room for such an establishment here, that as the many young orchards come into bearing could be extended, and be made a great aid to fruit growers. It would also result profitably for him who is fortunate enough to start this enterprise in time.

Mr. Schenk Merrill is gaining quite a reputation on account of being the happy father of a 2½ pound baby. It is physically perfect, and I hear that the attending physician, Dr. J. N. Miller, advises the use of an incubator as an aid in maintaining a regular temperature, and conditions more favorable to the growth of so diminutive a morsel of humanity.

J. Wilbur Johnson, of Hainesville, while feeding buckwheat to a thrasher had his hand drawn in so as to be struck by the spikes on the cylinder. It caught and tore through, back of, and between the knuckles, so that several stitches had to be taken to close it. The wound is aching, burning and tender, and will no doubt be very painful. It is hoped no operation will be necessary, and that he will soon be enabled to go about his usual avocations.

A newspaper correspondent is sometimes in as much peril as a soldier planting the colors under fire. They are generally equally brave in doing their duty, and giving the news as they find it. If some people who take every stricture to themselves would correct their own short comings, they would not find so many short comings lying around loose that they could fit themselves with.

If the PIKE COUNTY PRESS was so popular in every hamlet as it is at Layton, its subscription list would soon run up into the millions. Any one who can lay it down around here for a few minutes, and find it there when he gets back, is particularly fortunate. I was much amused a few evenings ago to see a gentleman pick one up from a hotel reading room table, and engage his audience in an animated discussion, while he quietly rolled up his hosts PIKE COUNTY PRESS, and stily slipped

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, of New York city have been visiting Father Trios of Matamoras.

A 100 lb. bell will soon be hung in the belfry of the St. Joseph's Catholic church in our town.

There was something very sad in the death of Mrs. Lillian Daverny Custor, which occurred last Tuesday Sept. 18th. She was a young lady only 18, and had been married less than a year. Her husband, Mr. Wheeler H. Daverny, a brother of the late Mrs. M. L. Daverny, of Middletown and sister Minnie L. wife of Cyrus Bowman of this village. The funeral services held Sunday were largely attended.

LA ANNA.
(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
LA ANNA, Sept. 25.—The Young American Base Ball Club, of La Anna went to Gouldsboro last Saturday to cross bats with a club from Daleville, with the understanding that the losing club was to pay for the dinner of both. They arrived in Gouldsboro about twelve o'clock, ate their dinner and then proceeded to the base ball ground, where they waited until four o'clock before the Daleville club arrived.

The game was to have been called at three o'clock but was delayed as it was extremely difficult for the delay to be made, coming as they did from the four cardinal points of the compass including the surrounding country from Tobyhanna to Scranton and not more than three coming from one place.

The score by innings are as follows:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Daleville..... 2 1 0 0 0 0 6 4-13
Y. A. C..... 4 0 0 1 2 3 4-13

At the close of the first inning the Daleville Club "kicked" on a decision of the umpire and refused to finish the game.

Undoubtedly the umpire was correct but as the Daleville Club had employed a professional battery for the purpose of "shutting" out the Y. A. C., as they admitted after the game" and were dissatisfied with the result of the game thus far, their only hope of fulfilling their plans was to begin the game anew. Consequently they used the point in dispute as an excuse.

The Young American boys' being gentlemen" and not wishing to return without a game, gave the point and the game was recommenced.

At the close of the seventh inning the Daleville Club having one score ahead, "they" umpire called the game because of darkness but the captain and umpire of the Y. A. C. refused to accept the decision and demanded that the game be continued but their opponents considering "discretion the better part of valor" stood "not upon the order of their going" but went at once.

We understand there are to be other games arranged in the near future. M.

That chap who put that net weir in the river should have kept it to himself and not admitted it. It might be cheaper in the end.

Four years ago this town was wild over Grover Cleveland, he had lots of admirers, but how many has he here to-day? Bond issues and dodging the Cuban question has caused him to seriously fall in the estimation of Democrats.
