Correspondence.

Correspondents are particularly requested to send in all news intended for publication not later than Wednesday in each week to insure insertion.

LAYTON.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) LAYTON, Oct. 6.—The yield of eggs is rapidly falling off. The moulting season is here, and extra care is needed to keep up egg production. Pheasants gradually moulting up on eggs, as it is on wheat. The many little points in the welfare of the hen will need careful looking after now, and good nursing of the flock will have its ample reward.

News just comes to us of the death of Matamoras of Mrs. Hannah Clark, wife of Wm. Clark, Jr., formerly of this place. Mrs. Clark is a daughter of James Martin, and a sister of Mrs. James Rose. Mrs. Martin was a daughter of Mr. Robert Stoll of Peter's Valley and the deceased is therefore widely related hereabouts.

The surprise party at the Hainesville parsonage on last Thursday evening met with the benediction of opposition apparently "died a hero." The parties surprised were principally those who received a gentle hint that one of the "dollars of the daddies" were expected from each participant. It will come easier perhaps when those 63 cent dollars get around.

The Democratic candidates in Spicess are the cream of perfection according to their party organs. They say more nice things about them than usually fall to the lot of the average man in his obituary notice. There is a great reformation in store for our wicked Legislature if the good "Deacon" Sizer should get there. Surely "the prayers of the righteous availeth much."

It is such a pleasing feature of the regular church services, to have good church music, that it is a wonder that all our churches do not give the subject more attention, as they do here at Layton. It is seldom that a congregation can command such thorough musical talent as they have here. The presiding spirit at the organ is an elegant musician and an incomparable vocalist. Add to this that her devotion to her profession precludes any mention of a salary card, and you have a condition that is the envy of most other congregations. The supporting voices in the choir have been well cultivated, and their education in the higher branches is being rapidly perfected under the care of the gifted organist. The pastor and his gifted wife though good musicians are not in it with our superb choir, and occasionally have to race it to get out on time still they are improving.

LEDGEDALE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) LEDGEDALE, Oct. 5.—F. H. Simons and sister were visitors in Paupac Sunday afternoon.

J. H. Becker and wife were visiting A. L. Finley in Arlington on Sunday. A party of young people from Paupac were entertained at Ira Kollmans Saturday evening Oct. 3rd. The party was given in honor of Miss Gumble and Miss Kipp who will leave Paupac this week. Among those present were Misses Corn Annibani and Clara Kimble, Ruth Gumble, Gertrude Pellett, Edith Kipp, Messrs B. Koteyer, Fred Lewis and Amos Gumble, of Paupac. Misses Ella Simons and Mabel Becker and Charles Kollman of this place.

Mr. B. K. Nye and Mrs. Cora Kimble of Paupac were visitors at Friend Simons and Ira Kollmans on Sunday.

Mr. H. Kipp we understand will move to Wilsonville this fall. WAYNE CO.

PARKERSGLEN.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) PARKERSGLEN, Oct. 6.—Mr. Hallock for several years on Hillside most highly esteemed residents, died at his home, Friday p. m. His death will be universally regretted by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was held Sunday p. m.

Holy Mass was held in the Mt. Calvary Chapel Sunday. Father Teis officiated.

Mrs. W. A. Gordon and her son, Ross of Cleveland, Ohio returned home Saturday after a ten weeks visit at her uncles, Rev. P. E. Decker.

Wild game is bringing large prices in the markets in New York. Now Brink, Mackley and Whalen got those new guns into use.

Mrs. J. A. Ails, of Montclair, N. J., spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. A. Brink.

Chestnuts are beginning to fall and are bringing large prices.

Mr. C. Cruise has opened a new barber shop. It is a fine thing for every one that wants a good shave, he does his work perfectly. Please call on the corner of Brink's grocery store.

F. G. Smith and wife of Rowland spent Friday with his brother W. R. Smith.

J. F. Kilgour was in town Thursday and Friday.

A. Brink and G. Wands made flying business trips to Port Jervis last week.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mrs. Lydia Moffat to Mr. Geo. Morris of Port Jervis on Wednesday Oct. 7th at the residence of her father, Rev. P. E. Decker.

Mr. Baldwin of the firm of Baldwin & Emerson, of Boston, Mass., spent Friday in town on business.

Mr. G. S. Parry spent Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. A. E. Comstock, of Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Van Hancock were in town on Monday visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith. JOHN.

PAUPAC.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) PAUPAC, Oct. 5.—Our festival last Thursday evening held at the Kimble House was well attended. The dining room was tastefully decorated with evergreens and Chinese lanterns for light. It was for the benefit of the Rev. J. G. Raymond and twenty dollars was added to his purse.

Mr. Sawyer visited our schools last week. He came just in time to enjoy our festival.

Paupac usually the healthiest place out, has had quite the reverse this summer, nearly every family has been afflicted more or less. A number have had sore throats, more have had scarlet rash, some called it German measles.

We regret that the Misses Kipp are about to move to Wilsonville where their store is. Mr. and Mrs. Kipp will remain here for some time.

Mrs. Maria Killam, of Kimble's Station, has come to stay with Mrs. Killam while her daughter is away.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ginnis, of Logansport, Ind., who were visiting her sister, Mrs. G. N. Killam, went to Wilkesbarre last week expecting to start home on Monday.

Miss C. Lon Hardenbergh, Gordon Pellett and sister, Edith and Mr. H. C. Anness, were the guests of C. A. Pellett last week. This week on Monday after the rest had gone away, Gordon and Pellett went fishing. They came home with a basket full of pickers.

MONTAGUE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) MONTAGUE, Oct. 5th.—The people of Montague feel very indignant and with proper cause against the action of your over-redundant fish warden, Dr. Prof., or Hon., Moss Van Gordon in arresting W. Brewster a resident of this town for the illegal construction of an eel weir in the Delaware. Strange! The weir in question had been removed by Brewster nearly two weeks before his arrest. Strange again other eel weirs of the owners are not disturbed and why? If some Pike county resident should get arrested over here for some violation of the fish and game law just put the blame on your fish warden. Turn about is fair play and fair exchange is no robbery.

A young man of this town made a bargain with a young lady to have her meet him in Port Jervis on a certain evening for the purpose of being spoiled. The young man prepared himself, new suit, new hat, kid gloves went to Port Jervis made inquires for the lady. She appeared dressed in a calico dress and informed she guessed she wouldn't because "Ma" might be mad. So long.

Geo. Westbrook, formerly of Montague, but now a resident of Jersey City made some of his friends here a short visit last week.

South Bethlehem Democrats are not altogether pleased with the result of Thursday's meeting of the Congressional conference. They say the county leaders have made another bad mess that will result disastrously.

The peremptory and haughty wording of the resolution of the Northampton Carbon conference, that all Democrats "are expected and are hereby instructed to support" the Democratic nominees for President, Vice-President, and L. H. Barber for Congress, was roundly criticised. Many of the South Bethlehem Democrats believe Congressman Hart entitled to a second term and say the opposition of Mr. Mutchler and the leaders is purely personal.

In previous years the people instructed their conferees, but this time the conferees propose to instruct the voters to support their wishes.—Bethlehem Times.

What Are You Going to do About IT?

MR. EDITOR:—I note in the Revised Statutes of New Jersey, page 631, section 1, the following language: "No man shall marry his wife's daughter." Does anything? Then again on page 334, section 29, occurs this language: "All persons who shall intermarry within the degrees prohibited by law, or being related within such degrees, shall together commit fornication or adultery, shall be adjudged to be guilty of incest and a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court before whom such conviction shall be had." Does this mean anything? Does it not mean that whereas the Bible sees sin in such intermarriage, man in his wisdom has also concluded that it is detrimental, and has therefore made it a violation of the organic law, and incorporated it in their statutes in plain terms, accompanied by such penalties as violations of the law seemed to demand. When this law is openly violated by parties who move in so called good society, as it is right here in Sandyston; where are you going to place people in the moral scale who wink at it, or even go so far as to openly defend it? That such a condition of things should continue to exist in this community, for two long years, practically without protest, seems almost incredible. Has the moral sense of this community already become so blunted that they do not observe that such criminal immorality is a menace to purity in social life, and threatens the disruption of all that is pure and desirable in the marriage relation? Surely it is as direct a stab at the conventional rules of good society, as it is a direct violation of statute law. Its whole influence is demoralizing in the extreme, and one is led to wonder how long our people will continue willingly to contribute in this manner to their own moral degradation. If an outraged community moves only to find the usual avenues of justice blocked by improper influences, as the only attempt in this case has been, how long think you that method can prevail? Not for long let me assure you. It is a method that only those use who fear justice, and is just as sure to recoil upon its authors, as the setting is to follow the rising of the sun. ...

Dr. Shall Did Not See Mutchler.

The Press correspondent at Easton telegraphed last night that Dr. Shall, of Stroudsburg, was in Easton Wednesday and had offered Monroe's vote to Howard Mutchler if the latter would be a Congressional candidate, and that Mutchler said "no."

A telephone message from Stroudsburg to-day to the Free Press gives an interview with Dr. Shall, in which he denies being in Easton Wednesday, and denies offering the Monroe vote to Mutchler. He says further that he told Mutchler two years ago at Milford that Monroe would never vote for a Northampton Democratic candidate until Monroe had a term in Congress.

The Press dispatch was a condensation of Free Press articles on the subject. It seems that Dr. Shall was not here on Wednesday. He was here on Tuesday, but did not see Mr. Mutchler. He saw some of Mutchler's friends and said he had withdrawn. Last week Monroe representatives were here and tendered to friends of Mr. Mutchler the support of the Monroe men if he desired it.—Easton Free Press.
