CORRESPONDENCE

Correspondents are particularly requested to send in all news intended for publication not later than Wednesday in each week to insure insertion.

QUICKTOWN.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
QUICKTOWN, Dec. 4.—One of our progressive farmers killed a spring pig that when dressed tipped the scales at 300 pounds, but I suppose that some of brother "Bick's" people have killed them dressing 300 or more.
Judging by the weather, Jack Frost is out for a trip toward the lower regions, as the ground is entirely bare of snow.
Jake Westbrook, B. Hurst and W. Hurst have all lately lost a horse. Lucky for them that horses are cheap.

Considerable deer hunting has been going on but deer have been scarce.

The experiment station at State College Centre County, offers for registering students in this course or for any assistance or instruction. This course is open to all, and may be begun at any time. Any part of a course may be taken and pursued as rapidly as the student desires. Do not hesitate to get a circular and look it over. It is a chance that our fathers did not have. Brains must be used in farming at the present day. Farmers should also make more use of the experiment stations, by writing them of difficulties of the farm etc. At State College they furnish every their own postage, and are very prompt and polite. Their prime object certainly was for the farmers benefit. Be sure to also have them put your name on their mailing list, for their bulletins and reports as issued.

Alva Fife has returned to his home in Brooklyn, James Cummins Jr., whom he has been visiting went down with him for the winter.
C. Bull and H. Aldrich are in the de-horning business again this winter.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
DINGMAN'S FERRY, Dec. 7.—There will be a social at John Shepherd's, on Friday evening, December 15th, for the benefit of the stewards' fund. The young people and all others are cordially invited. Don't forget the date December 15th on Friday evening of next week.

The Farmers' Institute was held in the M. E. Church on Monday last and was well attended, a large company being present at the evening session. The addresses of Messrs. McCormick and Woodward were very able and highly instructive. These sessions of the Institute will be productive of great good to all who attend them. Those gentlemen are well qualified for the work.

There will be a donation for the Rev. S. Morris at Henry Albright's, on December 16th if not stormy, if it is, the donation will be the next fair night. There will be accommodation for horses at his place and his brother's next door. Come one, come all and have a good time and help in a good cause.

GREENTOWN.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
GREENTOWN, Dec. 8.—The fair and supper given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Hopedale Moravian church in Wahi's Hall on Thanksgiving day and evening was a success the proceeds were $55.00.

Baxter Kipp lost a valuable team horse on Sunday Nov. 29. Also on Saturday while Mr. Kipp was on his way home from Hawley he lost his pass book together with a check of $75.00. Fortunately for Mr. Kipp the check was found by an honest man and returned to him.

On Tuesday December 2, 1895 the rite of Holy Matrimony was celebrated between L. O. Smith of South Sterling and Miss Annie youngest daughter of Jacob Sanders of Greene township.

Lewis H. Miller our Greentown butcher is kept very busy killing porkers. I tell you Lewis is a hustler.

The Hemlock Grove Sunday school is preparing for an entertainment and Christmas tree. On Sunday the following committee was appointed: on music Miss Susie Gilpin and Miss Ruth Hoppe, on pieces, Violet Lacey, Howard Gilpin, Miss

ADLER AND MISS ANGELINE BURROUGHS.

Finance Miss Hannah Gilpin, Miss Florence Banks, Miss Viola Bartlow and Robert H. Bortree.

On Saturday Nov. 18, while Mr. Emilie Vutlle was engaged in taking down the old Township bridge near Fred Kreigers he fell through the bridge and disabled himself so badly that he is still unable to be around. Mr. Vutlle is a member of Wallenpaupok Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Two young ladies at Hemlock Hollow Wayne county were skating on Saturday Dec. 5, the ice being unsafe gave way with them, and two young men went to rescue them and they were drowned, did not learn their names. This should be a warning to the young people to keep off the ice until it is frozen sufficiently to be safe. Two of them were members of one family.

SIMONSTOWN.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
SIMONSTOWN, Dec. 7.—Albert Simons is drawing bark to Lake Ariel.
Mrs. John Hanson of Shokan, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Thomas Simons. Miss Minnie Simons of Lake Ariel will spend the winter with Mrs. Wilmer Happy at the stone house.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simons expect to visit their daughter in Pleasant Mount this week.
Peter Metzger visited his daughter Mrs. Mike Hopkins at Arlington on Sunday. Mark Gilpin and family visited friends in this place Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Simons is spending a few days with Mrs. Kellam in Ledgedale.

LEDGEDALE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
LEDGEDALE, Dec. 8.—Miss Mable Walker is visiting friends in Scranton.
Miss Mattie Becker has gone to Port Allegany to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Joe Cook, who has very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kellam of Paupae were guests of I. K. Kellam and family on Sunday.

Thomas Crossley, of Honesdale drove to Ledgedale last Friday on a business trip.
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hazelton are living together again after a weeks separation, and one would think to see them that they were very happy. WAYNE CO.

MATAMORAS.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
MATAMORAS, Dec. 10.—A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Miss Eva Chase Saturday, Dec. 6, 1905. The young lady was away from home, when the party arrived but she soon appeared, and with a nice supper and games the evening was very quickly and pleasantly spent.

The Royal Templars of Temperance served a New England Supper yesterday. The Ladies' Aid Society of Hope Church will hold a fifteen cent tea Dec. 17 from 5 to 7 at the residence of Mrs. Victor Etnis. All are cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Lumber is being drawn for a new house which Mrs. Virgil will build.
Mrs. Theodore Fletcher is threatened with an attack of pneumonia, but we hope for her speedy recovery to health.

The Hope Church raised $18 Sunday for a Christmas entertainment.
Mrs. Van Horn is quite sick at her home. The weather is chilly to-day. FLOSSY.

MONTAGUE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
MONTAGUE, Dec. 7.—After a freeze, a thaw.
Pickered fishing was indulged in some last week. William Johnson, of Hainesville, captured 30 pounds Friday. Sol Van Akin and Walter Marvin, of Matamoras, fished Saturday but I did not see their catch.

Our town committee has let out the contract for the erection of sign posts and boards. Fred Kerr gets 39 cents per post, and William Owens, 49 cents per board.
There will be preaching by the Rev. Mr. Whitaker, of Bushkill, in the Hainesville Church next Sabbath morning at 10.30 o'clock, in the Montague (Brick House) school house in the evening at 7.30.

Sam Smith has finished husking corn. Don't forget the shoot at the Brick House Friday, Dec. 11th.
Mrs. Geo. Wainwright is reported considerably better.

Ed. Cooper's hand is getting along first rate.
John Westbrook, known to almost every one in this county, is in charge of the blacksmith shop at Hainesville. John is a good workman, and no doubt will have lots of custom.

John Hill is visiting friends at Millbrook.
The tax rate in this township per thousand is $14.
Invitations are out for a party this evening, the mate to the one of several weeks ago 16 to 1.

Boys don't let your angry passions rise, especially on the Lord's Day, because First: It does not sound nice. Second: Offensive language is not allowed on Sabbath, unless it is for the purpose of rebuking or for that matter any day. Third:

GREELY.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.)
GREELY, Dec. 8.—J. L. Burcher spent a couple of days with his brother, W. V. Burcher, of this place, last week.
Mrs. Adam Uhl went to the city this week to spend some days.

Measles have broken out in our little town. Miss Louise White being the first victim. Rather a bad time of the year as cold weather is approaching. We hope the disease will not spread as there are a great many little ones to come down with it.

Mrs. George Hartwell returned to her home on Monday from Port Jervis where she had been attending the funeral of her father.
Johnnie Van Aken, Charlie Stinehart, Miss Nettie Shannon and Miss Conlin spent Monday evening at the home of George Hartwell's, at Burcher's Glen.
