Messrs Horzog the artist and Theodore Wernwag both of Philadelphia are spending a week at Conashaugh.

Miss Lizzie Shimer, of this place, entertained a sleigh load of young people from Dingmans at her home last Saturday night and an enjoyable time was spent.

Mrs. Kate Davis has moved to Port Jervis, and William M. Travis will occupy the building on Broad street vacated by her, as a store. The PRESS wishes Mr. Travis success in 75; his venture.

Prof. Geo. Sawyer, County Superintendent, kindly remembered the PRESS with the Report of the Superintendent of Fublic Instruction for 1896, Later we will take occasion to give a resume of some of the facts and statistics contained in it.

Miss Lillie Van Tassel gave her friends a sleigh-ride to Dingmans last Tuesday. On arriving there
