KIMBLES.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Kimbles, March 29.—Miss Calkins of Ates, Wayne county, is assisting his son getting in logs. Milton Robson, of Notch, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Briggs. John K. Youman is very ill with rheumatism.

Friday last when Asher Kirkendal was drawing a load of straw to Hawley, when near Tinton the wind blew so hard it lifted the straw off the wagon and in jumping to save himself Mr. Kirkendal sprained and broke his ankle very badly.

Mrs. Hanners of Baeba called on her sister Mrs. Kirkendal last Friday. B. W. Kelly and wife recently visited Mrs. Loney her sister at Ates who was very ill with pleurisy.

Philip Elwanger of Glen Eyre has rented his place to Charles Chitester and he has rented the house and lot of Willam V. Steinmans of Baeba.

DINGMAN'S FERRY.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Dingman's Ferry March 23.—Mrs. D. O. Brodhead is very ill at present with pneumonia. Dr. P. F. Fulmer attends her. Webb Howay has gone to Harmony, N. J., to work for his uncle, Charles Howay.

Rev. Fletcher Gariss preached an excellent sermon at Center. After the service he read a report of what this district has done during the past year for the support of the Gospel. It gave $23.42 for the support of the Sunday school and $14.35 for the ministers salary a total of $37.77 which is very good for a small community like this.

Dignator, I appreciate your able support and extend the hand of welcome. Way the directors persist in turning a deaf ear to the voice of the people and entrusting of the children is inexcusable. It cannot be they do not care because they have no children of their own to sit on those torture shelves, there is one who sends his children to Center where some of the directors have commended there shall be no such extravagant waste of money, and he is the director who made the motion for new desks, and I say with you all honor to that man.

This is the electric age, and almost everything now is done with the aid of that wonderful force which no one understands. Did you ever hear of any one drinking coffee roasted by the untamed electric fluid? There is a man living near here who claims to have done so. Peter Wagener of Bushkill had a rye steak streak by lightning, and the man who tells the story says he took some of the rye home with him and it made the best coffee he ever drank.

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.)

Dingman's Ferry, March 30.—Hon. E. Hornbeck's family starts for Philadelphia today.

J. B. Westbrook, Esq., has moved in the McCarty house, and rented his own to Dr. W. B. Kenworthy.

Mr. Floyd Berwin will move into his own home on Thursday of this week.

The family of Jacob Vandermack, of Long Meadow, has been greatly afflicted this winter. Mr. Vandermack has just begun to recover from a severe attack of the mumps, and on Friday last one of his little sons broke one of his arms badly between the shoulder and elbow.

Hollinson Shepherd's family, of Silver Lake, has been very sick during the past few weeks; but are now with the exception of one son, recovering, we hear. Mrs. Shepherd, also has been under a physician's hands.

One of the best social gatherings since that at the hospitable home of Pierre M. Nils, at Silver Lake, some weeks since, took place at Harry Wilson's, in Lehman, last Friday night. Everything passed off in a pleasant manner and all present highly enjoyed the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Brisco did all they could to enhance the pleasures of the guests, and they most eminently succeeded.

William F. Sinsley of Delaware township has completed a device or invention for holding a bicycle in position, when not in use. It consists of a slotted bracket, fastened to the wall of a room for storing wheels, and the over-hanging arm of the bracket contains an automatic, self-locking clutch which grips the rim of the wheel at the top while at the same time two spirals, half-way down the bracket clamp the rim of the wheel horizontally with the hub. The bracket works in a slot which allows the arm to accommodate itself to the size of the wheel. He has forwarded the model and a detailed drawing of the same to proper authorities.

Reeder Morgan is to move on the Wilson property near Dingmans and Aaron R. Jagger will move into the village.

Baling of railroad cross ties, of which a large number has been received this winter has occupied the attention of our village merchants the past week, and several rafts have been forwarded to market. KINO.

GREELEY.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Greeley March 31—It begins to look like spring.

Two lots of household goods went by here today by the way of Horlands, and by the looks of the teams they were very lucky if they got as far as Henry Dewitt, they had driven from the knob in Blooming Grove and the roads are in a horrid condition. The goods belong to Edward Stauffer and he will move to the store house on the canal at the Jud Shannon place near Lackawaxen. We wish him success in his new undertaking as he has always followed farming for a living.

C. M. Burcher with the assistance of Gilbert Rosenance will erect a new house for Mr. Joseph Andregg on his farm known as the Grove place on the Shohola road. They will commence it this week. We think there must be some attraction for Harry at Greeley especially when the night party carries the mail.

Da. H. Rosenance has been having a large lumber built this spring. He is in it as well as the rest, going to raise poultry to accommodate the boarders through out the town.

Gilbert Rosenance has purchased a fine three year old colt and will break it to do his own riding. He has it so at present that he can ride it very nicely. It looks now as if March will go out as it came in mild as a lamb.

MONTAGUE.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Montague, March 28.—Marchy weather, but the mud is drying up.

"Dignator" in last week's Press gives us the impression that the School Directors over there are no good. If you wish to see good school buildings well furnished come over to Montague we have them. Thanks to the people who always vote for any amount the Board of Education ask for.

Mrs. Luella McCoy of Ducherstown is calling on her aunt, Miss Eleonora Cole. Dan Proffimer has men busy rafting Andrew Vectors R. R. ties. Dan finds it hard work to find stevedores.

Alex. Brink and "Red" Balala of Matamoras and John Fields of Port Jervis are erecting a new wagon house for Mrs. Julia Kerr.

School meeting Saturday April 3 at 9 o'clock in school house No. 4. Miss Susanna Wheat lost her cow last week.

Several of our young folks attended a dance at Calhoun's last Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Whitaker, of Bushkill, Pa., preached in the Brick school house this morning.

The sale of the personal property of Mrs. Ellen Westbrook was well attended and good prices realized.

Jacob McCarty has a new horse. Miss Maggie Westbrook is visiting friends in Port Jervis.

Jos. Shiner has an educated rooster. Jas. O'Grady steered the first raft down the river this spring. DICK.

LAYTON.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Layton, March 30.—Rev. C. H. Von Glahn is currently reported will come back on this charge for the coming year.

This is pleasant news for the people here as Mr. Von Glahn has won the esteem of all by his marked ability as a pastor and a showing of talent much above the average we have been favored with heretofore.

The road machine under the management of Ben. Rosenkrans will begin to deliver goods in the center of the road this week. We earnestly hope Ben will get far enough into the banks to get some Pennsylvania gravel and no stone in it. If he falls any short of this there is going to be lots of fault found. Susie.

Mrs. Sarah Cole wife of Benj. Cole of Walpack expired on the 23rd aged about 72 years. Mrs. Cole had two ribs broken by a fall in the early winter, and had not fully recovered, when attacked by inflammation of the stomach. Owing to her advanced age, and enfeebled condition she was unable to resist the latter which was the immediate cause of her death. Mrs. Cole was a woman of considerable education and force of character, and devoted a long and useful life entirely to her home and family. She leaves a husband as above noted, and four sons, John, Jacob, Simon and Samuel all resident in Walpack and all married. Interment in the cemetery at Walpack Centre.

Mrs. Abram Ruitan is quite seriously ill and does not at present writing show indications of the improvement that her many friends have hoped for.

Price Brothers of Branchville will hold another sale of fine road and farm horses, and matched teams in the near future. Due notice of which, with full particulars will be given in the advertising columns of this paper.

Esten O. Van Stickle is at home enjoying a full weeks vacation from school at Port Jervis. We notice that while he is progressing slowly in his studies he is also perceptibly improving in physical stature.

Now for a change in Postmasters. Uncle McKinley's administration to be thoroughly Republican should make a clean sweep, and retain no remnants of any description ever in Post offices. Then with full control the people will know who to hold responsible in event of their failure to work out a better condition of things than we have been existing under for a few years past. It successful, it will be equally clear to whom the credit should be accorded. Walpack people have the joke on some one down there by electing a hotel keeper, a Justice of the Peace. In the one place there is lots of money, and in the other lots of honor. Since he can keep either one, but not both, it is dollars to doughnuts that Walpack will soon be short one Justice of the Peace.

There seems to be a feeling abroad that the Town Clerk should not hold the office of overseer of a ward district. I see no good objection to this, as he has no voice in the settling of his own bills. It might be different if he were one of the Committee, although even then the law distinctly gives the Committee the right to collect all road tax in money, and work or direct the working of the roads.

Scene last Act last Lawrent at Everetts Amusement. Crane vs. McManis. Fuller, Justice; sun suit, Crane a minor. Finey drives. End man says "try him again." Stake jokes (the) something fresh. Exit court for refreshments. Play having a great run to full—buses—no excuse me, I mean Hotel.

Teachers are reminded that in New Jersey the law calls for an exhibit of their certificate at least once during their school term to the collector, and their school register every time they solicit an order from the officers of the Board of Education.

Some one says Collector Hankins has a two hended calf. Well that is a lot more heads than Hankins has. But who is Collector Hankins? We thought his front name was Highman. May be it is Hoozer? John. But who is Honest John. Koko says to answer Who! Hoo!

Layton Youngs has accepted the position of clerk in his father's store at Branchville where he will be pleased to meet his many friends from the Flat Brook Valleys.

Lin Ruitan who runs the Hopkins store saw mill is at present confined to the house by an attack of pneumonia.

The Eastern Board Social at Walpack Centre was just as we promised you it would be: filled with fun, and enjoyed by all. Clifton Bovans took first prize for best trimmed hat and John Knight the booby prize for the most comical adornment of headgear. Dominie Shultz should have a special prize, or honorable mention as the champion pickle consumer, and dispenser of fat at the table. He just cut loose like a school boy on a vacation. The good Dominie is "solid" with the young folks in Walpack as well as with their elders.

Mrs. H. E. Montross and Mrs. R. H. Everett are at present on the sick list, and under the medical care of Dr. J. N. Miller. It is hoped the good Doctor, and the nice weather will speedily restore them to their usual health.

Work on the big Fowler boarding house near Lake Normanock has begun. The lumber is at the station in Branchville and Messrs John Thompson and Sons will begin making door and window casings this week, while the other lumber is being carted to the site of the new building. Thus begins a new era in the open up of this beautiful section to city people.

Manning Hotel is buying veal calves and carting them to Branchville. Any one who is too good to market with a veal or two can be relieved of the necessity of making the trip by giving Manning the tip and they will be waited upon at once.

Mrs. Margaret Sulder entertained her friends at a high tea on the 30 last. Mrs. Ellen Shay, Mrs. Lizale Wintermute, Mrs. C. E. McCracken and others were participants in this social function, and enjoyed a generous hospitality. H.

A NEWSY LETTER.

What is Going on in Lively Matamoras—Building Improvements.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Matamoras, March 30.—The Street Commissioner is putting our streets in good form, graveling the River road and also Pennsylvania avenue, and will later give attention to the other streets. A large force of men and teams are now at work, and of course our beautiful Milford road will certainly maintain its national reputation the coming season.

Alex. Brink, our well-known builder, is now driving a fine new horse. Last week he was in Jersey and met some one who wanted to trade and so Alex, who is always very accommodating now has a new roadster.

Mr. John Prescott, our well-known townman, has, we understand, secured the contract to fit up the new S. H. Gariss house on West Main street with its complete water plant and will proceed to put up an "aerometer" with tank, etc. The house is to be built by carpenter William Wilkins, we are informed.

Mrs. Nicholas Gebhardt is making extensive improvements to her property that will open next Thursday, April 1, as the Hotel Gebhardt, by the addition to the barn and a large accommodation, and also adding a large addition to the house, which will make this a very large, commodious hotel. Travelers can be assured of the best accommodation at very reasonable rates. There will also be run in connection with the hotel a restaurant where those who want a fine meal can procure one at any hour. This will make a very handy house for those who have any travel along the Milford road, and we expect a liberal patronage for Mrs. Gebhardt.

The Pike County Press is asking what has become of its representative at Harding. We don't know.

The sad need of a fire department in Matamoras was signally demonstrated when in view of enough men to form several fire companies the newly erected cottage, located on Pennsylvania avenue and owned and occupied by contractor Joseph Beck, was razed to the ground by the devastating element. About 8:30 o'clock a post-train passing Mr. Beck's residence, perceived a small volume of smoke emanating from the roof. He had hardly detected the smoke before a tongue of flame darted out near the chimney. The family, who were seated at breakfast at the time were notified and the alarm was spread among the neighbors, who responded with buckets, but they were far too impotent to battle with the now raging fire. The fire rapidly communicated with the lower story. The wind accentuated the fury of the fire and in a comparatively brief period of time the ruin of Mr. Beck's handsome residence was complete. The misfortune which befalls Mr. Beck is enhanced when it becomes known that the cottage had just been completed and added much to the picturesque and architectural beauty of Matamoras. The roof of the adjoining residence of Mr. George Hill was ignited by flying sparks, but the flames were soon extinguished. A portion of Mr. Beck's furniture in the lower story of the house was saved by the neighbors. The house was insured for $500 with agent Wm. E. McCormick and the furniture was insured for a similar amount with agent J. A. Fisher.

Mr. Jacob Harris is slowly but gradually improving after his serious injury which was an almost miraculous escape from instant death.

Mrs. Thomas Leamon, of Bethel, Sullivan county is here in town visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Leamon. Mrs. Leamon is well remembered as a former resident of this village.

Our athletic club has secured rooms in the Dree building and from general appearances we are led to infer that glove contests seem to be the craze by the number of black eyes to be seen.

Our gentlemanly colored resident, Mr. Clifton Westbrook, has just cut down two trees in his yard. Some of the trees that he planted 40 years ago and another a Balm of Gilead tree. They were large fine trees and it was a noble job.

Friends from Port Jervis, Tri-State and Germantown were in attendance. The society was under the leadership of the right ones, while others did not. Everything passed off nicely. Cake and cream were served and it was a success. The proceeds amounted to $10.25. The society tenders its thanks to their many friends who paid their respects to them on Friday evening. The following standing program was rendered:

Phono solo—Miss Mary Squires, Bethel, Sullivan County.
Duet, mandolin and piano—Misses Nettie Westfall and Nellie Langton.
Vocal solo—M. B. Hargis.
Vocal duet—Misses B. Ketcham and L. Hillman.

Chorus solo—M. L. Langton.
A large number of our citizens are putting ground to the sidewalk in front of their residences—a much needed improvement and one that pedestrians will appreciate.

Wm. French has engaged builder Peter Mager to raise the house on his property formerly owned by Mr. Dennis Langley. Mr. Mager now has the house in proper condition and will proceed to put a cellar under the same.

Excavation for the new building of John Allingham on Pennsylvania avenue is now under way and soon we shall have another fine modern residence in our town. S.

SHOHOLA.

(Special Correspondence to the Press.) Shohola, March 30.—The weather is very fine for the time of year. We seldom see a man wearing a straw hat in March.

William Haas who had his two little girls christened last Saturday night gave the young folks a very fine time. Beautiful games were played there was some excellent singing and the refreshments served were the very best. The house was played by J. Haas and all started visiting the little girls a long and happy life and thanking the host and hostess for their kindness.

George Budge has just received a nice rooster as a present which is known to be the champion of Shohola. He is a fine specimen of the breed.

Kirkpatrick Bros. have just stripped a large block of stone. The last shot was made Saturday night with a charge of twenty cogs of powder and one box of dynamite. It is said that it cleared half an acre of ground. The explosion shook the earth for miles around. This is said to be the largest blast ever fired in the town.

Charles Bridge of Sawkill was in town Saturday last.

George Beisel has just commenced to build a large house for George Wozel.

George Wozel has just returned and returned with a fine mess of suckers. Frogs and peepers were heard to-day for the first this year it is an old saying that they will be frozen three times before warm weather comes.

The fire across the river in New York State today night presented a fine spectacle. We would advise people not to set fire in the woods on Sunday, and to keep people from church lighting it to save their property.
