The "Boss" should not make sport of our telephone for he will soon be applying to see them for a line to Shady Lane, so he can hear Railroad t baby cry. That will tickle him to is finished that he will be sure to want the York State connection, that he will not have to go all the way to Port Jervis, to see the fortune teller. He only had to go to the Auditorium last time to have his fortune Gabriel told, but the secress will soon be back in the city of Port Jervis then with the telephone he can arrange to meet half way. Wouldn't that be handy? Don't be jealous of your neighbors, but go and put up Cortright, a line yourself. Nothing like it.

"Ninnyettl" is in a worry becase some body washed on Sunday. He, she, or lt, does not state whether they washed clothes or washed themselves, so we are unable to say to whom he, she, or it refers. We perhaps suffer under the delusion that most good Christians, "Ninnystil" perhaps in-cluded wash themselves on Sunday, about the same as any other day. But whether they do or not, as cleantiness is rated only a little below Godliness, I should not wonder if it were as meritorious to even wash clothes on Sunday, as it would be to do sparkin in a slaughter house, or meat shop on a Sunday night, and am quite sure it would not result any more allassimitaly to those who participated.
