"Piko" must be more seriously afflicted than we at first supposed. In his famous letter he says that Constable Kelly, who served the guarenteed, 10c. 25c. summons on the witnesses in the Schultz case, had never been paid although his bill had been "legally" attested. As matter of fact, Constable Kelley never served any summons or subpoena in that case, and never had, nor has he now, any bill for services rendered, because he never rendeced any

The head of the department of agri-culture wanted to know whether his department would be justified in pay ing the attorney's fees and costs in the case of the accured agent of the state or whether such fees and expenses should be paid by the agent himself. The attorney general says the question is one of great importance and deserving of the most careful con-sideration. He concludes that the commonwealth should incur no obligations and pay no expense either in the way of counsel feen or costs in such an investigation. He suggests that to do so would be to establish a bad precedent.
