This statement will be submitted to an im-It might not harm the state to portant conference of leaders of the state administration and prominent members of the legislature to be hold the probable action of the governor on the bill appropriating $65,968,96 for the payment of the expenses of the senate committee which investigated the municipal affairs of Philadelphia. This committee has always been upon as the outgrowth of the faction-al trouble in the Republican party, and one of the vetoes of the governor two years ago indicates that he may not approve this bill. A companion measure which has already passed the senate, and is now on a special order of the house, authorises and requires the state treasurer to advance money to the chairman of committees authorized to make investigations by the legislature for the payment of witnesses. It is not believed that the governor will sign political assessments, poll tax and infimidation of voters. Nothing has as yet been done with the civil service bill, which is undergoing some recon-atruction in the special committee ap-pointed to harmonize the differences on these bills. The amendments in-serted in these reform bills are not pleasing to the ultra reform element in the legislature. New sections have been inserted in many of the bills, and the changes in phraseology are such as to radically affect the purpose of

The Insurance Scandal Investigation. Today the joint committee appointed to investigate the $50,000 insurance seandal meets to hear witnesses. Sen-ator Gobin, who offered the resolution creating the committee, was not made chairman, owing to a combination of the five members of the house, which resulted in the organization remaining in control of the house section of the committee. Senator Gobin will now rethe senate all the information decumentary and otherwise, which he possesses regarding the serious charge that 150,000 was demanded by a senate th Strain Brisco, inte of the Borough of senses regarding the serious charge ford, deceased, inving been granted to undersigned, all persons having time or demands against said estate will sent them and these indubed to the abjection which were supposed to be objectionate of said decement will please make which were supposed to be objection-able to the insurance companies. ing a hard road to travel is that insti-gated by Hopresentative Hosack, of Pittsburg, who made serbus allega-mittee on appropriations, says no bills will be reported until the status of the revenue for the next two years is fully determined. He says it would be worse 5.000 than foolish to pass a lot of appropria-tion bills in the face of a bankrupt treasury. Even with the additional revenue that it is proposed to raise there will be a wholesale cutting down

Governor Hastings has been asked by many correspondents throughout the state whether he would leade a proclamation regarding the observance of Memorial Day on May 25. The governor has stated in an interview that he is not expected to insue proclama-tions defining the law. Regarding the observance of Memorial Day he says: "When May 30 fails on Sunday the day preceding it, Saturday, shall be observed as the holiday," It will thus thus be seeen from the quotation of law that next Saturday will be a legal holiday without any proclamation by

The Young Trolley Bill. The Young trolley bill, which has been a brane of contention in the legislature between the steam railroad and the electric railway interests, passed second reading, but whether it will be reached on final passage remains to be seen. Everything possible is being done by the steam railroad companies to defeat this bill.

It is now thought that the amend-ment to the Hamilton road bill pro-viding that it shall not go into effect

An important bill passed the house inst week, and is now in the hands of the governor. It protects employes of the governor. It protects employes of corporations in their right to form, join and belong to labor organizations. An attempt was made in the senate to so amend it as to take from it the power that the labor unions seek, but it

The Gould bill making a uniform poor ystem throughout the state, except ing in counties containing a popula tion of 50,000 or less, was defeated on final passage. The principal objection was that it interfered with those coupties where the practice of farming out their poor is in vogue.
