WASHINGTON LETTER.

President McKinley at Arlington Memorial Day.

Consideration of Tariff Bill by the Senate—The Sugar Schedule—State Department and the Sultan of Turkey—Deaths in the E. S. Capitol.

President McKinley attended the Memorial day ceremonies at Arlington cemetery, where addresses were delivered by Representative Doherty, of Iowa, and Hon. Webster Davis, Assistant Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Tracy L. Jeffords was orator of the day at the Soldiers Home Cemetery, and the address at the special services at the tomb of Gen. John A. Logan was delivered by Mr. J. S. Ward. At Congressional cemetery orations were delivered by Senator Cannon, of Utah, and Hon. J. A. Frear, of Wisconsin, and President Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by Capt. W. O. Probstinger, of the Department of Texas G. A. R. At St. Elizabeth's cemetery Mr. T. J. Patman was the orator. At Oak Hill cemetery the oration was by Representative W. H. King, and at Harmony cemetery by Rev. Geo. W. Lee.

The Senate has made good progress in considering the tariff bill by paragraphs, and the rule adopted by the Republicans to have the steering committee agree each night upon the nature of the paragraphs that are to be voted upon the next day is working like a charm. The committee has been sustained in every vote taken by the solid Republican vote and in every instance has also been supported by some Populists or Democratic votes. The tendency of the steering committee has been to raise the duties above what they were in the amended bill reported to the Senate, and it now looks as though the bill would not differ very widely from the Dingley bill as passed by the House when it becomes a law.

There has been so much Republican objection to the increase of the tax on beer and to the proposed duty on tea that both may be struck out of the tariff bill and the revenue that they would have realized be provided for in some other way, probably by a tax on bank checks, deeds, mortgages and other conveyances, but this has not yet been fully determined upon; it is only being discussed.

Senator Aldrich, speaking for the sub-committee that prepared the amendments to the Dingley bill, including the sugar schedule, in reply to Senator Tillman's sensational insinuation, made the most positive denial that the sub-committee was influenced by the sugar trust or its agents, and stated that only one man outside of the three members of the sub-committee (himself and Senators Allison and Platt of Conn.) knew what the contents of the sugar schedule were before the bill was reported to the Senate. That man was Senator Jones, of Nevada, who is a member of the Finance Committee, having been originally put on the committee as a Republican and left on as a Populist, after his announcement that he had become a member of that party. Senator Aldrich also stated that the sub-committee would welcome the most searching investigation of the manner in which the sugar schedule was prepared. The Senate will decide, probably this week, whether the Tillman resolution, directing an investigation by a special committee of five Senators, shall be adopted. It is probable that it will be, although nothing was accomplished by the other sugar investigation by the Senate three years ago, and the head of the sugar trust walked out of court last week on a verdict of "not guilty" when he was tried for contempt in refusing to answer questions asked by members of the Senate Committee.

Senator Morgan made an exhibition of himself, and was compelled to take his seat by Senator Gallinger, who was presiding over the Senate at the time. Mr. Morgan has a bad case of Reed on his brain. He violated one of the rules of the Senate by specifically referring to the other branch of Congress and its failure to act as Mr. Morgan thinks it ought to act upon legislation that has been acted upon by the Senate.

It is denied at the State Department that the Sultan of Turkey has refused to receive Hon. James B. Angell, formerly President of the University of Michigan, as U. S. minister. The stories to that effect probably originated with those who are interested in having that very thing occur and who have been trying to fill the Turkish minister's mind with distrust of Mr. Angell, in order to bring it about. It is stated that Dr. Angell has engaged passage on a steamer which sails from New York June 11th and expects to start for Constantinople on that day.

Representative Lewis, James Hamilton Lewis writes it, of the State of Washington, the man who had the temerity to attempt to help Jerry Simpson get periodically tumbled over by Speaker Reed, is about as near to being the "talking machine" he is called as any man who ever sat in either branch of Congress. Three hundred words a minute is a about his gait. The House stenographers dread to see him start to talk.

Six people will be accommodated in a commodious house in the suburbs of Port Jervis, N. Y., one-half mile from depot. Ample porches, hot and cold water, all modern conveniences. Large sandy grounds. Terms very moderate. For full particulars address or call on W. B., 16 Holbrook street, Port Jervis.

Jobs That Fade.

Dr. Persifer Frazer of Philadelphia who has considerable real estate interests in this county being a member of the Elgemen's club and the owner of a cottage near Milford and who occasionally visits our town, has an article in a recent issue of the Legal Intelligencer entitled Standard of Inks. In it he discusses the characteristics necessary for a durable and lasting ink, and strongly recommends that a standard for inks be used in documents to be preserved for a long time be established, so as to insure the safety of valuable records.

He states that the inks of the past century were much better in quality in respect to durability than many of the writing fluids which began to be introduced about twenty years ago, when the anilines were forcing their way into every industry which dealt in color, and many of the anilines of that day have completely faded by this time.

We can heartily subscribe to the sentiments he so well expresses. Our ink seems to be in one respect at least manufactured expressly to aid the sale of pens, whether the ink makers and pen dealers are in league or not. It is a fact that a pen is in a very few days eaten up with the fluid. Then too the ink seems to be sticky and in an ordinary stand, soon becomes thick and unfit for use. Big money remains for the genius who invents an ink which will stand the test of time, and will not corrode the bottom of a glass stand.

A lot of new straw and felt hats at W. & G. Mitchell's.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me; and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Expeller, the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. For sale by Druggists and General Merchants in Pike county."

Monroe Democrats.

The Democrats of Monroe county held their regular meeting May 25, when Hon. John B. Storm, Hon. M. F. Coolbaugh and J. D. Serfass were elected delegates to the State Convention. A resolution was offered and passed that a committee be appointed to meet similar committees from the other counties of this Congressional District to fix a basis of representation and to make an agreement as to the proper rotation of the office of Congressmen among the several counties in the district. J. B. Storm, Esq., Hon. R. F. Schwarz and B. F. Morey were appointed members.

BUSHKILL BRIDGE LETTING.

Joint Meeting of the Boards and the Contract Awarded.

The adjourned meeting to further consider the plans and accept a bid for building the Bushkill bridge and stone work was held at Stroudsburg Thursday May 27. Monroe county was represented by her three commissioners B. F. Miller, Jacob Hartman and Samuel Reinhart and their clerk Henry Huffman, Pike by Wallace Newman, James Heller and J. M. Bensley and Clerk G. A. Swenpinner. The plans and prices were the same as offered at the previous meeting in Pike.

For the two first ballots Hartman, Miller and Bensley voted for plan C of the Grotton Company, price $1,783. This bridge is 82 feet long with a 16 feet roadway and a 9 feet truss. The specifications call for 82 feet between the abutments hence this bridge would go nicely between them to the bed of the creek. Newman, Heller and Reinhart voted for plan D of the Pittsburg Company 88 feet long, 18 feet roadway and 10 feet trusses. This bridge would rest on the abutments on either side, 1 foot 6 inches, and while not so close a fit would look far handsomer and be of infinitely more service than one 82 feet long which would just nicely drop between.

On the third ballot Bensley changed his vote to plan A. Grotton Company, 82 feet long, price $1,750, and on the fourth ballot Hartman and Miller also voted for Grotton plan A, and the balloting remained the same until the 23rd which was taken Saturday morning when Hartman and Miller voted for plan B Grotton Company, price $1,520 which was a very light bridge and wholly unsuitable for the location. Bensley voted for plan A price $1,750 Grotton Company of course.

On the 25th and last ballot Hartman voted with Newman, Heller and Reinhart for Pittsburg bridge plan D 1 for $1,687 while Miller and Bensley remained true to their ancient love the Grotton at $1,750.

After the 22nd ballot Friday afternoon a motion was made by Miller to adjourn to meet at some future time. This was seconded by Bensley, but Hartman voted no, with Reinhart, Newman and Heller, so the adjournment fell through. Miller and Bensley thereupon left the meeting, and it became necessary to adjourn until evening but at that meeting no ballots were taken and the next meeting took place Saturday morning.

The Pittsburg Bridge Co. agreed in order to do away with some objections as to a high truss, to furnish the adjustment on the above is unnecessary. The reader can readily discern the trend of the balloting, and it remains for Messrs. Miller and Bensley if they care to do so, and know the motives which actuated them, to explain why they persistently, with one exception on the part of Miller, voted for a higher priced bridge so short for the place, and with only a 16 feet roadway, when the specifications called for an 85 feet bridge with an 18 feet roadway. The people of the two counties will not be slow in assigning a reason for their action however, which may or may not be correct.

A Broken-Down Artist.

The reports of Munkacsy's breakdown, that have already been referred to in the papers seems to be too well-founded. For some time now he has been confined in a private asylum near Bonn, and the days of his production seem to have been thus ended.

Trustees Organize.

The Normal trustees met last Friday to organize the board and settle the contested election matter. At the election held for trustees a division arose and two trustees were elected by cumulative ballots. The President of the annual stock holders meeting presented the certificates of election of Seoley Rosencrance and Milton Yetter, and they were seated. The defeated candidates F. W. Ellenberger and G. A. Gardiner will probably carry the contest into court.

Hon. John B. Storm was elected president of the board S. Rosencrance vice president, T. J. Kistler secretary and L. H. Nichols treasurer.

An Interview with the Pope.

When abroad Mr. and Mrs. Cahill secured the exceptional privilege of an audience with the Pope at what will probably be his last public reception. The cardinals, prelates and all high church dignitaries were present in their official robes, and his Holiness was carried in sitting in a chair as his health is poor and he very feeble. The scene was one of unusual pomp and circumstance and was duly appreciated by our friends accustomed to the more Democratic American ways and manners.

W. & G. Mitchell have just opened a few cases of new SPRING GOODS comprising Gingham, Cutting Percales, Chaffin stripes, Cinderella habit cloths, etc. See them before buying elsewhere.

BRIEF MENTION.

The Golf Club has rented the house on Harford street, lately vacated by Dentist Lawyer which will be occupied as club rooms.

Secretary of the Commonwealth Reeder is quite indisposed at his home in Easton, having contracted a severe cold several days ago.

Mr. Smith living near the Brick House in New Jersey on the Hornbeck place fell from a barn Tuesday morning and was seriously injured.

A small frame house situated in Dingman township opposite the Humbert cottage and belonging to Mrs. Ann Wells was burned Wednesday night.

Two children in the Chicago schools are reported to sign a bird pledge, in which they promise not to rob the nests of birds or wear their plumage.

Sacrament of the Lords Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church at 10.30 Sabbath morning. Preparatory services will be held this Friday evening at 7.30.

Governor Griggs had signed the bill allowing the Delaware river to be dammed in order to secure power. There are certain corporations which will experience the same thing when it is done.

John K. Rudolph jeweler and dealer in watches and jewelry and repairer can be found at his business place two blocks above Centre Square. His goods are desirable and his work first class.

Edward Quinn has the finest five acres of clover and timothy in this section. The stand is even and thick, and its appearance indicates excellent tillage combined with excellent judgment in rotation and fertilizing.

The Hotels here have been crowded for the past few days. The whetmen took the town. We have noted many of the Hotel arrivals, but by far the larger number were of necessity omitted. Our space is too limited to note them all.

The commissioners contracted with Henry Canne for the repairs to the approaches of the Mott street bridge for $2.15 per cubic yard. There will be win walls on the Borough side, and these it is hoped will make the job permanent.

A large camp of gypsies spent Sunday at their usual spot near the cemetery gate. They engaged in the customary avocations of selling and trading horses, selling lace telling fortunes and various other methods to obtain the spare change of the people.

An earthquake shock was felt over a large section of country Monday. The disturbance extended as far west as Louisville, Ky., south to Atlanta and east to Washington. At Cincinnati people were badly frightened and a panic nearly ensued in the park which was crowded.

The Democratic convention of Monroe county declared in favor of the Chicago free silver platform. It also condemned the tariff measure now proposed in Congress, and praised the Wilson-Gorman deficiency bond compelling act. What wise acres those men are, to be sure!

Frost and ice in the Northwest have caused immense damage to farms and gardens. The cold broke the record for twenty-six years. Corn, potatoes and small fruits are ruined, and all will have to be replanted. The strawberry crop throughout that section is completely destroyed.

A rare chance for bargains at Dammons closing out sale. This is no sham but a genuine disposal of his entire stock for good reasons. No such opportunity to buy necessities at bottom prices has been offered in the town. Money savers will be prompt to avail themselves of it.

Wheelmen and women too, were thick as blackberries in July, but Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The roads were lined with them, and it would be idle to speculate on the number passing through town during those days. They all seemed to enjoy the outing and we are glad to have them ride through our county and enjoy the delightful roads and scenery.

The road between Stroudsburg and Bushkill is in a bad condition for wheelmen, and a cycle path between those two towns is being talked of. The road between here and Dingmans could easily be widened in places, and the brush should be cut away. In several places hedges line the road and branches have been allowed to grow over it. It should be cut out the full width 33 feet.

Andrew Carnegie, previous to making his annual trip abroad this summer, will make his usual donation of one million dollars to some object. It is not known yet what object has been selected and the eleemosynary institutions are anxiously awaiting his announcement.

IN HONOR OF THE DEAD.

Appropriate Exercises Over the Graves of the Brave.

The Veterans of Col. John Nye, Post G. A. R. Met at the Court House and Marched to the Mt. of Cemetery and After the Exercises Were Over They Went to Montague.—Notice of Thanks.

The day was wholly propitious for the occasion and the veterans accompanied by a number of citizens looked themselves to the cemetery at the time appointed. Arriving at the beautiful city of the dead the procession halted in front of the grave of Col. John Nye where the exercises were begun by Commander John W. Kilsby, who read impressively the ritual of the G. A. R. This was followed by singing the hymn "Landing of the Pilgrims," by a choir composed of Mrs. Bensell, Mrs. Thos. Armstrong, Mrs. J. H. Van Etten, Mrs. Svaldige, Mrs. Williamson, Miss Debow and F. B. Thrall. Prayer was then offered by Post Chaplain D. V. Drake, after which the choir rendered "The Blue and the Grey."

The decorating of graves was then done by Comrades Helms, Hotelen and Dingman, when the song "Gathering Home" was sung and Rev. Thomas Nichols made a brief and appropriate address. The choir then gave "America," and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. R. Neff. The Post then proceeded to the cemetery at Montague, New Jersey, where like services were held except that the address was made by Rev. W. R. Neff.

John West was color bearer. The flowers were profuse and beautiful and a wreath presented by Baist the florist was especially notable for its exquisite colors and tasty arrangement. Each year new mounds are marked by the little flag and covered with fresh flowers, and the veterans march with depleted ranks. Some comrade has ended his earthly fight and answered the long roll call, but the memory of his sacrifice for our country will remain fresh in the hearts of those who recall those Memorial Day exercises.

The members of the Post desire to thank all those who aided in the exercises especially the ladies of the choir, the reverend gentlemen who made addresses and those who generously furnished flowers, and as well Messrs. Gregory, Horton and Van Tassel for their kindness in furnishing conveyances.

The Junior Entertainment.

The Gramophone entertainment at the Methodist Church May 31st was well attended and altogether a pleasant affair. The net proceeds were over $21. If our people would content themselves by patronizing amusements gotten up in whole or part for the benefit of home charity, there is no reason why just as good talent could not be secured and just as satisfactory results in the way of entertainment obtained as by patronizing the shows of outsiders who come here to scoop up all the cash they can with the least outlay of effort. Such affairs simply remove so much money from the town without any compensating gain either in amusement or instruction.
