

Our expenses have been reduced to a nominal sum. This explains why we can sell:

> The best 10 wire Brussells for 55 cents.

> $3.00 pair of curtains for $1.98.

> 112 piece dinner set for twenty-five dollar parlor suit for $17.50.

seventy-five cent rug for 35 cents.

And all other goods in proportion. On fine goods the reduction is even greater. Don't forget our bicycle THE ORANGE COUNTY EXPRESS and our sewing machine THE

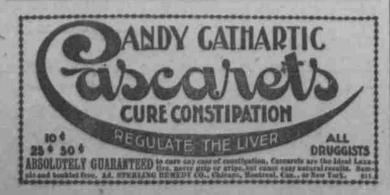

THE NEW YORK FURNITURE CO., 92 Pike street, Port Jervis, N. Y.

W. & G. MITCHELL

Dealers in Fancy & Staple Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Hardware, Crockery, Glassware, Boots, Shoes, Etc.

Corner Broad and Ann Streets.

FOR THE SEASON.

all the hats prescribed by fashlon, and more than good enough to wear, make up a great list. It is not too great or extensive, though, for us to fill to superfluity. Our hats are admired everywhere. You'll see our hats everywhere, both in and out of town. Anything sold by us will wear too well to wear seedy. Whether you want style, value, or low prices, it makes no difference; we are the hatters you require:

We have the largest and most cor-rect styles in hats in Port Jervis.

Our Derbies

range in prices from $1 to $3.

OUR STRAW HAT line is more complete than ever. We have them from 15 cents up.

GUNNING & FLANAGAN,

We sell good clothing chesp. Cor, Front and Sussex street,

PORT JERVIS, N.Y.

CLOSING OUT SALE

The undersigned intending to retire from business will sell for cash his entire stock of goods and store fixtures at greatly reduced prices.

The stock is large and fresh and will be sold at a great reduction.

A large line of boots and shoes at decided bargains.

Flour, Groceries, tobacco. Cigars, Teas. Coffees, Spices, Notions, &c.

AT AND BELOW COST.

Also about 2,000 feet of seasoned lumber.

The entire premises, situated op-posite the Court House on Centre Square an old established business stand to rent.

SALE BEGINS Saturday, June 5, 1897. GEO. DAUMANN, JR.

Go to T. R. Julius Klein Stoves and Ranges Hardware, Cutlery, Tin, Agate Ware, &c., &c.

Tin Roofing and Plumbing Jobbing promptly attended to. Broad street, opposite PRESS Office dom and the empire, in every cathedral, church or chapel of the Established Church of England were held services similar to those at St. George's chapet. Windsor, where her majesty paid her devotions and offered solemn thanks-

St. George's chapel would be private and for the members of the royal fam-ity prevented the gathering of a large crowd. The scene was most for The announcement that the service at ily prevented the gathering of a large erowd. The seens was most impressive and the service very simple. Her majesty sat in the chair of state immediately in front of the communion rail and just beside the brass plate the impeription of which designates the spot which was the temporary place of interment of the prince consort. The fadies and gantlemen who are the grand officers of the queen's household entered first, followed by the military Knights of Window in the full costume of cocked hats and scarlet coats. The Duke of Devenshire and Lord Rosebery occupied their stalls as Knights of the Garter.

Garter.

The Dean of Windsor, wearing the insignia of chaplain of the Order of the officiated, assisted by the lord bishop of Barry and several canons.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

After the first collect a special collect was read, and instead of the usual prayer for the queen and royal family prayer for the queen and royal family two special prayers were substituted.

A special prayer for unity was said, and there were special psalms and gospels used instead of those for the day, the gospel being the sixteenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of St. Matthew, "Render, therefore, unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's."

There was no sermon, but a special hymn, written by the Right Rev. Wilson, with the special hymn, which has been so waken.

liam Walsham, lord bishop of Wake-field, with music by Sir Arthur Sulli-van, was sung at her majesty's re-

Before the benediction a special Hefore the benediction a special thanksgiving was offered.

The choir of St. George's chapel rendered the musical portion of the service, Sir Walter Parrait presiding at the organ. The service lasted 40 minutes, the queen remaining seated throughout and following closely the special prayers

ENVOYS WELCOMED.

Queen Receives the Representatives of the Nations at Buckingbam. London, June 22.—The week's celebra tion of Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee is now fairly under way.

The queen yesterday made the journey from Windsor castle to Buckingham palace, where in the throneroom she received the envoys of the nations, this being her first official act in con-

The United States was represented by Special Envoy Whitelaw Reid, Gen-eral Nelson A. Miles and Rear Admiral J. N. Miller. The following is the text of the personal letter from President McKinley to Queen Victoria, presented by Mr. Reid: To Her Majesty, Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of In-din:

Great and Good Friend-In the name and on behalf of the people of the United States, I present their sincere fedicitations upon the sixticth anniversary of your majesty's accession to the grown of Great Britain.

The queen expressed her thanks through Mr. Reid to President McKin-ley and to "the great nation of our kinsmen.

A Brilliant Assembly. Depew, who witnessed the queen's jubile procession as the gueen's jubile procession that green's jubile procession has procession has passed and has left a lasting impression. Its preparation required 60 years, and it was over in 80 minutes. Pride, Mr. Alilson, with great vehemence, declared that he could not be driven by threats. Mr. Carter, who had aroused the storm, endeavored to have the paragraphs relating to carpet wools go over, with a view to securing some united action, but Mr. Vast, in an ronical speech, objected to delaying the gueen.

"As to the pageant, it was dramatic and fervid loyalty in action, expression and thought for the gueen."

"As to the pageant, it was dramatic area of prosperity and postponing the gueen."

"As to the pageant, it was dramatic and fervid actions of file gueen."

"As to the pageant, it was dramatic area of prosperity and postponing the gueen."

"As to the pageant, it was dramatic against delay and took occasion to say he would not vote In addition to the United States en the hereditary Prince and Princess of Saxs-Coburg and Gotha, representing the integral portions of the German em-

Russia was represented by their imperial highnesses the Grand Duke Ser-gius and the Grand Duchess Elizabeth Foodrowns and large suits.

The Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria, represented the Austro-Hungarian om-pire, accompanied by a number of princes.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE

GELEBRATING THE ANNIVERSARY OF VICTORIA'S ASCENSION.

Ceremonies Began With Devotions at fit. George's Chapel, Windsor—Envoys Reserved at Buckingham Falase—The Boyal Procession to St. Paul's Cathedral.

London, June 21.—Queen Victoria began the celebration of her jubiles yesterday, as was peffiting her entire care, before the altar of her faith, while throughout London, the United Kingdom and the empire, in every cathedral, church or chapel of the Established guests in the state supper room at Buckingham palace. Among those present were the Prince and Princess of Wales, with all the members of the royal family, the royal guests, the success of states with the rank of embassadors and the great officers of the household, who were full court dress.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mrs. Nelson A. Miles and Mrs. Ogden Mills were presented by the queen's special command.

GREATEST OF PAGEANTS.

The Queen's Jubilee Procession Unsur-passed in the World's History. London, June 23.—The wonderful Vic-terian jubiles procession of 1897, about which the whole would has been talk-

The start was made from Bucking-ham palace at an early hour, and the quoen was visible to her subjects along the entire route of eight miles. The chief stop was made at St. Pani's ca-thedral, where an impressive "Te De-um" service was performed by the arch-bishop of Canterbury.

The lord mayor, armed with Current hishop of Canterbury.

The lord mayor, armed with Queen Elizabeth's famous sword, met her majesty at the city limits, and the lady mayoress, at the Mansion House, after presenting the queen with a floral offering, was permitted to kiss the royal belien when Victoria came to the hand. The lady mayoress, however, throng and that her resulting the province of Quebec was in rebeing when Victoria came to the hand. The lady mayoress, however, perturbed at the unwonted prominence of her situation, took the proffered hand

Mr. Whitelaw Reid, the United States special envoy, received a most flatter-ing reception from her majesty, and Mrs. Reid kissed the queen's hand as a greeting from across the Atlantic.

All England Ablaze.

With the coming of night the crowds which had filtered out of the processional streets after the great show wedged back again to view London a-light. The sight was worth the trouble and risk, both considered. The illuminations were achieved more ar-tistically than the decorations of the tistically than the decorations of the day. Those of the metropolis were, like everything that had previously transpired during the morning hours, greater and more respiendent than anything in her history. The symbols of loyalty and affection, of imperial grandeur and the growth of empire that had met the eye in painted and gilded mottoes, devices of more and bunting and spangled.

That she was deeply moved is evident; but she seemed more absorbed by the vices of paper and bunting and spangled but she seemed more absorbed by the lines of flaring gas, glowworm oil lamps, opal globes, paper lanterns and transparencies, incandescent lamps, celluloid flowers and hundreds of devices in thousands of colored coveriance. vices in thousands of colored crystals. Everything was brilliancy, sparkle and

With illuminations, which are universal in every city, town and hamlet of England, Wales and Scotland and in some parts of freland, with fireworks in countless places, with illuminations following the fall of night in every part of that empire where the queen has sway, there yet remains to be mentionempire's terch, the ancient form of giv.

by her rule and conduct its power has so increased that this welcome came with such acclaim and unanimity from the free people several and the free people s wich observatory a tongue of flame shot upward from Great Malvern, "the back-bene of the Midlands," It was the jubi-

Hardly had the spectator time to look on it before another flared in the dis-tance on the right, then again on the left, on the north, south, east and west. Peak answered to peak until from Berwick-en-Tweed to Rough Tor and Brown Willie in Cornwall, from the ca-thedral towers of Litchfield, Worcester, Ripen, Lincoln and Durham, from Skidmajesty's accession to the crown of Great Britain.

I express the sentiments of my fellow citizens in wishing for your people the prolongation of a reign illustrious and marked by advance in science, arts and popular well being. On behalf of my countrymen I wish particularly to recognize your friendship for the United States and your love of peace, exemplified upon important occasions.

It is pleasing to acknowledge the dobt of greatitude and respect due to your personal virtues. May your life be proposed and peace, honor and prespectity bless the papple over whom you have been called to rule. May liberty flourish throughout your empire under just and equal laws and your government contains the interest of the first of was lit. From St. Hellers the signal leaped to Gibraltar, to Malta, to Cyprus, to Cyprus, to Cyprus, to Copyen, to United Humalayas; in his hely keeping.

Done all a province of peace, exemplified upon important occasions.

It is pleasing to acknowledge the dobt of greatitude and respect due to your personal virtues. May your life be proposed and peace, honor and prespectity bless the papple over whom you have been called to rule. May liberty flourish throughout your empire under just and equal laws and your government contains the first of the section of all who live under it.

And I pray God to have your majesty in his hely keeping.

Done all washington the Scholars the light and hour later the lowlands, the highlands, the wild from day to even my count the world the empire's torch was lit. From St. Heliers the signal leaped to Gibraltar, to Malta, to Cyprus, to Cyprus, to Copyen, to India, where it blazed triumphant on the Himalayas; in his hely keeping.

Done all values are thoughly for the united States, from Hastings to Cader Iris and across the water to Donesal and bours and peace we must picture what might be to the sovereign. Half an hour later insuence we must picture what have occurred with a warilke or correct with a warriew proverign and recognise for power of accumulating a force of

AS SEEN BY DEPEW.

The Eminent New Yorker Gives His Im-London, June 23.—Dr. Chauncey M.
Depew, who witnessed the queen's jubilee procession as the guest of the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, gives his impressions of the great spectacle as follows:

"The diamond jubiles procession has passed and has left a lasting impression. Its preparation required 69 years, and it was over in 80 minutes. Pride,

Mr. Carter, who had aroused

The Archduke Prancis Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria, represented the Austro-Hungarian ompire, accompanied by a number of princes.

Italy sent to represent her their royal highnesses the Prince and Princes of Naples, and Sweden and Norway were represented by Princes Eugene, the fourth son of King Oscar. Prince Ferdinand represented Roumands. He was

"But the concentrated and irrepressi-ble joy and ery which preceded, ac-pressive and followed the queen like a resistless torrent, surpassed anything ever witnessed before. Though many races and many tongues participated, the dominant and absorbing expression was English, and the glory was English and the glory was English and commoners, masters and workmen, millionaires and the multillude were woulded by a tremendous force. This concentration of loyalty from the remotest corners of the earth into one wild, frantic mass of patriotic enthusiant had a concentration. into one wild, frantic mass of patriotic enthusiasm had an effect upon observors which can be likened to nothing so much as to the north and south electrified by the first sun fred at Fort Sumter or by the Seventh regiment marching down Broadway to the defense of the capital.

"The enthusiasm and shoutter were

"The enthusiasm and shouting were far different from those evoked by the triumphal procession of a Roman conqueror. Men and women eagerly expressed to each other and emphasized to foreigners as the colonials marched by that they were not eaptives chained to the chariot of their conqueror, but willing subjects, free citizens of our worldwide empire, following their sovereign."

"White, yellow and black soldiers trooped by, each accelerating and in-creasing the tidal wave of enthusiasm which the whole would has been talking for many weeks past, is now only a memory, but a memory that will never face from the minds of the privileged thousands that witnessed it.

No state function on such a scale has ever taken place before in any capital in the world; never has there been such a gathering of princes and envoys, representing every state under the sun; never before has a living noversign been the recipient of such unanimous and cordial expressions of good will.

It is estimated that 5,000,000 people in the world; never has there been such a gathering of princes and envoys, representing every state under the sun; never before has a living sovereign been the recipient of such unanimous and cordial expressions of good will.

It is estimated that 5,000,000 people witnessed the great pageant.

The procession was a success in every way. Not a single mishap or hitch occurred to impede the carrying out of the programme, and glorious weather prevailed.

The against was made from Bucking.

empire.

Among the American spectators there was no jealousy nor stint of praise and applause. We could both praise and applause. We could both glory in the vitality and virility of the mother country and rejoice mightily. We were not marching in the procession, but we were present as the proud equals in all that constitutes a free people and a great restor.

throne and that her premier, now he is a Frenchman and a Catholic appealed to English imagination. That the descendants of Montealm and his coun trymen should vie with the children of Wolfe and his soldiers in their loyalty and that Canada has made a beginn by favoring Great Britain as against other nations in her tariff have touched both the British heart and pocket.

Likened to the Ovation to Washington "I can conjure no tribute like the popular evation given to the queen ever being given to any human being, ex-cept the reception to Washington by the people on his way from Mount Vernon to New York to assume the posi-tion of first president of the United States. Respect, reverence, love of this grand tribute of her, but at the same time sharing with them the universal joy in the thought of both op pressed and elevated that there has no fits and blessings and none more than our own. But for this time and place the crowd only saw what Great Britain has gained during her reign and accorded praise therefor to her. He reign has been a period of emancipa-tion in English history. The prerogs tives of the throne have diminished, an the free people, governing themselves who gave it its might and majesty. "Making due allowance for the exaltation of the hour, Victoria will occupy a great place in the history of the nino-teenth century. Her influence for peace has been of momentous consequence to Great Britain, Europe and civilization.

"She has always been cordial in her friendships and anxious for the ioftiest relationship with the United States Her messages, sweet, tender and we-manly, to the widow of Lincoln and the wife of dying Garfield gave her a warm welcome and a permanent memory in our American homes. In estimating her influence we must picture what might oped the first open disagreement on the Republican side of the chamber and led to a warm personal exchange between Senators Carter of Montana and Foraker of Ohio on one hand and Mr. Allithe city gates recalled the early suggestions of liberty, in the privileges won from kings by free cities, and the sheriff, in mediaval contune, escorting the monarch within his balliwick, gave a glimpse of the crigin and recognition of civil rights by the throns.

"The monarch, escorted by princes and suarded by the military forces of the realm, both regulars and volunteers, national and colonial, evidenced the strength and permanency of the bw would not vote for the bill unless ubjectionable features were eliminated. Aside from this stormy interruption fair progress was made on the wool and on second class wool il cents, which is between the house and sensite rates in each case. Mr. Allson's amendment prescribing triple duties on certain classes of third class wools was agreed to by a vote of 19 to 26.

WICKHAM 6785

Will make the season of 1897 at the

CRISSMAN HOUSE STABLES, MILFORD, PA.

TERMS, $10 to insure a mare in foal.

Wickham is the only standard bred orse in service in the county.

"Nothing else like it:" The most refreshing and pleasant Soap for the skin. De Raub's MEDICATED GUTANEOUS SOAP. PRICE 25

ESTABLISHED, 1849. STANDARD OUR WATCHWORD.

A trial will convince you of its greaterit. Will please the most fastidious,

CHARLES F. MILLER,

Lancaster, Penn.

SOAPS AND PERFUMERY.

"The best is none too good." HARDMAN, MEHLIN, KNABE and STANDARD PIANOS. FARRAND and VOTEY ORGANS.

and STANDARD SEWING MACHINES,

For sale for cash or on easy terms. Needles and all parts for all machines, -REPAIRING A SPECIALTY-Tuning of PIANOS and ORGANS by a

> B. S. MARSH. OPERA HOUSE BLOCK PORT JERVIS, N.Y.

WHY NOT BUY THE * BEST?

Try it that if may speak for itself.

Ripans Tabules: gentle cathartic Ripans Tabules cure constipution Ripans Tabules: for sour stoma Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative