It can be stated with almost absolute certainty that the Republican ticket will have upon it after the August convention the names of James S. Beacom, of Westnoreland, for state treasurer and Maor Levi G. McCauley, of Chester county, for auditor general. If Judge Willard, of Seranton, resigns his scat on the bench of the superior court, which it is said he intends to do, then there will be a third place on the ticket, which will probably be filled by the omination of Alex Bimpson, of Phila-
