THOSE Democrats who talk most about the slowness of the tide of prosperity, had the least to say concerning the wave of adversity that rushed over the country almost immediately after Cleveland's election No, the Republican tide is not so swift as the Democrat wave, but just as sure .- Paw Paw, Mich., "Northerner," June 23, 1897.

IT APPEARS now to be quite well understood that Major Levi G. Me-Cauley, of Chester county, will be nominated for Auditor General and James S. Beacom, of Westmoreland, for State Treasurer, at the coming Republican Convention. Our friend, Smator Hardenbergh would make an excellent official, and we would like to see him nominated, but if it is ordained otherwise this time. we shall expect to see him make it.
