This is legislature, and Governor Hastings will have the appointment of the chief. It is said that Robert Brownles, superintendent of the Red Run coal mines, located near Raiston, in Lycoming county, a personal friend of Attorney General McCormick, is his selection. No name has yet been announced in onnection with the office of assistant.

Attorney General McCormick has handed down an opinion in the matter of publishing mercantile appraisers' lists. In York county some of the new-paper owners hold that selecting salestoners, and some of the newspapers printed the list without authority to do so and sent in bills accordingly. The attorney general held that the matter was one for the commissioners only to decide.

No Strd Day in the Public Schools. The late legislature passed a bill to establish "Bird day" in the public schools and providing for a preclamation of the same by the superintendent of public instruction. This bill has set apart one day in each school year on which the schools would have exercises in the form of lectures upon birds, readington's Birthiay and Lincoin's Eirrh-day. Among the bills votoed by the govrnor was one bearing the name of Representative Simon, of Pittsburg It provided for the purchase of the franchises and property of electric light companies by the municipalities within whose limits such franchises were exereised, and restricting municipalities from performing any business of such corporation without first acquiring its franchises and property. Strong pres-sure was brought to bear upon the governor to induce him to sign the bill, but many of the boroughs and cities of the state protested on the ground that such a law would be a serious hindrance to them. It was expected that the governor would disapprove the appropriations for the Lehigh university and University of Pennsylvania, but he only cut 456,600 from each institution, givin Lebish university $150,000 and the Uni versity of Pennsylvania $200,000. There were few appropriations to hospitals and other private charities disapproved. In fact, with the exception of two hos-pitals that were not yet built, all these appropriations were signed.

New Mercantile Tax Bill Vetned. The governor spring a surprise on the last day by disapproving the mer-cantile Record tax bill, which was opposed by the merchants throughout the state. He says in conclusion, after a full discussion of the measure: "For meeting years the business depression has been so great that almost every industry has struggled to exist, and I am unwiffing to impose further burdens upon these interests for the reasons that I have stated." It was generally expected that the sovernor would approve this bill, and there were many interested persons who were desirous of being appointed to the positions of mercantile appraiser under this act." Changeey F. An an propriation having been made by the legislature for the dedication of state monuments at Chicamaugua, and also for the transportation of survivors of that battle to the battlefield on the occasion of the dedication of the monuments. It is proposed to have Pennsylvania day at the Tennesses centennal about the let of October, so that the old soldiers and others who go south about that time may be able to participate in both events. The Army south about that time may be able to participate in both events. The Army of the Potpenac will have a reunion at the general idea is to have the veterans of the war go first to Columbus, thence to the Chattanooga ceremonies and on to Nashville for the Ponnsylvania day exercises at the contennial.
