POLITICS IN GOTHAM.

COLONEL GEORGE E. WARING DOES NOT ACCEPT NOMINATION.

Declines to Run on the Jeffersonian Democracy's Ticket for Comptroller—Dayton Will Probably Accept the Nomination—Adams Withdraws.

New York, Oct. 12.—The fight for the mayoralty of Greater New York continues fast and furious, and each day brings new and interesting developments. Among the notable events of the last 24 hours were the filing of a protest against the Citizens' union ticket on the ground of irregularity and the withdrawal of Colonel George E. Waring from the Henry George ticket, on which he had been placed for the office of comptroller.

It seems altogether probable that ex-Postmaster Charles W. Dayton will accept the nomination. In defining his position, Mr. Dayton says: "My position is that I will do anything and everything in my power between now and election day to crush out Crokerism in New York. If it survives independence and political liberty must die. Whether or not I will do my fighting as a candidate on the George ticket or on the stump has not been actually decided. It probably will be in a few hours. The reason why it has not been decided is that, as Colonel Waring is at present legal on the ticket for comptroller, the nomination cannot be offered to me officially. "If Colonel Waring gets off the ticket and the George managers formally nominate me, then I will give them an answer quick and to the purpose. I may accept, and with that you can rest. "I had a long talk with Mr. George's managers last night, and we went over the situation. We thoroughly understood each other. The question of candidates came up, and, as I say, if they come to me again they will get my answer officially. "As to Crokerism, you cannot say too much for me against it. It has proved the bane of the city. I would work and run against him if necessary, even if I only got 10 votes. While I might get beaten in such a campaign, the very fight would make would aid every young man that is to come after me. "The first grand afternoon meeting of the regular Democracy at Tammany hall tonight, arrangements for which have been completed, promises to be one of the most largely attended gatherings in the history of the organization. Besides the meeting in the large hall there will be overflow meetings on Fourteenth street and in Irving place.

Short of Food at Dawson. Victoria, B. C., Oct. 12.—The City of Topeka has arrived from Alaska, bringing Captain Hackett and crew of the schooner Ann C. Moore, which was abandoned in the Lynn canal. She left here for Skagway with a load of hay and feed, but both schooner and cargo were destroyed. The Topeka brought down 2500 lbs. of provisions, including 1000 lbs. of flour, 1000 lbs. of sugar, and 500 lbs. of coffee. Harry Romaine, who also came down on the City of Topeka, having just come from Skagway City, says there is not enough food there for one-third of the population. He says there is no hope of coming up the river, as the water is very low. He says there is no chance of taking relief over the Dalton trail. The only way to get there in winter is on a dog sled. One hundred and three head of cattle got in over the Dalton trail, but other cattle on the trail will never reach Dawson. The trail between Dawson and Skagway is now a narrow path of ice and snow. The trail is now a narrow path of ice and snow. The trail is now a narrow path of ice and snow.

KLONDIKERS' PERIL.

DISASTERS OVERTAKE SEEKERS OF GOLDEN TREASURE.

Many Lose Their Outfits and Are in Dire Straits—The Steamer City of Topeka Strays Down Stories of Distress at Dawson City—Many May Starve.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 12.—Advices from Skagway under date of Oct. 8 state: Reports of disasters on the lakes are coming thick and fast. Of those actually verified, one is the disaster to what is known as the City expedition, concerning which brief reports have already been sent out. Kelly started on the evening of Sept. 25 to cross Shallow lake, which is near the summit, with his own company, Adams and Conrad of Seattle. They were in a canvas boat, and near the end of the lake the boat capsized.

Kelly, who is a big, strong fellow, managed to swim through the icy water to the bank. His two companions perished. On the same late Mr. Cope, who once ran for mayor of Vancouver, B. C., was lost about three weeks ago, and some efforts were made to recover his body, but they proved unavailing. The Costello party of three from Seattle have just arrived here, having lost their goods on Lake Bennett. They took two passengers, theatrical men, on the boat to Dawson. The bottom of the boat fell out near the foot of the lake, and the five men reached shore with difficulty. Two young men from Philadelphia, whose names cannot be ascertained, were also swamped on Lake Bennett and lost all their goods. The case about 10 tents at the Lake Bennett camp at this writing. Some of the Klondikers will push on as far as they can and again make camp, but the majority will winter there. Some persons will winter at the Yukon river until it is frozen up. The sawmill has stopped, and boat building is therefore at an end until spring. At Lake Latham there are about 25 men, and the building of log cabins is being pushed rapidly forward. At Sheep Camp, the last station before crossing to Dyea Summit, and at the scales, a few miles from here, nearly 100 persons will winter in order to be the first in. There are few crossing other over the Dyea or the Skagway trail, and these state that already the snowstorms are terrific on the summit.

Get a Klondike Contract. Trenton, Oct. 12.—The Trenton Iron company has received a contract for the furnishing of a wire tramway seven miles in length, to be built in the Chukotat pass, Alaska. Work will be pushed to early completion.

FIELD TO RETIRE.

The Venerable Justice Asks to Be Permitted to Retire.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The New York Herald's correspondent in this city sends the following to his paper: Associate Justice Stephen Johnson Field of the United States supreme court has made formal application to President McKinley to be retired from the bench under the law allowing members of that court to be retired when 70 years old. He is able to make this statement upon the highest authority and also says that Attorney General Joseph McKenna of California will be nominated to succeed him on Dec. 6, when Congress convenes. Five days after the retirement of Justice Field takes effect.

Millions For the Navy.

Washington, Oct. 12.—In the opinion of Secretary Long, almost $2,000,000 will be necessary to defray the expense of the navy and marine corps during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909. Burglars Kill Two Women.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Vane, aged 66 years, widow of Captain Eli Vane, and her daughter, Mrs. Sarah M. Shaw, aged 40 years, were shot and killed by a burglar. Mrs. Vane was instantly killed, and Mrs. Shaw expired in less than half an hour without recovering consciousness. The two women lived at 242 Line street, in the lower part of Camden, near the river front. An examination of the house showed that a trap had been set, and forced open, and a bureau drawer on the second floor had been ransacked.
