FROM AN IMPARTIAL STAND-POINT.

Our Special Correspondent at Harrisburg Writes on Matters of Vital Imporlance to Every Citizen of the Rey- Lests, stone State.

HARRISDURG, Nov. 9 .- Now comes the startling announcement that the gubernatorial candidates will have eral McCormick. The South Bethto fight their own battles, Sanator Quay being reported to have declared that he will take no part in the campaign whatever. Last week State Treasurer Haywood apont a few hours with Quay at the latter's home in Beaver, and when interrogated as to how Quay felt on the situation said that "he will keep hands off the coming fight for governor, as most of the aspirants are friends of his." It is a well-known fact that Stone, Widener and Connell have all done successful work for the famous senator, and when they announced themselves as candidates it put Quay in quite a predicament, for it was generally understood that Stone would have his support, but since then, the readers of these letters are well aware, there have been strange developments, and owing to this Quay has decided to do his work under cover. His large number of "faithful" lieu tenants in the state will be made familiar with the situation, and although not receiving their instructions direct, will be given full knowledge as to what they are expected to do and for whom it shall be done. Quay has again gone to his Florida retreat and will return at the convening of Congress, so nothing of interest can be expected from him for a few weeks. Since Congressman Stone has estab lished headquarters in Pittsburg and flooded the state with personal appeals for support, it is reasonable to suppose that Connell and Widener will not foreibly intrude themselves. tate company, Scranton, capital However, it is not disputed that $30,000; Nay Aug lumber comthey will enter the contest, not with the expectation of being nominated, but in order to keep up their popularity and insure recognition at some future time.
