GERMANS BACK DOWN

THEY CONCLUDE NOT TO SEND A WARSHIP TO HAITI.

The Heavily Traged War Lord Changes His Mind Regarding the Bombardment of the Black Republic—Orders For the Gunboat to Sail Are Recalled.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The German government has decided to recall the order for the sailing of the warship Gefion and has made explanations to the United States ambassador, Andrew D. White, which have satisfied this government that the German war lord's intentions now are strictly peaceful.

When it was first announced that Germany intended to make a naval display at Port au Prince, the capital of Haiti, the Berlin papers were full of war talk. The affair was called to the attention of Secretary Sherman, who, after discussing the subject with President McKinley, took prompt action.

A message was sent to Ambassador White instructing him to watch the progress of the Haitian incident and to intimate, diplomatically, to Germany that any overt act on Haiti would be considered by the government of the United States a violation of the principles of the Monroe doctrine.

Would Not Permit Oppression. It was stated that the United States would not permit Germany to oppress or harass Haiti in any manner other than in conformity with international law and strictly in accordance with the insignificant character of Germany's claims against the black republic.

When this became known in Berlin, the newspapers were violent in their declarations that there must be "no interference on the part of the United States government in the affairs of Germany."

One paper said that it had it from a trustworthy source that Germany would not "brook any interference by the United States in the Haitian affair."

But all this was mere talk and by no means reflected the actual intentions of Germany. Ambassador White was yesterday received by Baron von Bulow, the minister for foreign affairs. Mr. White informed the baron that the United States cruiser Marblehead had been ordered to southern waters. He also intimated in no uncertain manner that the state department desired to know just what Germany intended to do.

Baron von Bulow hastened to assure the ambassador that Germany had recalled the order for the sailing of the warship Gefion and that her only plan now was to collect a reasonable indemnity from Haiti because of the treatment received by Herr Lueders. This was perfectly satisfactory to Mr. White, who at once called the result of his mission to Secretary Sherman.

Marblehead to Hurry. Reports that came to the state department yesterday afternoon from Haiti were to the effect that considerable excitement prevailed there and that the situation was grave. For this reason it was determined to hasten the departure of the Marblehead, and the naval officials were communicated with to this end.

The impression appeared to prevail in Port au Prince that a German warship was rapidly approaching the place. Of course it is said now that the Marblehead goes solely for the purpose of protecting American interests that might be threatened by the outbreak of disorder in Haiti.

In addition to this, it is the opinion of the administration that the time is now ripe for a renewal of the practice of having the United States navy represented in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean seas.

For several years, says an occasional cruiser sent with all haste on her way to or from the south Atlantic station, not a vessel of the navy has gone beyond the southern waters of Florida, for the reason that the presence of United States war vessels in the neighborhood of the Spanish Antilles might have served to create an erroneous impression as to the attitude of the United States toward the Cuban insurgents and have tended to complicate the relations between the United States and Spain.

Now, however, with the improvement in the conditions in Cuba and the continued existence of good relations between the two governments, the navy department will let some of the smaller vessels of the navy go into West Indian waters.

The Marblehead will make her headquarters at Port au Prince, on the west coast of Haiti, and will be charged with the protection of American interests generally in that section of the West Indies.

Root of Riverhead is made. Miss Root has been a teacher in the public school at Riverhead for a number of years. She confirmed the report of the engagement. CAPOTE'S MANIFESTO.

President and Council of Cuban Republic Rejected Spain's Offer of Autonomy.

New York, Nov. 27.—The Cuban constituent assembly, which met recently at Camaguey to amend the constitution and elect a new president, issued a manifesto, which has just reached the office of the Cuban junta in this city.

The document is dated La Yaya, Oct. 20, and is signed by Domingo Mendez Capote as president of the assembly. The manifesto is addressed by "the representatives of the Cuban people to all those who have the independence and future welfare of Cuba at heart."

"No special law, no political reform or autonomy, nothing, in short, that the Spanish government may be willing to grant which may mean Spanish sovereignty over Cuba will be accepted by the Cuban people."

Great Scarcity of Food in the Upper Yukon Country—A Stampede From the Gold District Metropolis—An Interview With Thomas Magee, Sr.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 20.—The steamer City of Seattle has just arrived at this port with 25 gold seekers direct from Dawson City. They were divided into two parties, the last one of which left Dawson Oct. 16. Among those in the party were Thomas Magee, Sr., Thomas Magee, Jr., of San Francisco; Swift Water Bill Davis, Joe Boyin, William Huskins, F. Eckert, F. Robinson, H. Raymond, Bert Nason, John W. Brauer, W. H. Chambers, E. W. Pond, E. A. J. Gillespie, Thomas Wilson, P. McGraw, Jack Dalton and William Leak. They came down over the Dalton trail. They are reported to have between them about 150,000 in dust and nuggets.

All tell stories of a food shortage in Dawson that is almost a famine. The last person to leave Dawson was Jack Dalton. When Dalton left, the steamer Bella had reached there loaded light. It is said that the Bella's cargo consisted of whiskey and billiard balls. She brought no provisions. The Canadian government mounted police chartered the Bella and gave all who wished a free passage to the Yukon. The Bella is reported to have left about Oct. 12, with 200 men.

According to the statements made by members of the Dalton party, there is little to be troubled of the most serious nature in Dawson. The Canadian government mounted police chartered the Bella and gave all who wished a free passage to the Yukon. The Bella is reported to have left about Oct. 12, with 200 men.
