LAYTON.

Now write it 1898. The Hudson River Telephone company having connected Newton, Sparta, Ogdensburg, Hamburg and Deerpark...

On New Year's day there was a quite wedding at the home of Mrs. Maggie A. Cox, near Bevans...

The dance at Peter Brinks last Thursday night was well attended and about 300 numbers were sold.

W. V. Burcher went to Hawley Tuesday. C. M. Burcher and family returned to their home at Wilkesbarre Monday.

Mrs. Garry Hart spent New Year's day at Burcher's Glen with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Burcher.

Garry Hart has a party of friends from the city spending the holidays with him; fishing seems to be what they are enjoying.

Willie Hartwell and friend, Mr. Henderson took a trip to Lackawanna on Tuesday to call on the farmers friends.

Mary Rosencrance is very sick at this writing with la grippe. Louise Witt has come back to her home and friends at Grooley. We all welcome her home as we are all glad to see her back.

and groom. The wedding trip will extend over about one week and includes New York in the tour. The worthy young couple are highly esteemed in their respective neighborhoods...

Once more the merry holidays are past and another year is added to the page of life. Whether it shall remain a memory of good or ill an hour of close self communion will be pretty sure to tell us.

Gracious how the weddings come. Thick and fast and more near by. Everything points to a prosperous spring trade for the furniture dealers and the-ah, yes, alchemists-ensue taker, perhaps.

1898! Plenty of the beautiful. Plenty of ice. Night providers are still alive. Hens eggs are scarce. News is scarce this week.

Plentiful fishing has been good during the past week. Sol Van Aken, of Matamoras, had splendid luck while down here and no doubt he remembered his friends.

I am sorry to note that the condition of John Vanoy is such as to leave no hopes of his recovery. The article in last week's Press signed "H." certainly was a good one and to the point.

"H." a queer world this. Gossip travels fast in certain corners when it hits the other chap. But the same circumstance which started the tongues comes right at home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, of Milford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ludwig. Benjamin Boster has secured a position in another New York.

No such person as Myrtle Westbrook, of Matamoras, attended the Cole-Hornbrook wedding. The lady mentioned in the communication said: Miss Maggie Westbrook, of Port Jervis.

Dr. H. E. Emerson, of Milford, by strict attention to attending calls has built up a large practice over here. DICK.

GROOLEY.

Well this is winter in full blast, the snow is about ten inches on the level not saying anything about the drifts. The thermometer stood below zero on Tuesday morning and made a man think what he had done with his last summer wages.

Ira Rosencrance and Jerry Greening are hauling quite a number of pine logs to Burcher's mill. So the snow is a benefit to some. Mr. Rosencrance had to get help to open the Rowland road, which was drifted badly.

W. V. Burcher went to Hawley Tuesday. C. M. Burcher and family returned to their home at Wilkesbarre Monday.

Mrs. Garry Hart spent New Year's day at Burcher's Glen with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Burcher.

Garry Hart has a party of friends from the city spending the holidays with him; fishing seems to be what they are enjoying.

visit over night, but fate ordained otherwise for a messenger came requesting her to hasten home. "Oh those fishermen," County Superintendent Sawyers visit to the schools was highly appreciated.

On Jan. 1st, G. H. Langton, the postmaster recently appointed at Matamoras, took possession of the office. The building was erected by Mr. M. Ueb, the butcher.

The Matamoras school was opened again on Monday after the holiday vacation. Wallace Van Gordon who is at Cornell University was unable to visit home during the holidays, but from last report is improving and will soon be able to resume his work at the college.

Richard Jeffrey of the Dental college of Philadelphia has been spending his vacation with his mother at his home in this village left for Philadelphia on Tuesday to resume his studies.

Ralph French and Mr. Fayette Seymour have returned to Philadelphia to resume their studies at the Medical college also. Charly Wilkin returned to Philadelphia also on Monday to resume his work at the Dental college at that city.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

The Agricultural Work was a Great Success. Secretary of Agriculture Elger has sent to the Governor his annual report. He says during the past year there has been an advance all along the line of work under the care of his department.

The efficiency of farmers institutes has been increased, the Forestry Commissioner has been enabled to better carry on his work, the Live Stock Sanitary board has greatly extended its scope and usefulness in investigating preventable diseases of animals, and shutting out those which by being diseased might ultimately prove a burden.

The educational feature of the department is evidenced by the advanced ideas and views noticed at institutes and he considers the results achieved as of a most encouraging character. He deprecates the lack of funds necessary to properly carry on the work of the Dairy and Food bureau, but says that the effect of the laws relating to food products has been very evident and great progress made in substituting first class for adulterated articles.

The special agents were instructed that no crusade for the recovery of fines, or the punishment of those innocently disobeying the law was intended, the sole object being to secure the enforcement of the law. A great saving to farmers is in the supervision of commercial fertilizers for which they expend annually $3,750,000 and that its results give them a saving of 10% or $375,000, the cost of all of which is paid by license fees from manufacturers.

Seasonable Recipes.

The season for mince pie has arrived and a recipe out of the ordinary may be as enjoyable as some of the concoctions so named: MINCE PIE.—Ged a piece off rubber and cut out de under crust. Scalloped edges mit de shears. Buy four pounds off cow's neck at von cent bound. Chop id up unfill id was chopped. Chop up von peck off apples, basket und all. Add von yard off red flannel and a peck off varnish.

SAUERKRAUT.—Ged a small kraut und put id in a pall. Bay von pint off good, sweet large cabbages. Romove de peel. Ged one quard off good sweet vinegar. Chop de vinegar up into small slices. Pour de cabbages over de vinegar. Led it remain undill id begins de ferment. Den end id when you have got a cold in your head.

The above entirely obviates the necessity for pounding it in a barrel with bare feet. A Cure for Lame Back. "My daughter when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louisa Grover...

C. A. Pellet and wife spent a few days last week visiting in Honesdale, the guests of Hon. E. B. Hardenburg.

E. Simons and wife, Miss Simons, Mrs. and Miss Down, of Taffon; Misses Kipp of Wilsonville, John Nyce, of Hawley, and B. Ames, of Dunmore, were present at the christening of Leland K. Simons at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kimble, Rev. J. J. Raymond officiated.

Messrs. Frank and Lefe Killam spent their vacation at the home of their parents. H. C. Anness, of New York, spent Christmas with C. C. Pellet.

Isabel Ausley, who has been dressmaking in Scranton, was home for the holidays. The Paupac school children were greatly disappointed because they had no vacation at the holidays. But don't you care "all good things come slowly."

Arthur Pellet visited his cousins at Waverly recently. Emile Gumbel spent a few days visiting here last week. Miss "Coe" on her way from school one evening stopped at a friend's expecting to

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems of Truth Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations. The church is not the bulwark of the truth, but the truth is the bulwark of the church.—Rev. Frank Crane, Methodist, Chicago.

A GOOD MAN. A man who lives to-day must work his own head and heart and conscience. When he gets all these easy and in balance, he is a good man.—Rev. Myron W. Reed, Independent, Denver.

WOMAN THE INSPIRATION OF HOPE. She is the inspiration of hope. There is in the heart of every true woman a spark of heavenly fire, which may often lie dormant in the broad daylight of prosperity, but which kindles and burns in the dark hour of adversity. As stars come out most brightly upon the breast of the mid-night sky, so these higher qualities of woman's soul shine most resplendent on the dark background of poverty and woe.—Rev. George B. Vosburgh, Baptist, Denver.

DYNAMITE IN TRUTH. Drop a few seeds of truth under any piled up wrong, no matter how entrenched in popular favor. Sow them under the institutions that are respectably veneered and bide your time. There will be an explosion some day.—Rev. Charles L. Kloss, Congregationalist, Kansas City.

THE MEN THE WORLD NEEDS. A guilty conscience and the retro-spect of a wasted life are hotter things than Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace. The world needs to-day who would rather be burned to death than do what is wrong and offensive to God.—Rev. C. H. Polhemus, Congregationalist, Denver.

WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS. There is bigotry in every church, and what the world needs is not a set of new opinions, but great personalities to touch the slow beating spiritual heart with life and move the whole procession of humanity at the double quick in its appointed march to God.—Rev. B. Fay Mills, Unitarian, Saratoga.

CREMATION NOT FOR CHRISTIANS. New methods of disposing of the dead, among which is cremation, are not in harmony with the whisperings of our Christian faith. While they seem profane toward the dead, they deprive the living of the grand sweet lessons which come to us from our Christian cemeteries. Give to every one of the departed friends his little home and put over it the cross of Christ.—Archbishop Ireland, Catholic, St. Paul.

Trust and Distrust. Distrust thyself, but trust His grace. It is enough for thee! In every trial thou shalt trace Its all sufficiency.

Distrust thyself, but trust His strength. In Him thou shalt be strong. His weakest ones may learn at length A daily triumph song.

Distrust thyself, but trust His love. Most in its changeless glow. And life or death shall only prove Its cravering flow.

Distrust thyself, but trust alone In Him for all forever. And joyously thy heart shall own That Jesus faith never!

—Francis Ridley Havergal.
