MATAMORAS.

Mrs. George Dunn's home in Matamoras was the scene of a pleasant event Friday night, a surprise party being given in honor of Miss Jennie Dunn, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Dunn. About 30 were present. Miss Dunn is from Lewisville and left for her home today, so her friends considered it a suitable time for a surprise party. During the temporary absence of Miss Dunn and a friend in Port Jervis, the guests assembled at the house where the young lady was pleased to find them on her return. She played the part of hostess admirably and a delightful evening was passed in the enjoyment of games, music, etc., and in the discussion of a beautiful repast. The guests departed at a late hour, full of pleasant memories of a delightful evening.

A new telephone company is stretching wires all through the principal streets to spoil our pretty trees. They ought to be put under ground, and there would not be any trouble. Trees ought not to be split on account of telephone wires.

The Epworth church Sabbath school gave a very nice entertainment Sunday afternoon. There were recitations, vocal solo's by Lella Stearns, Blanche Watts and Cora Billman. Mr. Cal Langton is the superintendent. The school is in a very prosperous condition.

Miss Lena Gebhardt of Matamoros entertained a number of friends at her home on Pennsylvania Avenue Wednesday evening at a Progressive Euchre Party. Miss M. Englehart was awarded first prize, and Miss M. Schumacher and K. Quilon second prize. Refreshments were served and all had a very pleasant time.

The trolley road in Port Jervis affords a great deal of amusement for the Matamoras children. Some have never been to the places where the roads are and it is a great curiosity to them. The school child ran are carried for three cents. It is a great convenience, and we trust the time is not far distant when we can ride to Milford on the trolley.

The Christian Endeavor society connected with Epworth church, will give a New England Supper at the church on night Jan. 25. Prices of supper 30 cents. The society would be pleased to see all their friends out.

SHOHOLA.

The weather has been very good so far for quarrymen, but bad for men with teams. The roads are in no condition for either sleighs or wagons. William Endler, Sr. is quite ill with dropsy.

A Greening attended the caucus meeting at Shohola Saturday evening. The nominations were harmoniously made most of them by acclamation.

Chas. Haas has just finished stripping a large block of stone for McKean Bros. Peter Hess made a brief trip to Rattlesnake Sunday.

Desais Knapp received notice of litigation of six dollars a month with back pay, from April 1, 1897 being granted. He is a happy man now, and thanks the Major for the favor, which however was well earned, as Mr. Knapp was a good soldier in the civil war.

Chas. Haas and Wynnae Holms were at Farless Glen Monday on business matters. Geo. Reisel of Shohola has his new barn one of the nicest in the township, painted.

Some of the boys are happy to hear that wedding bells will soon be ringing. Wm. Sadler, Jr., enjoyed a sleigh ride with his oxen Sunday morning.

LAYTON.

A new arrival in the home of Frank McKee last week. It is a girl. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Doctor J. N. Miller moves to Newton this week and will divide his time between the Sussex Telephone company's business and a nicely business station of leisure for the benefit of his health.

The vendue of Dr. Miller on Friday last was well attended. Wash Lantz done efficient work as auctioneer. The bidding was reasonably brisk and the prices realized generally good.

John Aber we are sorry to hear does not show the improvement in condition that his friends have hoped for, but is still confined to the house by lumbar rheumatism.

A man who wishes to pose as a gentleman should never even think of making improper advances to a young girl, temporarily in his charge. We admire the wife who combs down the so-called gentleman in good style for his unbecoming actions as much as we detest his unmanly efforts to throw the burden of fault upon the innocent girl.

Peter Drake, Sandyston's oldest citizen is in a critical condition due to ailments incident to old age. It is hardly expected that he will recover.

Mrs. William Crane will have a vendue on Saturday Feb. 5. The sale will include a general line of farm utensils as well as live stock, and he held on the farm known as the John L. Evans property now owned by the heirs of the late Wm. Crane.

The Hudson River, long distance telephone company is doing some very neat work in Port Jervis. In the populous parts of town they use a rather short, but very stout pole upon which they string a half inch wire cable. The telephone wires are perfectly insulated, bunched together and encased in a copper tube which is suspended from the poles, and wire cable above referred to. This method while probably more expensive, presents the least obstacle to fighting fires, the least chance of contact with live electric light or trolley wires, not so liable to be broken by sleet or storms, and must eventually entail a minimum of expense in after care.

J. Linden Rosenkranz, now of Westtown Orange county, N. Y., but formerly of Sandyston has rented his farm near West town and will become a merchant in that town after April 1, and Postmaster after June 1st. His many friends wish him success.

The first act passed by the lower house of the Kentucky Legislature was an act to prevent the marriage of first cousins and declares all previous marriages of this kind incestuous. We wonder what they would call it if the relationship was closer.

E. T. Owens is in bed from an attack of quinsy. Dr. Hughes is in attendance and Mr. Owens is expected to be around again as usual, soon.

The full list of spring changes in this town will appear among these items a little later. There are so many rumors and changes of mind that we deem it more satisfactory to wait a bit, and endeavor to have them sufficiently accurate to serve as a reference to the readers of the Press, who wish to know where those who move are located the coming year.

Miss Lena Hornbeck has invitations out for a dance at her home this Friday evening. It now looks as if there would be sleighing, and a nice young man to look down upon the antics of the young. What more can they desire.

GREELEY.

Tuesday morning of this week Louis Baule started to Glen Eyre to do some team work for Mrs. Fred Holbert, when near Deits Mill the sleigh struck a stone and caught his foot underneath the runner and bruised it very badly. W. F. Hartwell was with him and brought him back as far as Geo. Hartwell and left him to be cared for. Will took the team and went to work in the former's place.

W. V. Burcher sold one of his team horses last week to Joseph Andregg and went to his farm in Wayne county Sunday and got one to match his sorrel colt, so he drives a matched team now.

Miss Tina Burcher left her brother's at the Glen last Saturday to visit her brother, J. L. Burcher, at Honesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hartwell spent the day at Lackawanna last Friday.

Mr. Wilko has been very sick at his home near Burcher's Lake for some time and little hope of his recovery was anticipated at first but at this writing he is improving. Dr. Howard attended him.

Miss Ella Westfall attended the wedding of her niece, Elmer Westfall to Miss Anna Hansen at Baoba last Wednesday.

W. F. Hartwell and Ross Rosenkranz attended meeting last Sunday at McKean Valley.

Adam Eli took a trip to the county seat last Friday.

Quite a number of the children around this place are battling with bad colds. Miss Ella Westfall spent last Sunday with Miss Ella Rosenkranz as the former will close her term of school this week her calls will be termed farewells, we say farewell, but we hope not forever as she will have a good many friends at this place and we hope she may be with us again ere many years pass away. DANNY BELL.

MONTAGUE.

Put up your cutter. John Vanoy is slightly improved. Mrs. E. Stidd is on the sick list.

Howard Cole of Toledo, Ohio is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Cole. Horace Smith visited his father at Morris Plains last Wednesday.

We are going to have an oyster supper over here pretty soon. H. please don't shoot us with latin give up plain Dutch.

The chairman of the liars club since getting lost has showed no inclination to keep his flock together, hence no Montague lies. But we will do better later.

O say! Have you had your picture enlarged for the price of a high toned frame? Mrs. Alice Van Anken has in her yard a bunch of dandelion ready to bloom. Fact.

In the year of 1896 our Town Congress erected a railing along the highway below Tappanstown. Some people kicked because they thought it was not necessary, others because it should have been done by contract and not by the congress itself. Be that as it may the railing is or was there. Now would it not be a good idea for to build a railing around the turn by the blacksmith shop at Millville? If over there was a place where one was needed that's the spot. Edgar Boyd of Milford knows the spot, having been spilt from a load of hay there a couple of years ago.

Mrs. Ada Hornbeck has accepted a position in Port Jervis. Miss Ida Balch has returned to Matamoras.

Capt. Jas. E. Cole won the gun. The lucky number was 28. Where is the chairman?

Our town is so quiet at present there is hardly enough to get up a letter, of course there is talk of the numerous changes which are contemplated on April 1st, but I will not mention them till later on.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brink of Bolton Basin visited Montague and Sandyston friends yesterday and to-day.

Jim had his cart out yesterday the first in some time.

Jas. M. Still Hainesville's enterprising merchant has six teams busy drawing railroad ties and hoop-poles to Port Jervis. Would there were more like him. DICK.
