CORRESPONDENCE

BRICK HOUSE.

Mrs. Ellen Westbrook will take charge of her farm near Hainesville.

Did you ever? We are going to have another telephone line over here and yet some people claim we are not in it.

Miss Anna Careywell, Miss Fanny Armstrong and L. A. Marthas are still under the doctor's care.

Did you make garden last Friday, or chop wood? The latter was more in season.

Nurseryman Swartzwell delivered trees over here last week.

Why don't the proper officer give public notice when the Town Committee meet? The familiar face of Mrs. M. Lane is again seen in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose, of Matamoras, spent Easter with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Case, of Port Jervis, also visited Mrs. Case's parents.

Miss Alice Black is home from New York.

Prof. C. R. Smith has invested in a new wheel.

An organ grinder, the sure sign of spring, has visited Montague.

John S. Clark is painting his residence.

O, Lord, what kind of a landlord must it be when a tenant can only have two weeks?

This place was visited by a fire about 10 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, when the dwelling house of Loren T. Cole, situated along the Grove Road, about five miles below Tri-State, was totally destroyed, together with nearly all of its contents. The fire was discovered by William Williams of Hainesville, who, with the assistance of Mrs. Cole and some neighbors, saved a piano and a few other articles. Mr. Cole being absent in Port Jervis. The building and contents were insured for $200.

The Easter Supper at the Church Thursday evening netted $7.30. Eggs were plentiful enough even for the two loaves.

Howismore, still we live, even with out getting an invite to a wedding.

The L. A. S. of the Reformed Church is under great obligations to that fellow who writes from here for the Register. The ladies say they can stand the stars, as they are under no obligations to the writer of those compliments, for any assistance.

Haelel Sagrs has succeeded! Good for ye, old boy. Where others shrank back and thought it was impossible to take a paper and get one thousand dollars subscribed in six months, you have done it and can rest on your laurels. The Ladies Aid Society subscribed two hundred dollars. Good girls, those.

The Board of Education of this town has met and adjourned. They had a nice time. The new President, Mr. O. C. Vanauken, who wears a big white hat, did first rate.

A resolution was passed authorizing the District Clerk to notify the firm of whom the ranch talked about maps and distillation were bought (by a vote of three) that said maps are here, subject to the firm's orders. If the firm orders them paid for, then the Board will say a thing or two not overly complimentary to some folks; but that can't be helped. Furthermore, the Board has ordered another meeting for the legal voters of Montague, to get together and vote $40 to renew the insurance on the Brick House, and Clove Church schoolhouses. Said meeting will take place Tuesday afternoon, April 23, at three o'clock, in the Brick House school house. If the former Clerk had attended to his business, for which he was well paid, this matter would have been disposed of at the annual meeting. The new Clerk discovered the insurance ran out, hence the action.

That is all for this time from FIVE.

LAYTON.

The Crispin Broad Tire bill passed by the last New Jersey Legislature is an earnest move toward better roads. It provides that every heavy-draft wagon with two or more wheels shall be equipped with tires three and a half inches or more in width, shall be entitled to a rebate in taxes of $1.50 per wheel the first year, and $1.00 per wheel the second year. Those who are at all familiar with the subject know that there is nothing so destructive of roads, whether stone or gravel, as narrow tread draft wagons.

The Sussex Telephone Co. should now carry out the plans as projected by its first manager, E. T. Wright, and string more wires. The service here is loaded on a single wire, and the many phones loaded on it leads to confusion worse confounded. It probably cannot more than Christian League than would the putting up of all the stove pipes in town.

The painters will commence work this week on the Club House at Beavans. The outbuildings will be touched up in the meantime, also, and B. D. Hursh will climb the 80-foot flag pole and give it a coat of clear paint.

"Wild Bill" was in town a short time Easter Sunday, and the twin was—oh! just so delightfully glad to see him. Yes, indeed.

George Smith, of Beavans, spent Easter with relatives at Layton.

Our hosts, Montross and Van Nosa, drew down the curtains to their bars at the beginning of Court, and their regular clients began to fear that it was going to be a long while between drinks, and the month might even last a whole year, but bearing a gentle admonition from the Court, the boys came out with flying colors. It is six days in the week and no minors need apply.

The new pastor, Rev. W. H. Burley, is going to take like a prairie fire. His first discourse Sunday evening seemed to impress the ladies that he is a jolly good fellow. The gentlemen agree that he is a gifted story teller, and he certainly flustered the janitress somewhat, so that she forgot to blow out the lights at the end of the service when she went home. It was still lighting the tabernacle when I went to rest, somewhere near midnight.

The Easter Social at Beavans last Friday night was all the success its promoters could desire. The attendance was large and receipts about $31.00.

John Thompson and sons, of Branchville, are driving from that Branch to Hainesville, where they are working on the house of Jacob R. Morris. They are first-class workmen, and Jacob will not be long getting his buildings in order.

Interest in the art gallery in the "Micky" shop at Layton seems to be on the wane. The main pastime of pasting up the picture of some one whom they dislike, and then making faces at it has become a little monotonous. Really matters of more importance begin to intrude upon the vacancy in their thoughts, where their minds are supposed to be located. The "Micky" don't need a spy-glass to see a genuine opposition art gallery across the brook, and the ex-Freemason is no doubt much more interested just now in living pictures nearer home.

The cooks at the Flatbrookville Club House took their positions last week as usual for several weeks past. A. M. Bigelow, the President of the Club, and a most expert fisherman, is expected at the Club house this week with his family, and a party of friends.

Win H. Layton, of Lafayette, was in Sandston a few hours on Monday. He drives a horse that can do twelve miles an hour on good roads, if necessary.

The school children came home the other evening, with handsome bouquets of the trailing Arbutus. The sweet perfume wafted to me as I write, shows clearly that the frost has not injured it.

A new kink developed last week at Court. Information supposed to have been lodged with the Court against several hotel keepers was used to discipline them, but the informant was not exposed. This method injects a new source of uneasiness as to the latitude a hotel keeper may exercise in running his house that is now all together reassuring. Under this system the informants hand does not appear, and it partakes a little of the nature of sharp-shooting from ambush.

Dan Hunterdon, the irresponsible Dan, is driving the mail from Layton to Flatbrookville with great regularity. He has the job to July 1st.

Would it not be well for the Town Committee to formulate a rule requiring the Superintendent of roads not to employ men of notoriously intemperate habits on the roads. It would only be carrying good business methods into the town management.

The new Borough of Branchville is having a sad thinning out of its older citizens since the incorporation. Three or more aged people having died recently.

This feels like making garden, and sowing oats. Everybody owning sufficient ground for a garden, should decide to have a good one this year. There is both health and satisfaction in a good garden.

It is surprising that the fruit buds should have withstood the winter temperature of this month, considering the advanced and tender condition they were supposed to be in, but as far as we have examined, they are all right yet.

The Hot Water Heater, in the Bealer House at Pine Hill Farm, was fired up last Friday, and the chicks are now enjoying hot water heat. A summer temperature at all times.

Arlo Major brought in the first big load of goods from Branchville Station for the new store at Layton, on Monday.

"Honest John" is a gin to race cats and kanada thaisals this year. The trout business thins as safe as it used to be, and the Club don't let them any more. "Honest John" is a gin to be on the safe side any way even if he has to eat "suckers" all the year round. We wish him success, and hope the revival of prosperity will hit him, where it has missed all the rest of us. Amen.

E. J. Wright, of Brookly, the former manager of the Sussex Telephone Co. is now in Louisiana and other southern States projecting new telephone work.

Something new, a spring tooth harrow with wheels, Syracuse plows and "Planet Jr." cultivators at W. & G. Mitchell's.

W. H. Barker, who recently died, was granted a patent on a bicycle tire which may be briefly described as having thirty two steel springs fastened to a regular rim, the springs having attached to them, a thin steel shoe with a rubber casing.

Clarence Dily was honored a surpetat at his home, Thursday evening. The affair was gotten up by Miss Angela Oree and the young gentlemen having quite some his native bashfulness was overcome by the occasion and gave his friends a pleasant evening.

Egworth Church celebrated Easter with a very elaborate program. Addresses were made by the pastor Rev. F. G. Curtis, and Calvin Langston, Supt. of the school. A number of book prizes were awarded for missionary work, and all deserve great credit for their services in rendering a most pleasing order of services.

The Easter services at St. Joseph's Church were unusually attractive. The floral decorations were fine and the singing excellent. Father Treis celebrated Holy Mass in the early morning and also at St. Mary's Church, Lackawanna, later.

Hope Church was also beautifully decorated with geraniums and potted plants. The choir of eight voices rendered an elaborate musical program and Rev. J. A. Viegand presided an eloquent and impressive sermon.

DELAWARE.

The common question is, "how many eggs did you eat?"

The Schuyler school closed on Tuesday.

The recent cold snap suddenly put a stop to planting.

Miss Minerva Clark, who has been spending a week at Flatbrookville, came home on Saturday.

B. F. Schoonover, who suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago, is now in an unexcusable condition and all hopes for his recovery have been abandoned.

Mrs. Julia A. Van Druff, nee Van Gordon, of East Stroudsburg, visited friends and relatives here a few days last week.

Joseph Carhuff moved on the Middaugh farm, vacated by Calvin Cron, on Monday last.

But few removals were made in this vicinity this spring.

GREENTOWN.

The exhibition and box party held at the Shunontwa schoolhouse, April 7th, under the management of Miss Agnes Hoppa, was a decided success. Proceeds to go to a hall for the school house.

D. D. G. M. W. H. Vascoe, of Honesdale, installed the officers of Wallenpaupack Lodge, No. 478, I. O. O. F., Saturday evening: N. G., E. H. Lange; V. G., Geo. Bartleson; F. S., J. B. Gilpin; Ass't F. S., Harry Akers; Chaplain, A. H. Rosmer, Jr. The lodge has taken in five new members within the past month or two.

The telephone line from Greentown to Gouldsboro Station is about completed. Also from Greentown to Lanna, and from Lanna to Tolyhanna.

The Supervisors of Greene are improving the nice weather by working the roads. Considerable work was done in March, which was an unusual occurrence in this section.

Rev. David Evans, pastor of Homelock Church, started for Conference, April 14th, which convened at Warwick, N. Y., the 14th inst.

Mrs. E. F. Gilpin is on the sick list.

F. G. Hames, President of the Greentown and Gouldsboro Telephone Co., has been very busy for the past two weeks, attending to the duties of his office.

Our school closed Monday, April 14th.

The Best Lintment—"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the finest on earth," writes Edwards & Parker, of Plains, Ga. This is the verdict of all who use it. For rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and the numerous slight ailments and accidents common to every household, this liniment has no equal. With it in the house a great deal of suffering and pain may be avoided. For sale by druggists and general merchants in Pike County.

PAUPAC.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11, 1898.

EDITOR OF THE PRESS.

Dear Sir:—A copy of your paper of April 1st has been sent to me, in which I see publication of Child's Park on the Delinquenty tax out of 21 cents, apparently for school taxes.

I have paid immediately, every tax bill that has been sent to me, and paid a school tax in January last and was under the impression that all taxes were paid. I have received from the executors of Mr. Child's estate, funds for the necessary expenses of the Park. All bills presented to me at my office, 126 South 7th Street, Philadelphia, will be promptly met.

Will you please make mention of this in your paper, as I do not wish the impression to get abroad that the Child's Park is not to be maintained as a "public" park.

Yours truly,
E. F. HOFFMAN.
